A SURPRISE PARTY

On Monday evening, Oct. 5th, a number of the members of the Woodstock Reformed Baptist Church met at the parsonage and thoroughly surprised the pastor and his wife by giving them a party in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary (October 4th). The evening was spent pleasantly by these kind people who do enjoy a good social hour.

Before delightful refreshments were served, Mrs. G. B. True, on behalf of the members of the congregation, presented the celebrants with a purse of money, in expression of their respect and esteem. To this very acceptable token of interest, the recipients endeavored to reply, thanking the donors for their many acts of kindness and willingness to co-operate in the Master's service.

Gratefully His,
L. T. and MRS. SABINE
