

CORRESPONDENCE

Port Maitland, N. S.

Dear Brother:

Lic. Gordon Symonds and I exchanged pulpits on Sunday, April 18th. I preached for him at Wood's Harbor in the afternoon and he preached for me at Port Maitland in the evening.

In the afternoon service some requested prayer and one knelt at the altar. Before the preaching service a beautiful Baptism took place at the ocean near the main highway. One young man followed the Lord in the beautiful ordinance of baptism and then was received into the membership of the Wood's Harbor R. B. Church. The writer was pleased to conduct the baptism and then to preach to the good people of Wood's Harbor.

God is blessing the people there under the leadership of their pastor, Lic. Gordon Symonds. Brother Symonds brought a very helpful and inspiring message that evening at Port Maitland.

Dear Brother Dow:

My mother, Mrs. Jas. Greenlaw, has written you a note and enclosed renewal for Highway. She has always paid in advance. She has had a serious illness, but we are glad to have her still with us. Mother has always loved her church paper. I can remember when as a child she not only took it herself, but was one of the first agents for it and when folks did not have the cash she would take butter or eggs in payment and send the cash for the folks as we did not live on a farm, and bought such for our use.

As the years go by, she longs more for the old time associates. I wish you might see her and Dad. When I turn on the radio for the Listening Post, how they do listen to Brother Dunlop's and Brother Trafton's messages. I gave up my work last September and came home to help care for mother. No matter what the task, Christ is with me.

Sincerely,

REV. VIOLET J. G. BAGLEY

Greetings to the King's Highway:

Your dear paper is real soul food come to me as a blessing. I read it carefully and pass it on to other hungry hearts. Some time ago I gave a mother one copy with tract; it helps her to pray through and five of the children have been saved, and father was saved. Since then the mother has been sanctified. Praise the Lord. We are holding Sunday School and preaching services in their home. The people who live near them say they can not understand but Jesus does. Pray for this mother; also pray for me as my health is bad, only God can undertake for me. We are praying that the Lord will give us a R. B. Church in this part of God's vineyard.

Yours in Jesus,

Note.—This good brother is pastor of a church down in Indiana. He has recently subscribed for the King's Highway, and he likes it so well that he wants to organize a Reformed Baptist Church there and be one of us.—Editor.

Dear Highway:

Saint John, N. B.

Just a few lines to say we are still saved, sanctified and kept. God is still blessing our work here at Saint John. We have just closed a four weeks' revival campaign with Evangelist R. F. Sellick as special worker.

We enjoyed him in our home and also in the pulpit. We found him to be a man of prayer. He works hard—gives one his best. Our meetings were good but like about all other services, we did not see as much accomplished as we would like, but we do praise God for the number that did find their way to the altar of prayer to be saved, sanctified or reclaimed.

We plan to have a baptism in the near future. We covet the prayers of all of God's people for our work here.

We are now on the last end of our four years here and we feel that our fourth has been the best. We have accepted a call to remain another year and we trust it shall be still better and we may see more accomplished for God.

Atlantic Ocean,

My Dear Friends:

April 13, 1937

Greetings in Jesus' precious name from the bosom of the ocean.

How gracious the Lord has been to us and given us a most enjoyable voyage so far. We have many privileges that we never had on a regular passenger steamer. The food is of the best. Our travelling companions (man and wife) very congenial and took to us from the start. Several vessels have been sighted; different kinds of birds of the air and fish of the sea have added to the pleasure of our "vacation." Some opportunities have also come our way to speak a word for Jesus which we trust shall not be unfruitful.

Now we are soon to anchor at Freetown, Sierra Leone, West Africa. Then the first part of the voyage will be over. As God has cared for and protected us thus far, we know He will extend His care to the end of the way.

We are enjoying, most of all, the blessing of God in our souls and are believing Him to go before us, prepare the way and cause us to fit in the place He has for us in that small part of the great harvest field.

Daily we thank God for the host of dear friends whom we know are bearing us up before Him in prayer. Since last writing a number of these have given us many "good things," some of which we have not yet seen. We thank you very much and know God will not forget "your labor of love" but reward you. Some of the gifts are a real comfort on this trip. Truly God has supplied all our needs and given us "extra," and we find His promise fulfilled in that He has done exceeding abundantly above all we asked or thought. Praise the Lord!

As I stood, a few days ago, at the stern of the steamer, and looked back as far as I could upon the great expanse of water behind us, I thought of how rapidly we were being borne away from our loved ones and kind friends; of the land of our birth which I had learned to love so well, and of all that it held dear, and yet realized my heart ached only a little, for I felt a sweet, comforting assurance that "Hitherto hath the Lord lead," and knew all was well, knowing I was in His will. And how my heart praised Him for the wonderful privilege of being His chosen vessel to carry the Gospel to the benighted heathen of "Dark Africa." The parting will not be for long. If Jesus carries many years still, yet we will be so busy working on your behalf, in the Master's vineyard, that the time will fly all too swiftly, and we will perhaps meet again on earth. Should you be called away before then, we can look forward to meeting you in the "Glory Land."

Pray for us that we may keep the glory of God upon our souls and lead many to know Him, "Whom to know aright is life eternal."

Yours for the Master's service,

GRACE M. SANDERS

Dear Highway Reader: Centreville, N. B.

I wish to give a report from this part of God's vineyard. As announced we began special services at Royalton April 11th and continued until the 25th. Bro. Errol Watson assisted in preaching rugged gospel truths on holy living, by experiencing Holiness of Heart. He prefixed many of his messages with special songs. We enjoyed the fellowship with Bro. Watson in the home and in the services. The Lord blessed our brother in his messages, with marked degrees of conviction on the people. We cannot boast of great numbers yielding to Christ, but I do believe that seed was sown that will bring forth fruit. A number obeyed the call for either pardon or cleansing and arose with a note of victory in their testimony.

During the services Bro. T. A. Jones, one of the older members of the church, passed to his reward.

The churches have extended us a call to remain as pastor another year, which we have accepted.

Yours in His service,

S. G. HILYARD
