

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6

Rev. H. E. Mullen begins special meetings at Fort Fairfield on Dec. 30th. Rev. W. E. Smith of Somerville will be the evangelist to assist him.

Rev. P. J. Trafton is planning for special meetings in Fredericton Church soon.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, B.A., visited his wife and her people in Saugus, Mass., during the Christmas holidays. We are glad to hear that Sister Rogers' health is much improved, and trust she will be able to join Brother Rogers soon in his work in Nova Scotia.

The editor of the King's Highway and Mrs. Dow want to take this opportunity to thank our many friends for their Christmas remembrances in cards and gifts of various kinds. To all of you we say we wish you a bright and prosperous New Year.

Edward Dow spoke at the Sunday evening service at Moncton, N. B., on Dec. 20, and again at the prayer meeting the following Tuesday evening. His messages were much enjoyed.

The Moncton Church will hold a watch-night service at the beginning of the New Year.

Mrs. B. C. Cochrane of Seal Cove, G. M., N. B., was a caller at the parsonage in Moncton on Wednesday, Dec. 30, on her way to visit her former home at Amherst. Brother Cochrane came as far as Saint John with his wife and went up to Marysville to visit his people for a few days.

Rev. H. S. Mullen of Saint John, is confined to his bed for a few days having strained the ligaments of his side.

We are very grateful indeed to these good, generous friends who contribute to this fund. It is very thoughtful of them to think of others in this way. There are many names on our list who are receiving the King's Highway and are not able to pay for it. They enjoy reading it very much and the good brethren and sisters who contribute to this fund have made it possible for those who are not able to pay to have it. We have been greatly disappointed because some who are well able to pay have let their paper run so far in arrears. We do hope that they will begin the New Year right and pay up, and thus make the Editor happy and we wish you all a Happy and Prosperous New Year. Thank you.—Editor.

"The Union Signal" says: "In Stockholm, Sweden, where they determine the actual amount of alcohol in the blood, forty-one per cent of all men admitted to the hospital because of accident injuries were found to have alcohol in the blood."

PERSONALS

We just received a letter from G. H. Archibald informing us of the passing of Mrs. Robert Frizzle of Truro, N. S., on Nov. 12th in the 92nd year of her age. Many of our older people no doubt remember our good sister whom they esteemed very highly in Christian love. We never had the privilege of meeting Sister Frizzle although she has been a faithful subscriber to the Highway several years, but have always heard her very highly spoken of. She has been a generous contributor to the Lord's work for many years having given generously to our missionary work in South Africa. We as a denomination feel that we have sustained a great loss in her passing, but as is often said our loss is her gain, for we know she has gone to be with Jesus after several years of poor health. To the bereaved ones left to mourn their loss and ours we extend sincere Christian sympathy.—Editor.

Grace and Edward, daughter and son of Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Dow, spent the Christmas holidays with their parents at Moncton. Edward has returned to his studies in U. N. B. again and Grace will teach at North Lake, York Co., next term.

Rev. G. A. Rogers left on the Yarmouth boat on Tuesday evening, Dec. 22, to visit his wife at her father's home in Mass., where he will spend one week. Mrs. G. A. Rogers, who has been ill for some time, is somewhat improved.

Mr. Frederick Sollows, who has been away to other parts of the province for the past five or six months, has returned to his home in Port Maitland. The church is glad to have our brother back again.

Evangelist M. R. Manning preached in the R. B. Church at Port Maitland on Dec. 21st.

CORRESPONDENCE

Moncton, N. B.,
Dec. 28, 1936.

Dear Brother Dow:

I wish through the Highway Family to thank all the dear friends who so kindly remembered me at Christmas. I appreciate their thoughtfulness and it brought cheer and comfort to my heart.

I feel that I have very much to praise the Lord for, as I am able to get to the Sabbath services and the stirring messages of our pastor are an inspiration to all.

I can say with the Psalmist, "I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth."

Wishing all the Highway Family, a Happ New Year.

In Christian love,

Missionaries in Japan find the intermingling of patriotism and religious devotion still a serious problem. "The Religious Telescope" cites a recent occurrence: "Dr. George S. McCune has been forced to resign as President of the Union Christian College of Korea, because of his refusal to do homage before the shrine of Shinto. The Governor General demanded that he do this homage as an act of loyalty to the Japanese government. He regarded the act as one of worship. He wrote a courteous letter to the Governor, asserting his loyalty to the government and stating that he taught his students such loyalty, but that as a Christian he could not bow in worship to the dead ancestors whose spirits were supposed to be in this temple.—Selected.

A VISITATION OF GOD

Rev. S. A. Trent

The purpose of God's visitation is revealed by the results that follow. God knows all things, future and past, and has an ultimate purpose in all His actions. When God visited the world in the form of human flesh through the person of Jesus Christ His purpose was to manifest Himself to humanity as a God of love who was ready to render pardon. This visitation was also to reveal the holiness and justice of God. Through the life and example of Jesus Christ this was brought about. His visitation was to effect a cure and to reveal Himself more fully.

The visitation of God always leaves marks either in blessing or cursing, a dispensing of love or wrath. There is a fire of God's love, also a fire of God's wrath. Fire is to us one of the most cheering, healthful and necessary elements. On the other hand if it is not handled right it is one of the most destructive and the fiercest of enemies. The ark of God among the Philistines was a curse to the camp and thousands died. The same ark in the camp of Israel brought gladness and shouts of victory.

The Gospel is a savor of life unto life or death unto death. Christ visited the temple and pronounced a blessing upon a poor widow's sincerity and frowned upon the hypocrisy of some high sounding professors. The fig tree from which He sought fruit was cursed. It would not bear fruit under right conditions. There are plenty of "trees" today that have been watered and cultivated and pruned and a wall of prayer has been placed about them by spiritual and faithful friends yet they have no divine life and are fruitless. When God visits it is for an ultimate and worthy purpose.

MARRIED

Emery—Moore

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore, Marysville, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 5th, when their daughter, Aleatha Pearle, was united in marriage to Cecil Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Emery of Fort Fairfield, Maine.

The bride wore a dress of wine velvet and carried a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her cousin, Gertrude Cochrane, while the groom was supported by William Moore, brother of the bride.

Following the marriage a delicious luncheon was served.

The happy young couple will reside at Fort Fairfield, Me., where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

Rev. L. A. Dunlap was the officiating clergy.

In a notable communication by Lord McCaulley, the noted English historian, wrote concerning America: "Your republic will be pillaged in the 20th century, just as the Roman empire was by the barbarians of the fifth century, with this difference, that the devastators of the Roman empire came from abroad, while your barbarians will be the people of your own country and the product of your own institutions."—Selected.

Mrs. Macy, whose vision was always impaired, was also blind during recent years.
