

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, B. A., pastor of our church at Fort Fairfield, Me., expects to hold special services soon with evangelist Tokley as helper. We also hear that Rev. Tokley is to assist Rev. F. A. Watson at Fredericton in meetings soon.

Dear Brother Dow:

I have a short item which might be of interest: We had service in Roylton afternoon and evening of New Year's Day, having previously invited Rev. J. A. Owens to come and preach for us. The attendance at both services was real good, and our brother gave us two most excellent messages. The people were appreciative and showed it, which seemed to temporarily suspend the general principle that a prophet has no honor at home, for you know this is Brother Owens' home church. The presence of the Lord was manifest all day, and we rejoice that God has thus put His seal upon us again at the beginning of this New Year, and we purpose to press ahead in the strength of our God. We are planning to do our part on Jan. 26th, and have a good offering for Missions.

H. J. S. BLANEY

A letter from Sister Sanders says the work is going well at Amherst. She has been supplying at Westchester while her son, Charlie, the pastor there, has been at Amherst, assisting his father, Rev. Dr. Sanders. We have a good letter from Rev. Hollis Kimball, our pastor at Black's Harbor. He gives a very encouraging report of the work there. A revival spirit is on with souls getting saved. He expects to have special services soon. They have recently put new pews in their church, which adds much to the comfort and appearance of the building. They had a good Christmas, he writes, and one of the many presents sent to them and the one they love most, is a baby girl, Marilyn Stella.

A letter from Sister I. M. Kierstead, of Plaster Rock, says they have had some sickness this winter, but are all better now. She is praising the Lord for His mercies, and all the nice cards and letters from friends at Christmas.

Lic. Engene Kierstead, who is principal of the school at Plaster Rock, made a short visit to North Head during Christmas holidays, and preached in the church there on Sunday night.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Havelock, N. S., writes a very encouraging letter to the Editor, and also see one in this issue of Highway. He writes that he has been preaching as he has opportunity, and is still open for calls to the Lord's work. They had a nice Christmas, with their family all home. Their daughter, Helen, has gone back to her school at Plaster Rock, and their son, Wilbur, has gone back to E. N. C. to resume his studies. We also had a nice letter from Sister Alice Sterritt beside the one for the Highway. She is praising the Lord for His mercies in bringing her through her recent operation on her eye, and for the privilege of working for Him.

Lic. Bennett Cochrane and Lic. Donald Cochrane and their sister, Gertrude, have held a very successful meeting at Beals, Me., recently. The editor of the King's Highway was called over there last week to assist them. We went over Wednesday and stayed over Sunday. We baptized six happy converts on Sunday and received five of them into church membership. They are having large congregations and an excellent spirit in all the meetings. We enjoyed our visit with the faithful brethren and sisters at Beals.

Rev. P. J. Trafton reports good meetings at Port Maitland and Sandford with good attendance at prayer meetings.

Rev. H. C. Archer supplied for Rev. H. S. Dow on Sunday, Jan. 12th. He also spoke over the air from Moncton on Jan 6th. The editor will be on the air again on Jan. 27th.
