

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. G. A. Delong of Perth has accepted a unanimous call to remain pastor of our church there. Brother Delong reports good attendance and souls getting help in the meetings. The work is encouraging in all branches.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane reports good helpful meetings at Seal Cove.

Rev. L. T. Sabine is engaged in special meetings. He is being assisted by Pastor R. T. Sellick of Oxford, N. S.

The blessing of the Lord is on the church at Moncton in a marked way. On Sunday night, May 2nd, several young men and women found victory at the altar. Several more requested prayer the following Sunday night. Our prayer meetings are seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

Rev. F. A. Watson writes that the work at Beals, Maine, is encouraging. He says the committee has secured Rev. E. H. Stillion of Palestine, Ohio, for evangelist for Beulah campmeeting this year.

Rev. H. E. Mullen of Fort Fairfield writes that their meetings are good and the Lord is blessing souls in their regular meetings. He plans to go to Crawford, Maine, to assist Rev. H. S. Wilson beginning May 10th.

Rev. E. R. Bradley writes he baptized three candidates and received them into membership of the church at Calais on May 9th, following several weeks of special services in which he was assisted by several of the brethren.

Just a few weeks now and it will be time for our Alliance and Campmeeting. We are expecting a large attendance and a great meeting this year. About all our churches have had revivals and many of these new converts will want to attend campmeeting, some perhaps for the first time.

Please send in your renewals for the Highway. We have only two more issues to publish before the business manager will have to make his annual report. Please send in your renewal at once, beloved, and help us in our work. The Lord bless you all.

CORRESPONDENCE

3045 E. 5th Street,
Long Beach, Calif.,

Dear Brother Dow: May 6, 1937.

Will you kindly place the inclosed to my credit for subscription to the Highway.

The April 30th number came with its precious messages. It is like a visit from a friend. This, the Mother's Day number, gives beautiful tributes to "Mothers". I have enjoyed the poems; every page is interesting to me. Revival services are being held, letters and gifts come to the Highway. The Missionary Fund is generally remembered. Quilts are being made for Beulah. Then there is the Young People's page, and Temperance page.

May God's special blessing be upon "The Highway", the publishers of it and upon every reader.

In Christian fellowship,
(MRS.) D. McLEOD

NOTE: We appreciate very much this nice letter from our good Sister McLeod. She has taken the King's Highway ever since it has been published. The above shows her keen interest in the Lord's work, yet she is now about 93 years of age, I think drawing near to the century mark; may the dear Lord add many more years to her useful life.

Fort Fairfield, Maine.

Dear Brother Dow:

The Lord is blessing and helping in the work here. Our services are well attended and souls are getting help. We have accepted the call the Church gave us to remain here at Fort Fairfield another year. The kind friends here have made up a generous sum of money and presented it to us for the purpose of helping to get a car. We are very grateful to them and to our Heavenly Father for such tokens of His love and goodness. I am to help Brother H. S. Wilson at Crawford beginning May 10th. We trust and pray that God will continue to use us and make us a blessing and help to souls.

Yours in Him,
H. E. MULLEN

You reap what you sow—not something else, but that. An act of love makes the soul more loving. A deed of humbleness deepens humbleness. The thing reaped is the very thing sown, multiplied a hundredfold. You have sown a seed of life, you reap life everlasting.—F. W. Robertson.

THE SCRIPTURES IN NEARLY ONE THOUSAND LANGUAGES

The Bible or some part of it has been translated into 991 languages and dialects according to a statement issued by the American Bible Society, New York City.

Nine new languages were translated and published in 1936, seven of these being African dialects and two European, the Gospel of St. Luke in Bern German and the Book of Acts in Moravian Romany.

The extent to which the Scriptures have been published in the various languages is as follows: Whole Bible, 176; New Testaments—additional, 214; Portions (at least one book), 520; Selected Passages, 81; Total, 991.

One complete Bible was issued last year, that in the Venda language spoken in the Transvaal and published by the British and Foreign Bible Society with headquarters in London.

The Olunyore New Testaments, one of the six New Testaments now to become available, was published in July by the American Bible Society. This is the first complete Testament for some 300,000 natives in Kenya, north of Lake Victoria Nyanza. It required three years after the receipt of the manuscript to complete this publication. The book was proof read in Africa but the delay was largely due to changes in the spelling which had developed in the language since the writing of the manuscript.

Among the four Gospels Mark, according to the records of the American Bible Society, has been the most widely published, having been translated into 630 languages. Matthew appears in 604, John in 559 and Luke in 550.—The American Bible Society.

Friends, let us not forget the contribution for the Sterritt Sisters Passage Fund. Have you sent yours yet? Thank you. Also please remember that Sister Faith MacDonald had to undergo an operation recently and we need help to defray this extra expense. We are thankful to say that it is expected that her health will be much improved, even normal again.

Let us fervently pray for the missionary work and then by consistent contributions help to answer our own prayers, for faith without work is dead. Let us be co-workers with Him.
