

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6

The Moncton Church and congregation and several friends from outside the city gave their pastor and Mrs. Dow a very pleasant surprise on Wednesday evening, Sept. 16th. A large company that filled the house assembled and spent the evening in the usual way, singing, talking, laughing, eating, and also some praying. During the evening Deacon A. K. MacCallum presented us with a very fine address, a purse of money, and also presented Mrs. Dow with a nice hand made rug and some other nice things and a beautiful bouquet. Of course the pastor and his wife were greatly pleased and tried to tell the good people so.

Rev. S. A. Mullen baptized a young man at Belvidere on Sunday, Sept. 20th.

Rev. H. C. Mullen assisted Miss Grace Sanders in special meetings at Bristol on Sunday, Sept. 27th. Lic. Norman Sanders supplied for Brother Mullen on Hartland circuit in his absence.

Rev. Geo. DeLong is planning to hold special meetings at Perth in the near future.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane passed through Moncton on Tuesday, Sept. 29th, on his way to Amherst. He was alone, but it is reported that he is bringing some one back with him to help him in his work at Seal Cove, G. M., N. B. He looked very happy, no doubt we will hear more about it later.

THE HARVEST

He liveth long who liveth well;

All else is but life flung away.

He liveth longest who can tell

Of true things truly done each day.

Then fill each hour with what will last;

Buy up the moments as they go.

The life above, when this is past,

Is the ripe fruit of life below.

Sow love and taste its fruitage pure;

Sow peace and reap its harvest bright;

Sow sunbeams on the rock and moor,

And find a harvest home of light.

—Horatius Bonar.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edwin Horncastle has returned to Fredericton from a visit to relatives and friends in Taunton, Mass., and other sections.

Miss Emma Trafton, R.N., has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goss in Brackneridge, Penna.

Miss Dorothy Trafton, R.N., of Hyde Park, Mass., spent a two weeks visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Trafton at Fredericton, N. B., recently.

Edward Dow, youngest son of Rev. H. S., and Mrs. Dow, of Moncton, N. B., is continuing his studies at U. N. B. Miss Laura Parks, daughter of Joseph Parks, of Saint John, N. B., is a student at U. N. B.

J. Arlo Farnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Farnham, of Victoria, Car. Co., N. B., and Eldon Clair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clair, of Rockland, Car. Co., N. B., are students at the P. N. S.

Mrs. Joseph Saunders, of South Devon, N. B., is visiting relatives in Lowell, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Carson, of Norton, N. B., and Mr. and Mrs. James Patton, of Apohaqui, N. B., attended service at Moncton on Sunday, Sept. 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B., and E. C. Houghton, of Newport, Me., were in Lincoln recently to visit Mrs. C.B. Houghton's sister, Mrs. James Greenlaw, who is very ill. They were accompanied by Mrs. S. L. Jenkins, cousin of Mrs. Greenlaw. Mrs. Greenlaw is the oldest daughter of the late Simeon and Rebecca Clark, of Millville, and sister to the late Rev. S. Harleigh Clark. She is being tenderly cared for by her daughter, Rev. Violet Bagley, and her husband, Mr. James W. Greenlaw, who is in good health and wonderfully smart for a man of his age.

NOTICE

Please remember the editor's appeal for renewals for the King's Highway. Several have responded for which we are thankful; but we must have a response from hundreds of others or run into debt. Some have written asking how much they owe. Beloved the little yellow label on your paper will tell you. The figures on it indicate the year you paid last and the letters tell you the month of that year. So all you have to do is to figure from that date until the present and then add another $1.50 for a year in advance. For example, if your label is marked Oct. 35, you are one year behind and should send the editor $3.00 to pay the year you are back and one year in advance.

Thank you. The Lord bless you.—EDITOR.

ALONE WITH GOD

How good it is when, weaned from all beside,
With God alone the heart is satisfied.

How good the heart's still chamber thus to close
On all but God alone.

There, in the sweetness of His love, repose,
This love unknown!

To hear His voice amid the stillness blest,
And lay me down upon His arm to rest,
Trusting on.

HOW TO BE SAVED

Not by

Good works—though one can be saved without them.

Being baptized—though every Christian should be baptized.

Joining the church—though every true believer should be a member of some church.

Faithful attendance at church services—though every child of God, as he can, will do so.

The financial support of the church—though this is required of all who would be pleasing to the Lord.

Evangelistic zeal—though neglect of effort for the salvation of others is wicked.

But by

Repentance—which is godly sorrow for sin and which includes the turning from the evil way and the making right of all the wrong of our lives.

A full surrender to the will of God—nothing short of this will ever be accepted by Him.

Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ—which includes historical faith in Him, a belief in the general work of the atonement and a personal apprehension of Him.

A sustained submission to Him—which comprehends a constant walking in all the light.

But 'If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.'

—Free Methodist.
