

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, Rev. F. A. Watson, and Rev. E. R. Bradley were in Moncton for a short time recently attending the burial service of Mrs. W. B. Wiggins.

Rev. H. C. Mullen has been suffering from an attack of asthma since he moved to Hartland.

Rev. R. H. Hamilton, of Brantford, Ont., editor of the Free Methodist Herald, will be our evangelist for Riverside Camp-meeting this year.

We hear that Rev. F. A. Dunlop is going as a worker to a campmeeting in Vermont quite soon.

A letter from Rev. S. G. Hilyard, B.A., states that he is finding the work encouraging on his new field. He had good attendance at his services on Sunday, July 26.

SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Miss Viola Churchill .....	$1.00
Mrs. W. E. McDavid .....	.50

The contributions to this fund go to pay subscriptions for those who are like the one who wrote the following letter, those who want the paper but cannot pay for it. And we would earnestly urge all who are in arrears—and there are many—to please pay up at once and save us financial embarrassment. Please let us hear from you at once. Thank you.

REV. H. S. DOW

45 Archibald St., Moncton, N. B.

Dear Brother:

I thought I would drop you a line about our Highway. As we went so long without paying. I thought I would stop it as we haven't the money to renew it, and we will try to pay for it as soon as possible. We all enjoy reading it but we have gone so far behind with it we thought this was the best way to do till we have the money.

Yours truly,

PERSONALS

Rev. and Mrs. L. T. Sabine, Mrs. Roxanna Sabine, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Phillips, Mrs. Chas. Mutch, Mrs. B. M. Colpitts, Miss Flora Brown, of Woodstock, N. B., Rev. H. S. Dow, of Moncton, attended the funeral of Mrs. W. B. Wiggins in Fredericton, Wednesday, July 22nd.

Edward Goodspeed, of Ottawa, arrived home on Wednesday, July 22nd, to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. W. B. Wiggins. He is visiting with his parents, Sheriff and Mrs. C. N. Goodspeed, Fredericton, N. B.

Mrs. Edwin Horncastle, of Fredericton, N. B., is visiting with friends in and around Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanford MacDonald, of South Devon, Mrs. Arthur Cook of North Devon, Mrs. Percy Peterson and Ruth Peterson arrived home Wednesday evening, July 22, from Beulah Camp Ground where they had been spending the time since the close of the camp meeting.—P. J. T.

Lic. Eugene Keirstead with his wife and children and Helen Mullen were in a car accident while driving on their way to Beulah Camp-meeting. Brother Keirstead and his family were quite badly hurt and were taken to the hospital for treatment for a while, but had no bones broken, and were out in a few days able to go home and are quite well again now. Helen was not hurt beyond a bad shaking up.

We were glad to meet Brother Byron Brown, of Lower Brighton, in Woodstock recently and to see him looking well, and to hear that Sister Brown is quite well also. Russell, their son who teaches at Newcastle, is enjoying his vacation at home. We were sorry to hear that their third son, Arnold, is not having very good health at present; let us pray for him that the Lord may restore him.

Mrs. H. S. Dow and our daughter, Grace and Bernie Pelkey made a week-end visit to Moncton over Sunday, July 19, and left on Monday for a trip through Nova Scotia and P. E. I.

MARRIED

Rowe—Chase

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, Woodstock, on July 25th, Rev. L. T. Sabine united in marriage Miss Jean F. Rowe and Mr. Leonard M. Chase, both of Woodstock. After a few days' wedding trip the happy young couple will reside in their home town.

NOTICE

Everybody bring your "Great Gospel Songs" to Riverside Camp-meeting.

LOVE AND MERCY

O love, thou bottomless abyss!
My sins are swallow'd up in thee;
Cover'd is my unrighteousness,
Nor spot of guilt remains on me:
While Jesus' blood, through earth and skies
Mercy, free, boundless mercy, cries.

YOUR INFLUENCE?

Soon after Dwight L. Moody had been converted and before he realized the evil of patronizing such people he, with companions, visited a palmist. After looking at his hand the reader said, "You are destined to be a great leader of men". Moody answered, "Good; then I shall lead them all to the Lord."

How wonderful to determine to use one's powers so! But how many there are who forget their influence upon others and go forward weakly and compromisingly, letting others follow if they will into failure and apostasy!

If one has any power over his fellows, and every one should behave so that he will have, that power should have in it the pull toward heaven.—Free Methodist.

"I HAVE TOUCHED GOLD"

"I have touched the gold", said a diver who had been to the bottom of the ocean in survey of a wrecked treasure vessel. But that was all. The wealth was never recovered.

Many have long been in contact with the Christian religion. Perhaps there has been a Christian in the home, perhaps there has been an attendance at the church service and it may be a friendly relation with the preacher. Surely there has been the acquaintance with the Book of God.

Yet the gold has only been touched. The treasure is not appropriated. The real benefit has not been received. How sad is this condition and how unnecessary! It is too bad for those to be lost in the night who never have been near the light. Surely those who have touched the gold and seen the light should be rich and in the path of eternal day.

But the trouble is that some have postponed the taking of the right way so long that the habit is formed. Some who have "touched gold" will be "eternity's beggars".—Free Methodist.

TEACH US, O LORD

Lord Jesus, Intercessor,
Oh, teach us how to pray;
Not wavelike, rising, falling,
In fitful clouds of spray,
The mighty tides of ocean
A deeper secret know,
Their currents undivided move
Whatever winds may blow.

Lord Jesus, Intercessor,
Creator of the sea,
Teach us the tide's great secret
Of quiet urgency.
Spindrift of words we ask not,
But, Lord, we seek to know
The conquering patience of the tides
Whatever winds may blow.
