

mouth Hospital on the 30th. I am enjoying my training, and find it very interesting. I intend to keep my heart open to Jesus, in all things.

Wishing all the Highway Readers a Very Merry Xmas.

Sincerely,
MYRA A. CROWELL.

Kingston, N. B., Dec. 21, 1935

Dear Bro. Dow:—I have read with deep interest the letter of Bro. D. M. MacDonald, dated Oct. 15, 1935. Surely this urgent appeal for help should touch the heart of every one of God's children interested in this particular mission field to act at once and with all the means possible within their power, or even beyond our power can we not take God's word for our foundation and by faith in Christ our Lord and Saviour, to whom the Father hath committed all power in Heaven and earth, and follow Him who will make up unto us that wherein we lack so that we may be able to give and do as the early followers of Christ did, who forgetting themselves for the sake of others could experience the great joy that comes from giving and know the blessedness that exceeds that which comes from receiving. Let us turn to II Cor., 8 Chap. for our lesson. In the 5th verse we find the secret: They first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God and the 9th verse brings us to the head of this company of people who know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for our sakes He became poor, that we through His poverty might be rich, let us prove for ourselves. Prov. 10-22: The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it, now all Scripture is given by inspiration of God. See II Tim. 3, 16, 17. It teaches us all that we need to know for our own eternal good, and among the many things that it tells us, we find that the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the gold and silver belong unto Him. We are entrusted with it as stewards to use under His directions, and we find in the 3rd Chap. of Malachi that He came to His people with sharp reproof, for they had taken their own ways about matters, and were found guilty of robbing God and misrepresenting the truth, even speaking against Him, and coveting the prosperity and ease of the wicked. Let us search our hearts and lives by the aid of God's spirit and word, lest we be found guilty as those people were. There seems to be money to carry on everything of the world, but little to carry on the work of God's kingdom, even sacrifices or self-denials are being made to raise money to carry on war. Italy has 8 million women and 2 million men that have donated their wedding rings to make provision to carry on war, which is adding misery to misery and turning light into darkness. Let us who are called of Christ unto repentance and from dead works unto everlasting life, receive the gift at His hand, and cheerfully in sincerity and humility follow Him. I am enclosing $5.00 to apply to the Foreign Missionary Fund. Let us not hold back any longer on this pressing need. As more comes into my hands I purpose forwarding it. Let us follow the light and immediately obey the heavenly vision.

Your Brother in Christ,

J. W. COSMAN.

P. S. I wish you and all the Highway readers the Real Joy of Christmas.

Hartland, M.S., South Africa,

Nov. 18, 1935

Dear Bro. Dow:—Enclosed is a bit of an old serpent's skin, just to bring to you again the realization that Jesus is our gift and through Him we can be free from sin.

May God give you a very happy Christmas and bless you and your work this coming New Year to be the best for His best.

Yours in His Will,

G. SANDERS.

Note.—We are glad to have this brief note from Brother George Sanders who is one of our missionaries in the far-off land of South Africa.—Editor.

Prairie, Wash., Dec. 2, 1935

Dear Editor:—I noticed your appeal to subscribers in the October 31st number for back money, and we were asked to look at the label on our paper which I did and will enclose check for what I owe. We are old people now. Have been a subscriber to the Highway almost ever since leaving Millville in 1904. Was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church before coming here. Am now a member of the Free Methodist. But the important question is, is my name written in Heaven. Yes, I say yes, from the bottom of my heart I believe it is all praise to the One who has made it possible. There is one Highway I would dearly love to find, of December 1917 or '18, which had a picture of my father and mother, and my father's obituary, Mr. Jarvis Hoyt of Millville. Mine got lost. So many of the Highway families have been called on, that I knew, the paper is almost a strange one. Harvey Archer and wife, the only ones now that I was acquainted with. The older Trafions I knew well. Yes, and Ida Kierstead.

Well praise the Lord if we are true a little longer we shall meet when parting shall be no more. Haven't felt as though I was writing to a stranger and have been made to think how the love of Jesus knits our hearts in Christian love. I love the Lord this morning with all my heart. And the one ambition of my life is to do the will of God, keep humble at His dear feet. We have had a very trying summer. Mr. Johnston had an operation in April; got along very well for a time. In June he had to go back to hospital and suffered much for a time, but is now quite well but has to see the doctor yet. I simply can't pen words to express my gratitude to the dear Lord for His goodness through it all. I found Him to be a great help in every need and I just want to praise Him as long as He gives me breath.

FUNERALS

MISS ELEANOR TRITES

The funeral of Miss Eleanor Trites, 27, who passed away in Melrose, Mass., on Friday last, took place yesterday afternoon. An impressive service was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Trites, Stilesville, and was largely attended by relatives and friends from the surrounding districts who joined in paying a final tribute to a young lady who was highly esteemed and beloved by all who knew her.

The service was held at 2 o'clock and was conducted by Rev. H. S. Dow, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church, this city, assisted by Rev. L. R. Graves, pastor of the Lutes Mountain group of Baptist Churches. Following the service at the home the cortege left for the Stilesville cemetery where interment was made. Rev. Mr. Dow conducted the committal service, assisted by Rev. Mr. Graves.

A great many floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received which bore silent tribute to the high esteem in which the deceased young lady was held.—Moncton Times.

ROY MARR

The death messenger visited Knoxford, N. B., and claimed Roy Marr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marr, at the early age of 19 years. Roy died on Dec. 13th, just a few days after an operation for appendicitis had been performed. Roy made his peace with God during his sickness.

Besides his loving parents he left one brother, Frederick, Knoxford, N. B., and seven sisters, Florence, Mrs. Barent Rogers, Knoxford, N. B.; Margaret, Mrs. Murray Rogers, Benton, N. B.; Bertha, Mrs. Bertha Piper, Knoxford, N. B.; Madeline, Rowena, Elnora and Ina, at home.

The funeral was held in the U. B. Church at Lower Knoxford, N. B., on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 15th. The service was largely attended. Rev. G. A. Rogers officiated at the home, church and grave. He was assisted at the church and grave by Rev. Mr. Duncan, Tracey Mills, N. B., and Rev. H. G. Blaney, Royalton, N. B. The U. B. choir rendered three selections.

Interment was made in the Lower Knoxford cemetery.

To the sorrowing ones we offer our sympathy and prayers.

G. A. ROGERS.

EDWARD TWIST

The funeral of Edward Twist was from Wright's funeral parlors, Presque Isle, on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 12th. Rev. G. A. Rogers officiated both at the funeral parlor and at the grave. Miss Myrtle Johnston, Mrs. Herman Ginn, and Miss Ella Slipp sang three selections.

Mrs. Frank Brown, of Fort Fairfield, was a sister of the deceased. The surviving ones have our sympathy.

Interment was made in the Mapleton cemetery.

G. A. ROGERS.

DONATION

Hartland, N. B., Dec. 12, 1935.

On the evening of Nov. 29th about forty-five members and friends of the Hartland Church met at the Parsonage and presented us with a fine donation of produce and cash amounting to about $25.00. The evening was spent very pleasantly and the ladies served a tasty lunch. Bro. John Orcer on behalf of those present, spoke a few words of appreciation and encouragement to the pastor and wife, after which we tried to respond to his kind remarks, also heartily thanked the people for their thoughtfulness at this time. May God bless them in their efforts to supply our physical and temporal needs, while we faithfully strive to minister to them of spiritual things.

Wishing All a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.
