

We had the privilege of having Miss Helen R. Mullen, B. A., of Hartland, N. B., with us over the first Sunday of the New Year on her way back to her school at G. M., N. B. On Tuesday night Miss Mullen spoke to us a very encouraging New Year's message.

Mr. C. A. Mullen, of Nova Scotia was with us over this same Sunday and week-end who brought to us several vocal selections which were much enjoyed by all.

Oh, how good God has been to us in so many ways. We thank Him again for all His goodness to us. Praise Him for the gift of His son of Jesus Christ. We thank Him for the many kind friends He has given and for fellowship with Himself and His people.

May God bless all the readers of these lines and especially our good editor and his family.

Yours for full salvation with no side issues.

H. S. and MRS. MULLEN

Fort Fairfield, Maine

Dear Brother Dow:

The New Year finds us in love with Holiness. The Lord through His people made our Christmas a very pleasant one. The people here, like the people in other places where I have been pastor, did not forget their pastor and his wife and children. We were all remembered in a generous way. We do appreciate the tokens of their remembrance in gifts of money, useful articles and cards. We were also glad to receive so many cards from friends on other fields where we had labored in previous years. This year we received more cards than ever before. For all these friends we pray the Blessing of God may attend their way and make this New Year the best ever. And thank God for their kindness. We are now in the midst of a revival meeting with Brother W. E. Smith as evangelist. God has given us some seekers and we hope to see others get right with God. We covet the prayers of God's people for the salvation of souls.

Yours in Him,

HARTLEY E. MULLEN

We wish to thank the many friends who remembered us at the Christmas season with cards and gifts which we assure you we appreciate very much.

One of the many things that added to our Christmas cheer was a fine pound party given by the people of this community on Dec. 21st. To one and all we say, Thank you!

Praying the year which we have just entered may be a successful and happy one for the Editor, Highway readers and all God's children everywhere.

REV. F. A. and MRS. ANDERSON

Meductic

Dear Brother Dow:

On Monday, Dec. 21st, we were invited to Brother Weyman Wright's home to spend the evening. Folk from the other side of the River had gathered there and after a singsong and prayer, Brother Wright on behalf of those present presented us with a donation of cash and country produce to the value of fifteen dollars ($15.00).

We spent a very pleasant evening with these good folk. Mrs. Lloyd Wright, assisted by her sisters (Mrs. Florence Cronkhite and Mrs. Garfield Gibson), and Mrs. Mose Gibson, served a delicious lunch. We tried to thank these friends for their kindness to us since coming to this field.

On December 22nd the folk at Meductic gathered at the parsonage and once again we were donated with cash and groceries amounting to the value of fifteen dollars ($15.00). We spent another very pleasant evening, the ladies serving another delicious lunch. We are truly thankful to the people here and to our Heavenly Father for His care over us since coming to this field. And we are praying that He will make us a blessing to the folks here in this part of His vineyard.

We are enjoying the presence of God in our services in the different churches.

Yours in His service,

MR. and MRS. E. R. WATSON

P. S.—We wish to acknowledge also a load of wood—a gift of the "Praying Band" at Meductic.

North Head, N. B.

Dear Highway:

We wish to express our appreciation of the kindness of the members of the church here who during the holiday season remembered us with a purse of money as well as other gifts.

The work here is going along very well, and we are expecting greater victory in the year upon which we have just entered.

Yours in the work,

H. C. and MRS. ARCHER

Port Maitland, N. S.

Dear Brother:

The revival campaign at Port Maitland, N.S., will be from Jan. 31st to Feb. 24th. Rev. F. A. Watson is to be our special worker. He will join us on Feb. 3rd. I shall carry on until that time. Pray that God will give us a real outpouring of His Spirit and a gracious ingathering of souls.

Yours for Holiness,

G. A. ROGERS

Perth, N. B.

Dear Highway Readers:

We feel that it is time we were reporting from this part of God's work.

We closed our revival campaign here on Sunday evening, Dec. 13th. Rev. W. E. Smith from Somerville, Mass., and Lic. Burrell Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, Me., were our workers.

We began with Brother Smith Nov. 11th and running through until the 29th. Feeling the meetings should not close we engaged Brother Kimball to help us.

Both of these men proved themselves to be men of God. They preached two distinct works of grace clear and sound.

We didn't see the break that we hoped for, but some were reclaimed, believers sanctified, and the church built up.

Since our campaign we have had some victory and we are still looking for greater victory.

We greatly enjoyed the Christmas season this year, and wish to thank all those who so kindly remembered us with greeting cards and gifts of money.

Our good church members gave us a lovely turkey, which was truly an unexpected treat. We also want to thank all those from Fort Fairfield and our own church who contributed in a love offering toward a radio for us. This was a kind suggestion of Brother Smith's, and also a complete surprise to us. We appreciate it more than words can tell, as it meant much trouble to Brother Smith in bringing it with him all the way from Somerville.

May God's richest blessing rest upon all the Highway readers this year. Continue to pray for us and the work here.

Yours in His service,

REV. C. A. and MRS. DELONG

A SUCCESS RECIPE FOR 1937

This is success: to live beyond deceit,
Too big to play the liar or the cheat,
Too big to lean when burdens heavy grow,
Asking no favor from a friend or foe,
Standing to life and all that it may mean,
With head erect and hands and conscience clean.

This is success: to live from year to year
Not asking always sunny skies and clear,
But wise enough to know and understand
Life never runs exactly as we've planned;
Seeking the best, but when the worst is met
Taking the blow without too much regret.

This is success: with all to play the friend,
Willing to give and glad at times to lend,
Laughing and singing whensoever you may,
But walking bravely through the rainy day,
Giving your best throughout the passing years,
Neither deceived by flattery nor by sneers.

This is success: the love of friends to win,
To taste no pleasure that may lead to sin
To take no profit from the hand of shame,
But by a fair fight win or lose the game;
To get from life such triumphs as you can,
But still through good or ill to play the man.

DENIES RICH TWO PER CENT CONTROL WEALTH

William J. Cameron, of the Ford Motor Company, in a recent radio address, characterized as "mischievous" the assertion that "the rich two per cent of the people own eighty or ninety per cent of the wealth."

"In 1929 the largest single block of wealth, twenty-two per cent of the whole, was dwellings, the homes of people, valued at $102,000,000,000," he said. "The next in volume of wealth were the farms at $58,000,000,000 or twelve per cent. of the whole. Next comes personal property—clothing, household furnishings, jewelry, automobiles—amounting to $49,500,000,000. All recognize that ownership of these is almost entirely with individuals."

Cameron said that of the "25,000,000 houses and lots in this country, 17,000,000 are owned by their occupants. * * * In cities seventy per cent of this property is free of mortgage. * * * Of the 6,000,000 farms, 3,500,000 are owned by the men who operate them."

Mortgaged farms in 1930, he said, were worth $21,000,000,000, but the mortgages were less than $7,000,000,000, with farmers holding about thirty per cent of this mortgage claim themselves. The farmers' debt in 1933 was in better shape than the government or corporation debt." Declaring that the $50,000,000,000 in personal property is almost wholly owned by its users. Cameron cited the 25,000,000 automobiles in the country as an example. Including investments in stock, Cameron said that almost three-fourths of this wealth is in the hands of individuals.

He concluded, however, by saying that there was not enough wealth in the country and that it was our pressing job to create more of it.—Evangelical Messenger.
