

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6

Rev. H. R. Hamilton, our evangelist, arrived at our Riverside Camp on Saturday the 8th, and is doing good preaching, and the people are enjoying his messages. We have had excellent weather and the attendance was good over the first Sunday. We are expecting victory as the services continue. The following brethren of the ministry were present for the first Sunday: Revs. P. J. Trafton, H. E. Mullen, S. G. Hilyard, Geo. DeLong, B. H. Kimball, H. S. Dow, beside some outside our denomination.

Rev. H. E. Mullen is very much encouraged with the work at Fort Fairfield. He reports good attendance at all the services and Sunday School.

We also hear good reports from the Hartland circuit where Rev. H. C. Mullen has taken charge. We are also glad to hear that Brother Mullen's health is better.

On Sunday afternoon, June 28th, Rev. G. A. Rogers baptized three in the Aroostook River at Fort Fairfield. That same evening two were received into church membership.

On Sunday afternoon, July 26th, there were three at the altar at Brazil Lake. On the afternoon of Aug. 2nd there were three more at the altar at Brazil Lake. There was one at the altar at Port Maitland on Sunday evening, Aug. 2nd.

PRESENTATION

The members of the Glad Hand Class of the Crystal Reformed Baptist Sunday School met at the parsonage on Saturday evening recently and presented their teacher, Mrs. P. W. Briggs, with a gift of money. The presentation was made by Miss Frances Willey, who spoke of how glad they were that Mrs. Briggs had come to them four years before and started the Glad Hand Class, there being no Young People's Class before that time. Also she spoke of the good that had been accomplished among the young people, and their regrets in having Brother and Sister Briggs and their family leave them, but hoped they would have success in their new field of labor.

OMNIPOTENCE

Up in the high and holy place
I dwell in light, and love, and grace.
But with the humble, contrite heart—
With him I also have a part.
'Tis My delight to answer prayer;
Roll now on Me thine every care.
Again, my child, I challenge thee:
Is anything too hard for Me?

PERSONALS

We were glad to meet several of the old landmarks at Riverside Camp. Among them are Brother J. H. Golding and wife, E. B. Lilley and wife, S. Burt and wife, Mrs. B. Cronkhite, Mrs. Melvina Doak, Mrs. W. L. Wilson, F. Kimball and wife. Several of these have passed the 4-score milestone in their journey thru life but are young and fresh in their spirits. Mrs. Chas. Jones, who lives on the camp-ground, is not having good health at present for which we are sorry. Also Brother Abram Cronkhite is in poor health again and requests the prayers of God's people. Let us remember our sick ones at the throne of grace.

Rev. E. A., and Mrs. Wilson and their two daughters, of Kingston, Ont., were welcome visitors at Beulah Campmeeting for several days. They came by auto and were accompanied by Miss Helen Goodspeed from Ottawa, who came to visit her parents, Sheriff C. N., and Mrs. Goodspeed at Fredericton, N. B.

Herbert Goodspeed, of Toronto, Ont., spent the week-end recently with his parents, Sheriff and Mrs. Goodspeed.

Miss Iza Macfarlane, of Fredericton, spent two weeks in Halifax recently visiting her brothers.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Marguerite, made a trip to Saint John recently, where he met his brother, Pastor M. S. Trafton. They all made a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patton at Apohaqui, N. B.

CORRESPONDENCE

Grand Harbor

Rev. H. S. Dow:

Please find enclosed money order on Highway. Sorry we have not been able to attend to this matter before. The Highway is always very welcome in our home.

Yours truly,

Mrs. G. R. Wilson

Saint John, N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

Just a few lines to-day. We just got back from N. S. Saturday, the 1st. Brother E. R. Watson supplied for me here the 26th July. I preached at New Tusket morning and evening, the 26th of July; preached at Westchester, N. S., the evening of the 31st of July: one soul at the altar; led two prayer meetings at New Tusket and went to another one, so you see I was quite busy on my so-called vacation. Called and visited at 21 or 22 homes.

Brother Abraham Cronkhite has been down to the General Hospital here; guess he left for home yesterday. I called on him Saturday night after I got home. He requests our prayers; wanted me to write you and ask the Highway family to pray for him that God might undertake in his case and if it is His will to heal him.

H. S. MULLEN

Dear Highway:

We spent four very pleasant years at Fort Fairfield, Maine. The longer we stayed the better we liked the place and the more we loved the souls of those to whom we ministered.

During our stay we witnessed four real good campaigns when God visited us. The Sunday School was a credit to any church. The Sunday services were times of blessing. The prayer services were real good. There would be a soul at the altar now and then. Paul did not forget a church when he moved to another place of labor. We shall continue to pray for the pastor and church at Fort Fairfield.

On Wednesday evening, June 17th, about 80 people of the Reformed Baptist congregation came to the parsonage to give us a farewell. It was a very fitting climax. What a beautiful spirit permeated the atmosphere. Shall we forget it soon? No! Those are some of the things that we care to store up in our hall of memory. Rev. F. T. Wright made a speech and in behalf of the group presented a purse of over twenty-eight dollars. Nineteen dollars came in at other times. We tried to respond. Prayer was offered by Brother Wright and the pastor. This was a sad meeting, but a blessed one. The evening was spent in conversation and singing. The ladies served ice cream and cake. The tangible gift meant much at that time and the love behind it meant still more.

On Sunday morning, June 28th, the farewell message was preached to the church from Acts 20:32; II. Cor. 13:11. On Sunday evening,

June 28th, the last sermon was preached on the theme: "The Christ that cannot be Hid." The Bethel Baptist and United Parish Churches joined in the closing services. The main auditorium and vestry were nearly filled to capacity. Several requested prayer in that service. The people of Ephesus accompanied Paul to the ship and the people of Fort Fairfield accompanied us to the very close of our ministry.

We predict a great time under the leadership of Rev. H. E. Mullen and pray that God shall "do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think."

Yours in Him,

REV. AND MRS. G. A. ROGERS

Dear Brother Dow:

Just a note from our new field of labor. We arrived at Fort Fairfield, Maine, July 22. The people have been very kind to us and thoughtful of our welfare. We like it fine in our new home and thank God for His goodness and love to us. We have enjoyed preaching the Truth to these folk. There has been good attendance at each service.

Sister Helen Emery was home on a visit and we had the privilege of hearing her preach Sunday evening, Aug. 2. She also led the Prayer Meeting one evening. We enjoyed having her with us and thank God for the Truth she brought. We are looking to God and trusting Him to help us in His great work.

Yours in Him,

H. E. MULLEN

THE GREAT DISCOVERY

Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage in the third century of the Christian era, is the author of the following confession of faith which sounds as though it might have been spoken in testimony in a holiness meeting. Writing to a friend he said:

"It is a bad world, Donatus, an incredibly bad world. But I have discovered in the midst of it a quiet and holy people who have learned a great secret. They have found a joy which is a thousand times better than any of the pleasures of our sinful life. They are despised and persecuted but they care not. They have overcome the world. These people, Donatus, are Christians—and I am one of them."—Wesleyan Methodist.
