

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. S. G. Hilyard, B. A., has accepted a call to Royalton circuit as pastor for next year.

Rev. H. E. Mullen has accepted a call to Fort Fairfield church for next year.

Rev. E. R. Bradley is engaged in special meetings at Jonesport. He has a special singer with him; but is doing the preaching himself. He is having good success. He baptized three candidates in water on Sunday, May 10, and received two into church membership.

Rev. L. T. Sabine baptized one candidate on May 3rd and received same into church on May 10th.

Rev. P. J. Trafton reports good meetings on his field with the blessing of the Lord.

A letter from Lic. A. D. Cann, who is in college at Lorne Park, Port Credit, Ont., says he is enjoying the blessing of the Lord.

We also had a good letter from Lic. Donald Cochrane, of Marysville. Brother Cochrane is interested in the Highway and sends in a good many renewals. We wish all pastors would bring this matter of renewals to the attention of their congregations. We wish they would all renew at once as we will soon have to make our annual Highway report. H. S. A GIFT OF LOVE

When Mary of Bethany broke the box of precious ointment and poured it on His feet, it was an act no one else saw any occasion for. They said it was a waste. But Jesus commended her for her extravagant act of devotion. . . . Our Lord is carried beyond Himself with joy when He sees any of us doing what Mary did, not being set out for this or that economy, but being abandoned to Him. God spilt the life of His Son that the world might be saved; am I prepared to spill out my life for Him?—Oswald Chambers.

It is very pleasant to follow one's inclinations; but unfortunately, we cannot follow them all: they are like the dragon's teeth sown by Cadmus—they spring up, get in each other's way, and fight.

MARRIED

Killam—Steeves

Eldon Killam and Doris Steeves were united in marriage at the home of the bride on Saturday evening, April 25. The ceremony was performed by the writer.

We pray that God will bless this young couple and make them a blessing.

H. E. MULLEN.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hayes on Wednesday afternoon, May 6, their daughter, Helen Viola, was united in marriage to Arthur Cosman in the presence of about fifty guests. The ceremony was performed by the writer. We trust God's richest blessing will be upon this young couple. H. E. MULLEN.

Rideout—Hillman

A pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Hillman, Hartland, N. B., when their third daughter, Marion, was united in marriage to Mr. Kenneth Rideout of Simonds. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Owens in the presence of immediate relatives. A dainty lunch was served and after receiving the usual congratulations the happy couple motored to Saint John and other points of the province. Our prayers and good wishes follow them. J. A. OWENS

Bartley—Thomas

The afternoon of April 29th was the occasion of a pretty wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bartley, Knoxford, N. B., when their youngest son, Ralph Idris was united in marriage to Miss Verda Adelaide Thomas, daughter of Mrs. Flora and the late Orin Thomas, also of Knoxford. The ceremony was performed by the writer under a cedar arch in the presence of about fifty invited guests and relatives. The bride, who received a great many delightful gifts, was dressed in white silk with veil and bouquet. After the ceremony and signing of the register a buffet luncheon was served. A coincidence of the occasion was the fact that these two young people were converted in the same service, baptised in the same service, and (of course) married at the same service. They will live with the groom's parents. We wish them every success in their married life.

To steadfastly continue to build on the rock of the Bible as the word of God in contrast to the sands of human opinion calls for unusual courage on the part of all whose lives are so placed as to bring them under the powers of Modernism in religion or education, but it will pay well to persevere in this resolution.

Professor E. W. MacBride of England in a recent address reported in "Dawn" said: "Darwin's Origin of Species coincided with a general feeling of revolt against a tradition of authority. The young members of the community regarded it as a splendid stick with which to beat Moses. But it has resolved itself into chance and nothing else." We have now passed on into the years when those "young members of the community" have become the old men and women of the world, and if they have been able to find any comfort and assurance for the dying hour in their faith in Modernism we have not heard of it. Building on the sand may do in a certain way while life is full of the satisfactions of earth, but nothing but a foundation of faith laid on the Word of God will suffice in that great hour.—Wesleyan Methodist.
