Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find $1.50 for Highway, which I enjoy reading very much. It is a great blessing to me.

MRS. F. C. SULLIVAN

Head of Millstream, N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

We feel we have great reasons to praise God for His blessing upon us on this circuit. We began revival services at Head of Millstream on June 8th. Brother Sellick, of Oxford, N. S., is the evangelist. He is an able preacher of the Word of God. His faithful messages and the prayers of the saints have been used of God to the salvation of souls.

Yesterday (June 21) was a great day. Souls wept their way through to victory at every service. We expect that Wednesday night will be the closing service of this campaign (June 24).

We had a Baptism at Killam's Mills Sunday afternoon, June 14th. Five were baptized and seven received into Church membership.

Our farewell messages will be next Sunday (June 28th) on this circuit.

We thank God for the privilege of ministering to these people on this circuit for the past three years. We believe God has used us here. Personally I feel this last year has been the most fruitful year of my ministry. I expect to keep true and keep on fire, so whatever place God has for me I may be of use to Him, Who loved me and gave Himself for me.

Yours in Him,

HARTLEY E. MULLEN

Fort Fairfield, Maine

I baptized 12 on Sunday afternoon, June 7th. I received 7 into the church that evening.

The Praying Band convention was held in our Church June 18th to 21st. It was a real blessing. There were four seekers on Sunday evening, the closing services of the convention.

I plan to have another baptism at Fort Fairfield on June 28th.

There is to be a Young People's Rally in our Church on Friday evening, June 26th. Rev. G. A. DeLong is to be the speaker.

Yours in Him,

G. A. ROGERS

Bay Head, Nova Scotia

Rev. Mr. H. S. Dow:

Please find enclosed $1.50 my renewal to the Highway for another year. There is so much good and helpful reading, I thought I could not get along without it. Another year has come and gone and I have a great many things to thank my Heavenly Father for in sparing me with this health and strength and home and friends to enjoy, and the faith and trust I have in Jesus. He is a friend above all others. Although our earthly friends forget us, we know that Jesus is a Friend that never changes. We may change but He doth never. Glory to His name, precious name. Help me to put my whole trust in Him alone. May the dear Lord help and bless you in your good work in the coming year.

Yours in Christian fellowship,

MARY S. COLE

Beals, Maine

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed find $1.75 due on Highway which I have taken over 30 years and look for its coming twice a month.

We are having good meetings but shall be glad when our pastor comes to stay.

I should like to come to Beulah but cannot. The Lord bless you in the services and may much good be done.

MRS. ALONZO L. ALLEY

Everett, Mass.

Dear Brother Dow:

I am enclosing a post office order for renewal of the Highway, my paper I dearly love. I am interested in the Reformed Baptist denomination. Am glad to hear of the young ministers taking the place of the old ones who have gone home. I hope and pray they will reach as deep an experience as they. I am and have been praying for the Alliance and Camp Meeting that the Holy Spirit will visit you with old time power and blessing, etc. I am fighting the good fight of Faith, and rejoicing in spirit for the blessed hope of seeing Jesus who has been so merciful to me, so tender and kind, loving and forgiving, who has also cleansed my heart from sin. Glory be to His dear Name.

Port Maitland, N. S.

Dear Highway:

We wish through your columns to express our appreciation of the kindness shown us during our stay of three years on this field. It was further evidenced on Monday evening, June 22nd, when more than 75 people, members of the churches and friends of Sandford and Port Maitland, N. S., gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Perry, Port Maitland, to say farewell and express their appreciation of us, and our labour among them, to extend their good wishes and hope for God's blessing on us in the future of our work for Christ and the Church. A pleasant evening was spent in conversation and singing, then a nice lunch of ice cream and cake was served by the ladies. Deacon Aaron Churchill in a few well chosen remarks presented us with a gift of money, others spoke words of appreciation. We tried to express our thanks for all their kindnesses and loyalty to the cause of God and to us, His servants. Blest be the Tie that Binds was sung, the pastor offered prayer and then "God be with You Till we Meet Again" closed the gathering. We are believing God for the future of the work. We have found many friends among the people of these communities who have expressed their regrets in our departure from among them. We pray God's richest blessing upon the churches and communities. Miss Grace M. Sanders was present and made a short speech.

But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Prov. 4:18.

There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty. Prov. 11:24.

THE ALPHABETICAL GOSPEL

All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made.—John 1:3.

But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by Him.—I. Cor. 8:6.

Concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord . . . by whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for His name.—Rom. 1:3-5.

Doth this offend you? John 6:61.

Even Christ pleased not Himself.—Rom. 15:3.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life.—John 3:16.

God is a Spirit and they that worship Him must worship Him in Spirit and in truth.—John 4:24.

Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me and I shall be saved; for thou art my praise.—Jer. 17:14.

I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.—John 11:25.

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today and forever.—Heb. 13:8.

Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.—Rom. 6:6.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.—I. John 2:15.

Many are called, but few are chosen.—Matt. 22:14.

No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.—Psalm 84:11.

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out.—Rom. 11:33.

Pray without ceasing.—I. Thess. 5:17.

Quench not the Spirit.—I. Thess. 5:19.

Resist the devil and he will flee from you.—James 4:7.

Sin is the transgression of the law.

The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Rom. 6:23.

Understanding is a well-spring of life to him that hath it; but the instruction of fools is folly.—Pro. 16:22.

Verily I say unto you, whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.—Luke 18:17.

Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.—Matt. 25:13.

X—The Cross of Christ.

Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.—John 15:14.

Zion, the new Jerusalem.

GOD IS KIND

I learn as the years roll around and leave the past behind,

That much I've counted sorrow but proves that God is kind,

That many a flower I longed for had a hidden thorn of pain,

And many a rugged by-path led to fields of ripened grain. —Selected.
