

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6

Rev. G. A. Rogers, B.A., who has been unable to work recently because of infection in his foot, is now quite well again and back at his work in Port Maitland, N. S. He is planning to hold evangelistic services soon.

Rev. S. G. Hilyard reports progress in his work. He had a baptism at Royalton on Oct. 4th.

The next quarterly meeting in District No. 2 will be held with the church at Moncton beginning Thursday, Nov. 19. We will plan to have a young people's rally at the same time.

Deacon A. K. MacCallum has been very ill recently. He was taken to the Moncton Hospital on Monday, Oct. 5th, but we are very glad to report that he is making rapid progress toward recovery now, and expects to be home again very soon.

Mrs. Hazen Steeves is also quite poorly at her home in Gunningsville. She suffered a paralytic stroke a few weeks ago and has since been confined to her bed.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Hartland, has been assisting Norman and Grace Sanders in meetings at Bristol recently.

WANTED

Several hundred subscribers to the King's Highway to please send in your renewals at once. We need the money to meet our obligations beloved. Please look at the little yellow label on your paper and the figures will tell you the year you paid last and the letters stand for the month. And let us hear from you. Thanks.—H.S.D., 45 Archibald St., Moncton.

LORD, MAKE ME BIG

Lord, make me great enough to meet the small things,

To overcome the petty cares and fears:
Lord, make me great enough to bear my heart-aches

And see a rainbow through my cloud of tears.

When trials come that tempt me to be bitter,
Lord, keep me sweet and beautiful within;
And help me rise above the darkness
To heights sublime above the plains of sin.

Lord, help me bear reproach if there be any,
Reproaches that may come for Jesus' sake;
I would ignore the unkind looks and sayings
That enemies and even friends would make.

I would be big and bear my cross unflinching,
With fearless heart and nerve and steady tread;
I would be brave and triumph like the Master
Who conquered all in rising from the dead.

Lord, to be big in all the cares that throng me,
One secret I must early learn from thee;
I must decrease that Jesus Christ might increase—

Thou must be big Thy Very Self in me.
—Kenneth Robinson, C.E.I.

The Master said, "Pray ye," "Give ye," "Go ye." The gospel not only contains the missionary idea and nothing else. Everything vital in missionary enterprises hinges on prayer; in not praying for missionaries we reduce their power.—Dr. J. R. Mott.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find my renewal for the King's Highway. Glad the Lord saved me from sin, sanctified me wholly; gives me victory. I expect to praise Him, brother, throughout eternity. I find joy and peace in His service. Praise His precious name forever.

Your Brother in Christ,
HUBERT O. McGEORGE

Dear Highway Readers:

It has been some time since writing a few lines, but just now I feel I should send my testimony. Well praise the Lord for saving grace and keeping power.

I am glad I once saw my need of a Savior and praise His blessed name. He is always ready to meet us more than half way when we are willing to give ourselves up to Him. Jesus is the only friend that will stay by us and we can call on Him at all times. I am asking Him every day to keep me nearer to him, and ever in His will.

Your Brother in His service,
ALTON H. URQUHART

CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE LEAGUE

The Annual Convention of the Christian Temperance League of New Brunswick will be held in the First Baptist Church, Moncton, N. B., on Wednesday, Oct. 21 and 22, 1936.

All Churches, Temperance Societies and other organizations accepting League principles are invited to send representatives—one for each 50 members or major fraction thereof.

A financial contribution is requested from each unit represented.

H. H. STUART, Secretary.

THOUGHTS

"Every one knows this, but it has not occurred to every one's mind."—Epicurus.

"Sin has many tools, but a lie is a handle to them all."

"A tongue three inches long can kill a man six feet tall."

"You can never win the world to Christ with your spare cash."

"It is the effort of each blade of grass that keeps the meadow green."

"The surest way to reaching the largest number of people is to reach them one by one."

"Be your own self at your best all the time."

"We live by dying to ourselves; we die by living to ourselves."

"The human spirit fails unless the Holy Spirit fills."

"Anchor yourself to the throne of God and then shorten the ropes."

"However good a man, from the moment he deems himself especially good he is not so good."

"Belief in God brings belief in man."

"A Christian has that which neither circumstances nor lack of circumstances can take away."

"The path to further light is to use the light we have."

"His life showed the way, His death cleared the way—to LIFE." —Selected.

WEDDINGS

Schrivier—Duplessey

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Green at East Centreville was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Oct. 3rd, 1936, when Miss Marguerite Duplessey, sister of Mrs. Green, and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Duplessey, of Bristol, N. B., was united in marriage to Mr. Roland Schrivier of Bristol. The home was decorated for the occasion. The happy couple were married beneath a very beautiful arch of autumn flowers and leaves. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Dow in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a short trip through the province. On their return they will reside at Bristol, N. B. The young couple are very popular with their many friends who wish them a long and happy life.

Cochrane—Doyle

A wedding of much interest to our readers was solemnized at Amherst, N. S., on Sept. 30, 1936, when Rev. B. C. Cochrane of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, N. B., was united in marriage to Miss Hilda M. Doyle at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Doyle.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Dow while the happy couple stood beneath a pretty arch made of fall flowers and autumn leaves. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Cochrane came to Moncton the same night and returned to Westchester the next day, where the friends of the bride made a reception for them that evening. From there they went to Marysville, N. B., to the home of Brother Cochrane, where another reception was held for them on Saturday evening. Brother and Sister Cochrane returned to Grand Manan on the 10th to their field of labor where Brother Cochrane has been a successful pastor for over two years. And in view of the fact that he now has a very capable helpmeet to assist him in his work, we bespeak for them great success in the future, and all their many friends wish them much happiness and the blessing of the Lord.

HAVE YOU?

Have you ever tried telling your troubles

To the One Who is willing to share,

Have you ever tried leaving your burden

With the One Who is ready to bear;

Have you ever tried seeking protection

From the One to Whom night is as day.

Have you ever tried asking for guidance

From the One Who knows all the way;

Have you ever tried praying for courage

To the One Who would help you to live,

Have you ever tried asking for blessings

From the One Who is longing to give?

—Gertrude McDermaid.

"I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt; open thy mouth wide and I will fill it."—Ps. 81:10.

To what extent does the church today share the feeling of Jesus for the need of the "regions beyond", and fulfil the purpose for which He called it into being? Jesus alone can save the world, but Jesus cannot save the world alone.
