

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

In the absence of the pastor of the Moncton church who was attending Riverside Camp-meeting on August 18th, Licentiate A. Deadman preached at the morning service and the evening service was in charge of the Young People's Society, with two speakers at that service. Miss Muriel Wright the president, and Miss Wyonetta Sargeson the secretary of their society. The speakers delivered excellent messages, and they had good services in spite of the hot weather.

Rev. P. J. Trafton visited several of his friends on his return from Riverside. He called at the following places, Hartland, Lower Brighton, Woodstock, Fredericton, Moncton, Saint John, and also went up to Beulah Camp-grounds and called on several there. All were glad to see and have a call from a former pastor.

PERSONALS

Mrs. W. C. Wright of Southampton, is confined to her bed through illness and requests the prayers of God's people for her speedy recovery. Let us all remember to pray for our sister.

Mrs. Briggs, wife of Rev. P. W. Briggs, of Island Falls, Maine, consulted a doctor on her way to Beulah camp-meeting who told her she had a cancer and advised a surgical operation immediately. Sister Briggs asked for special prayer for her healing, at Beulah, which was made for her, and she testified there that God had healed her. The editor received a letter from our sister recently stating that she consulted the same doctor on her return home who examined her again, and told her she was better and did not need an operation. Sister Briggs says she is feeling real well, for which we say, Praise the Lord!

Brother George Tedlie of Lower Brighton is confined to his bed because of a weak heart. Let us remember him in prayer also.

Rev. S. A. Mullen and Mrs. Mullen have a new baby girl added to their family. Mother and baby are doing well.

Mrs. H. S. Dow, Miss Grace Dow, Mr. Edward Dow, of Hartland, and Mr. Roy Hemphill of Knowlesville, left on Tuesday, Aug. 20th, by auto for a ten days' trip through several cities of Canada, to go as far as St. Catharines, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Glidden and Rev. and Mrs. Perley Briggs spent a few days visiting friends in Skowhegan, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Glidden expect to move near Skowhegan shortly. The churches at Crystal and Belvidere will greatly miss this godly family and regret their going.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the Reformed Baptist Parsonage at Crystal, Maine, when Miss Geneva Patterson became the bride of Mr. Dana Kennedy, Rev. Perley Briggs officiated, the double ring service being performed. This young couple are residents of Patten, Maine, graduates of Patten Academy. After a short honeymoon they will make their home in Patten, where Mr. Kennedy is engaged in farming. They have the best wishes of their many friends for a long happy married life.

THE POWER OF THE WORD

A patient in an American hospital in Turkey was given a copy of the Bible, and carried it home to an Armenian village. The priest snatched it from him, and flung it into the street. A grocer picked it up and used it in his shop to wrap up small purchases. Soon the customers began to ask if he had and more leaves of that book. They had read the torn pages, and wanted to know more. The leaves were treasured and read over and over again.

One day a missionary came to this village, and over a hundred persons hastened to him for Bibles. No Christian preacher had been at work, but the scattered leaves of the Word of God had proclaimed the message of light and life.—Exchange.

HOW TO MAKE THE SUNDAY SCHOOL GROW

Always go. Always be on time.

Enter heartily into the singing, and reverently into all the opening exercises.

Be appreciative of the officers and let them know it occasionally.

Accept any place you are asked to take on the Sunday School staff.

In the class, give attention to the lesson discussion and avoid private or whispered conversation. It disturbs others.

Treat all new-comers as guests, and make them want to return.

Give hearty support to the projects of the school to encourage the spirit of co-operation.

If you are not elected to some office, be happy that you can give your entire attention to your class and the building up of the interests of the school.

Give as liberally as you can to the support of the school, and when a surplus accumulates, plan a missionary project to apply it to.

Be enthusiastic about your school and boost it as you would a private interest.

Pray for the outpouring of the Holy Ghost upon yourself and your school, and upon all the officers of the church, that all may be used of God to promote a revival of interest in the Bible and the means of salvation. If you will do this, it will be the best year of your life.—F. R. Eddy.

To fill the hour—that is happiness; to fill the hour and leave no crevice for repentance or an approval. We live amid surfaces and the true art.

I have learned to judge of men by their own deeds; I do not make the accident of birth the standard of their merit.—Hale.
