

CORRESPONDENCE

Rev. H. S. Dow:

Very best New Year greetings to yourself and family. We have been having just awful cold weather out here, as low by some glasses as 52 below zero, by government glass, 47. No sunny weather that! This is the first nice day now in two weeks, but how good it is that no matter how cold the day may be one can have the fire of sacred love brightly burning on the altar of our souls? I am just so thankful this afternoon for the deep, sweet consciousness of God pervading my inmost being. Blessed, gentle, Holy Jesus, blessed Bridegroom of my heart. Oh how sweet is His love; how sweet is His love to me! This is the language of my heart just now.

You will find enclosed my subscription for 1935. I do enjoy getting it.

Wishing all the Highway readers a blessed walk with God this year.

I am saved through the never-failing love of God.

CASSIE GREER WILSON

Calais, Me.,

Dear Highway:

The interest in Crawford is still good. We had a good meeting with Brother H. S. Wilson in November; several souls were at the altar either for pardon or purity. We do not feel the time has come to try to organize there yet; a few folk want to, but the majority would sooner have the church unorganized. We have given a copy of our covenant to all who are interested. We plan to give them special meetings again in the Spring. Since Brother Wilson was with us some have sought the experience of entire sanctification. There was one young lady at the altar Tuesday night, January 22nd, for pardon. We have good prayer meetings there on Tuesday nights and a regular service each Sunday afternoon.

We plan to have special meetings, and are trusting God for a revival, in Calais soon. We do not plan to stay here another year, as we feel our time is up in this part of the vineyard. You may give notice of our resignation in the Highway. After June 1st, we are open for a call to do whatever Gods wants us to.

We close now with kindest personal regards to you and family. May God bless you in your work. Pray for us. We are all well and enjoying salvation.

Yours in Him.

Dear Brother Dow:

Please announce in Highway that the quarterly meeting of this district will be held here March 7 over the 10th. We had planned on the week before but Brother Cochrane wrote, saying they probably wouldn't be through their meetings, hence the change.

The Lord is still blessing us here and souls are under conviction. The Sunday school broke all records last Sunday and I received seven more members and more coming. Our crowds are good and there is no sign of any reaction. We expect to keep blest and on the victory side. We are laying plans for our new church and will begin construction soon as possible. May the Lord continue to bless you and your work.

Yours for victory

Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed $2.00 for Sanders' passage. May God bless the Highway and all its people. Since taking the Highway I have found a great help in its pages. I would not want to be without it.

Wishing you and the paper success, I remain,

One who loves Jesus

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find check in payment for my Highway. I have been a subscriber for over thirty years and I would not like to be without it. I enjoy reading its clean pages, especially letters from those I have met at Beulah, from missionaries in the foreign fields, and the many inspiring messages.

Yours in Jesus.

Dear Brother Dow:

Just found out the date of the next Quarterly Meeting. It is to meet with the Church at Hartland right at your home town. Are you coming? Would enjoy seeing you.

There is quite a lot of sickness in town which has tended to make smaller attendance at church, Sunday school and prayer meetings as well.

How it needs a lot of people warmed up spiritually when the people will get to the meetings. The warm feeling and interest in the heart life, tends to put the push in the body so that the cold is faced boldly and people come together in greater numbers. This is a good remedy for lassitude and apathy.

One of our family, Banfred's wife, was operated on for appendicitis. Was able to get home on the twelfth day and is making grand progress in recovery.

Have been doing some Home Department visiting and have had some good times in this work, and some surprises as well and feel repaid for the effort. Please pray for Woodstock and the work here.

Robert Henderson, one of our members, is still poorly.

Yours in the Work.

Dear Highway:

Since writing the obituary for Rev. H. H. Cosman which appeared in "The Highway" of January 15th, I have received a very nice letter from his widow in which she tells me of his illness and passing. Thinking that this will be of interest to his relatives and friends, I am sending it along. They were married nine years ago last month, January 26th, 1926, and after a few years spent in Pennsylvania, they went to California to reside. About two years ago our brother was ill with the Grippe, from which he never fully recovered. Later returning to Pennsylvania, he suffered a paralytic stroke which greatly impaired his health, finally causing him to take his bed some three months before the end.

Mrs. Cosman says that for the last nine years he practically did no preaching, but always enjoyed going to service, and listening to others preach as he had opportunity. During his late illness he was helpless but was tenderly cared for by his loving wife, who says that he was always cheerful and patient during all his illness. His one desire was to get back again to New Brunswick to see all his old friends. Surely a good man has gone, and his works do follow him. I had expected long before this to have been able to get around again, but find that while my foot is improving, I am still confined to the house. This is surely a time of testing, yet I am glad the anchor of faith holds. I am proving that He who is able to save to the uttermost is fully able to keep us from falling.

We have had a good opportunity to review the many years spent in Christian service, and trust that we may still have a number more in which to labor for Him who has done so much for us.

Yours in Christ.

Rev. H. S. Dow,

Dear Friend and Brother:

Was thinking as I was sitting in my room alone, about over in New Brunswick, and the friends I used to know about all gone now. I was over last Summer and only a few old ones are left. I got the Highway this morning and how I love to get it. It has so many good things in it and right to the point. I do love truth, just as it is if it does cut me off. I like a full salvation that takes the world out of one and sets the joy bells ringing in my soul. Something that makes me feel happy all over. I went to hear Mr. Watson when I was in Fredericton last Summer. I like his preaching, it is the full gospel.

I remain,

Your friend.

Dear Highway:

Just a few lines to report from this corner of His vineyard. On Jan. 6th, we began revival meetings here with my brother Norman, as our evangelist. These services ran on until Feb. 3rd, rather the 4th, my brother then leaving here. Much of this period the weather was very cold or stormy, or the roads were very bad because of the snow, etc., so the attendance was not large.

The powers of darkness also seemed to have made a special effort to defeat God's work here and hinder the revival. But in spite of all things God saved some poor lost souls, praise His precious Name! After the close of the first service, a man sought the Saviour. And since then there were around four or five backsliders returned to the Lord, and I believe as many or more souls seek sanctification.

I did appreciate and enjoy the presence and fellowship of my brother at this time, and believe more good was also accomplished which is not counted in numbers nor perhaps immediately apparent. Norman brought to us well studied and prepared messages and God certainly did bless and help him, making him a blessing to others, and now though he has gone I frequently hear some pray earnestly for him, and some expressed that he was a blessing or help to them.

The day my brother left we had a prayer-meeting that night at one of the cottages and a backslider sought the Lord. Then in the subsequent prayer-meetings and preaching services God has helped us. I am looking to God that the revival shall continue even in the prayer-meetings, and more souls seek the Lord for salvation and sanctification.
