

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard, who for several years past has been living at Grafton Center, N. H., and has been preaching for the Nazarenes, writes that he would like to come back home again, and I think he is open for a call to work among us. Everyone who has heard Brother Hilyard preach knows that he is a forceful and faithful preacher of the Word. Anyone interested can reach him at Grafton Center, N. H. I am sure we would all welcome him back.

Lic. Norman Trafton, son of Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Fredericton, is home from college and is ready to do evangelistic work in any of our churches needing help. You can reach him at 233 Aberdeen Street, Fredericton, N. B.

Rev. George DeLong reports the work encouraging on his charge.

Rev. H. S. Mullen expects to begin revival meetings at Saint John, April 6th to continue over the 25th. R. T. Sellick will be his evangelist. He held meetings with the Sanders family as special speakers from March 23rd over Sunday, 28th. See Brother Trafton's report of the farewell meeting for our outgoing missionaries. Rev. Charlie and Grace Sanders held in Saint John on Friday night the 26th. The last report said they sail from there on March 30th.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Willey, of Island Falls, says we are enjoying good health and God's blessing on our souls, and surely God is good.

Rev. H. S. Dow has received a unanimous call to continue as pastor of the Moncton Church for the 5th year. Our work is encouraging. The attendance at both church and Sunday School is the best it has been since we have been pastor. Conviction is on the unsaved and some are seeking and getting help.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane, of Seal Cove, N. B., reports success in his work, with good attendance and the blessing of the Lord on all his services. See his letter in this issue. He is assisting the editor of the Highway in collecting renewals, and he has also sent in several new subscriptions recently. We sincerely wish all our pastors would call the people's attention to the Highway quite often. No doubt many who are in arrears would renew their subscription if their pastor would "stir up their pure minds by way of remembrance." Some of our pastors have promised to send me an article for the Highway, but they have not reached me yet. The people like to read the articles written by our own pastors and their wives and others. So come now, brethren and sisters get busy, let us have your good articles. Thanks.

Please send in your renewals for the King's Highway, we need the money to pay for the printing. Look at the label on your paper and let us hear from you at once. Thanks.

H. S. D., 45 Archibald Street,
Moncton, N. B.

HIS WILL, MY WILL

God is the master of the scenes. We must not choose which part we shall act; it concerns us only to be careful that we do it well, always saying, "If this please God, let it be as it is"; and we who pray that God's will may be done on earth as it is in heaven, must remember that the angels do whatsoever is commanded them, and go wherever they are sent, and refuse no circumstances.—Jeremy Taylor.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The quarterly meeting of District No. 1 convened with the church at Fort Fairfield, March 11—14, both dates inclusive. The opening service was in charge of Rev. S. G. Hilyard, who spoke on the theme, "Kindling the Fire."

Friday afternoon service was in charge of Rev. G. A. DeLong, who based his remarks on Mark 14:38.

Saturday morning love feast was in charge of the pastor. This service was a season of refreshing from the Lord. Saturday, business at 2.30. Roll call found the following ministers present: Revs. S. A. Mullen, S. G. Hilyard, H. E. Mullen, G. A. DeLong, M. E. Slipp, Lic. E. Watson and Burrell Kimball. Delegates: Royalton, Bro. F. Wade; Marysville, Miss G. Cochrane; Fort Fairfield, Mrs. F. Kimball; Perth, Mrs. Hartley; Belvidere, Mrs. Gould and Sister Thorne. Election of officers was as follows: President, Rev. H. E. Mullen, Vice-President, E. Watson; Secretary, Rev. G. A. DeLong; Highway Agent, Rev. S. G. Hilyard; Treasurer, Mrs. Ames. The following churches reported by letter: Royalton, Perth, Crystal, Belvidere, Fort Fairfield, Woodstock, Hartland, Marysville, Fredericton.

All of these churches had fine reports to give, for which we praise the Lord. A vote of thanks was extended to the Fort Fairfield church for their fine entertainment. This business session closed with a fine testimony service.

Rev. S. A. Mullen brought a good message Saturday evening from Deut. 6:12-13. One soul came forward for help. Bro. Burrell Kimball had charge of the love feast. Our brother based his remarks on Psalm 108:1. This love feast was a feast worth talking about. Praise the Lord. At 10.30 p. m. Bro. E. Watson brought a great message from Ezekiel 9:4.

The Sunday School was taught by Rev. S. G. Hilyard.

Sunday afternoon Rev. S. A. Mullen brought the message from Mark 9:2.

The closing service was in charge of Rev. G. A. DeLong. His text was taken from John 3:3. Once again the Lord owned His word. Four bowed at the altar and five raised their hands for prayer. This service closed with a great testimony meeting.

To our God be all the glory for a profitable quarterly.

REV. G. A. DeLONG,
Secretary.

NOTICE

The Reformed Baptist Church at Killam's Mills has asked for the next quarterly meeting of District No. 2. The dates will be fixed later.

WYONETTA SARGESON,
Secretary.

To unconverted persons, a great part of the Bible resembles a letter written in cipher. The blessed Spirit's office is to act as God's decipherer, by letting His people into the secret of celestial experience, as the key and clew to those sweet mysteries of grace which were before as a garden shut up, or as a fountain sealed, or as a book written in an unknown character.

—Toplady.

FAREWELL SERVICE

A farewell service for our outgoing missionaries, Revs. Grace and Charles Sanders, was held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Saint John, N. B., Friday evening, March 26th. A large congregation was present among them representatives from, Moncton, Seal Cove, Killam's Mills, Grey's Mills, Woodstock, Fredericton, and Amherst.

The service opened at 8 o'clock. Rev. P. J. Trafton had charge in the absence of the president, Rev. F. A. Dunlap. After the singing of an opening hymn, the Wagg children sang a trio. The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. Charles Sanders after which a quartette, composed of William Trafton, Norman Sanders, DeVerne Mullen, and Rev. H. S. Mullen, sang "The Old Rugged Cross". Prayer was offered by Rev. H. E. Thomas. Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen sang a duet. Sister Grace Sanders gave a touching address after which Mrs. H. C. Sanders, Charlie, Grace and Norman sang in Zulu. Brother Charlie Sanders gave a short stirring address after which Rev. L. T. Sabine, treasurer of the G. M. S., spoke in reference to the financial need and Rev. H. S. Mullen took charge of a march by the table, in which all participated. When the offering was counted, the neat sum $73.35 had been given. The male quartette then sang, "What Did He Do". Mrs. H. C. Sanders gave an address which touched the hearts of all. Miss Grace Lawlor and Miss Mary Cosman sang a duet, accompanied on the guitar by Dr. Verne Mullen, after which the leader spoke a few words and offered a short prayer, the choir led in the closing hymn and the Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Charles Sanders. A letter was read from Mrs. I. M. Keirstead regretting that she was not able to be present. A beautiful spirit pervaded the entire service. God was there. The good-bye's and God bless you were spoken; we parted feeling that Jesus was being honored.

For whom the heart of man shuts out,
Sometimes the heart of God takes in,
And fences them all round about

With silence 'mid the world's loud din.
