

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The Reformed Baptist Church at Woodstock expects to begin special services on May 9th. The pastor will be assisted (D.V.) by Pastor R. T. Sellick of Oxford, Nova Scotia. Please remember this work in your prayers.

Moncton Church is enjoying the blessing of the Lord. Our attendance at both church and Sunday School is good. On Sunday, April 18th, one young woman was converted and following Sunday at the evening service three strong young men came to the altar and after praying earnestly for half an hour or more for the blessing of a clean heart, they made a complete consecration of their all to God and by faith obtained the witness, and came through in the good old fashion way praising the Lord and shouting the victory. There is much conviction on others whom we are expecting to come through to victory also.

A letter from Rev. H. C. Archer, North Head, G. M., N. B., says his work is encouraging and going along steadily.

A letter from our good young brother Lic. A. D. Cann says he is thinking of offering himself as an assistant pastor, or helper to some brother who has a large circuit to care for. He says he would be willing to work on a farm or at something to help to support himself. I am sure this is very commendable in Brother Cann, and no doubt he will find a place to work.

The churches of the Millstream circuit which include Killam's Mills, Salem, Norton and Head of Millstream remembered their pastor's wife on the occasion of her birthday by presenting her with a fine rug for the living room floor, and other gifts, among which was a beautiful silk cushion made by Mrs. Clark, who is in her ninety-fourth year. Mrs. Briggs wishes to thank through the Highway these kind friends for their generosity and love at this time.

The church and pastor at Perth, N. B., will be holding a week-end convention beginning Friday night, May 21st, and continuing over Sunday. They are having special speakers for the meetings and are expecting a time of blessing.

THREE FIRES

Holy Ghost fire. Wild fire. Hell fire. A great majority of the people are more afraid of the first two than of hell fire. Holy Ghost fire insures against hell fire and is a good preventive of wild fire. Too many, in trying to avoid the two fires, will eventually find themselves in the third.

The Holy Ghost is a good leveler, and instead of making fanatics of people, He keeps them balanced. The devil would have them either settle down into formalism or go too far and get into fanaticism. It is his business to close the mouths of the preachers on hell fire, and thus lose from their souls the holy fire. The fires of the pit located in "outer darkness" burn just as hot as they did when the rich man went there, and the "torment" has not diminished one mite.

Holy Ghost fire in the heart will burn out the dross—the carnality—and fit the soul to dwell in eternal bliss. Oh, what a Comforter He is here in this present life! He takes out the "fear of man which bringeth a snare," and puts in a holy boldness that dares to stand for the right in the face of persecution. He enables the Christian to "endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." You must get the holy fire, or you will, according to the Word of God, suffer in hell hereafter.—Church Herald.

PERSONALS

Miss Emma Wright, of Moncton Church, recently underwent a surgical operation in the Moncton Hospital for appendicitis, and we are glad that she is recovering nicely now.

Miss Dorothy Perry was presented with a very nice fountain pen by the Young People's Society of Port Maitland before she left to enter the Fredericton Hospital to train for a nurse.

A letter from the Sterritt Sisters, our missionaries in Africa, recently, states that they are looking forward to getting home in time for Beulah Camp-Meeting. We trust that money for their passage home will be raised and reach them in ample time to permit them to come and attend Beulah camp-meeting. I am sure we will all be delighted to meet our two faithful workers who have spent over 16 years in missionary work in Africa.

Mrs. Cora Grass, of Moncton Church, has quite fully recovered from her fractured knee and is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Steeves at Hillsboro, N. B.

Mrs. A. G. Good, of Moncton Church, is still confined to her bed much of the time but is improving steadily.

On April 8th twenty ladies of the Head of Millstream met at the Reformed Baptist parsonage and quilted a very fine quilt for Beulah Camp. At the same time a very artistic quilt was quilted to be presented to Mrs. Homer Smith (formerly Miss Glenna Briggs), Gouverneur, New York. On the same afternoon a number of men folk met at the parsonage and sawed up a fine pile of wood. At the close of the day all sat down to a bountiful picnic supper. A good time was enjoyed by all and a fine community spirit was manifested. They expect to finish another quilt for Beulah in the near future.

Sister Alonzo Hollis, who has been ill all winter is still confined to her bed.

Stanley Siddell underwent an operation for appendicitis recently. He is doing nicely.

Sister Rushton, wife of Evangelist Joe Rushton, spent Sunday the 25th in Westchester, and assisted in the music and singing.

We are expecting Sister Miriam Sanders with us over Sunday, May the 2nd, to help us in the battle.—H.B.O.

IN TRAINING

"The Voice", of Washington, D. C., says: "We have 439,640 girls in our colleges, universities and normal schools, where they are being trained to serve the nation as useful wives, mothers, teachers and workers of every type. We have 1,350,000 girls being trained in our taverns and saloons to become prostitutes, tramps, gun molls and public enemies."—Selected.

CORRESPONDENCE

Westchester, N. S.

Dear Highway:

Just a few words of testimony this first warm, spring-like day. The dear Lord is very precious to my soul. I never loved Him as much as I do these days. They are very busy days, yet we try not to be so busy that we neglect to keep blest.

The Lord is blessing us in our labors here. While our active membership is very small, yet they are a group of faithful souls, whose steady walk and devotion tell for Christ each day. Our Sunday School is a very encouraging part of the work. The attendance has so increased this spring that it necessitated the forming of a new class. Our attendance each Sunday keeps around 60, which is very good for a community of this size, one other Sunday School being held at the same hour.

Our Sunday night services have been largely attended and a spirit of conviction on every meeting. We have not seen much of any visible results in our regular services, yet the time seemed ripe to put on a campaign, so on April the 20th, we began. Bro. Joe Rushton, a lay preacher from the Nazarene Church in Trenton, N.S., is our evangelist, and we feel he is going to prove a real blessing to us. The interest is real good. Last night he preached a fine message under the anointing of the Spirit, one back-slidder was at the altar, and many more should have yielded. God truly was in our midst. It was one of those services that a person disliked to dismiss.

We plan to go on indefinitely. No time has been set for the close of this campaign, because the need is great, souls are away from God, our hearts yearn for the return of the wandering ones. We are praying, believing, and intend to hold on until we see our souls' desire. Pray for us. We have been interested in the special efforts of our brother ministers, and pray God will give each one a real revival.

I am more convinced than ever that Holiness is right, the more I hear against it, the more persuaded I am that it's just what every Christian needs. Let us get the experience, keep it and seek to get others into the experience.

Yours in Him, H. B. OWENS

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Please look at the label on your paper and see if the figures 37 or 38 are there. If not you are in arrears beloved. These figures indicate the year you paid last and the letters stand for the month. We appreciate very much indeed those subscribers who keep paid up and also send a contribution for the Supplementary Fund. They are making it possible for us to publish the King's Highway and to send it to many who are not able to pay for it themselves. But there are many others who altogether owe the King's Highway over two thousand dollars. Many of these we know can pay if they will, but in spite of all our appeals they still ignore our requests and entreaties and put unnecessary burdens on our hearts. Beloved will you not please look at your label today, and see how you stand, and let us hear from you at once. Thank you.

EDITOR

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 convenes with the church at Killam's Mills, May 20, continuing over the following Sunday. Delegates and written reports are requested from each church. WYONETTA SARGESON, Secretary.
