QUARTERLY MEETING DISTRICT NO. 4

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 4 was held in the R. B. Church at Woods Harbor, N. S., June 3-6. The opening service was in charge of Rev. H. L. Robertson, who brought us a helpful message from Luke 13:9. God expects us to be fruitful.

On Friday evening Rev. G. A. Rogers preached a fine sermon on "Spiritual Alternatives." His message brought inspiration to believers and conviction to sinners. Three hands were raised for prayer.

The regular quarterly business meeting was held on Saturday. The ministers present were Rev. H. L. Robertson, Lic. G. R. Symonds and

Rev. G. A. Rogers. Delegates from Woods Harbor, Port Maitland and Sandford.

Rev. G. A. Rogers was elected as Highway Agent and later gave a talk on our fine paper, "The King's Highway," requesting renewals and new subscriptions.

Encouraging reports were read from the following churches: Port Maitland, Wood's Harbor and Sandford. Brother Robertson gave an encouraging report of the church at Have-lock. There is fine attendance and good interest there.

A vote of thanks was extended to the Wood's Harbor Church for their hospitality and kindness to all visitors.

Saturday evening Brother Robertson gave a fine and clear message from Matt. 22:11, stressing the need of having on the wedding garment.

Sunday's services began with a Love Feast led by Dorothea Landers. After this there was preaching by Brother Rogers from Acts 1:5.

On Sunday p. m. the service opened as usual. Brother H. L. Robertson gave an instructive message from Ps. 51:10.

On Sunday night we had a wonderful service. The church was crowded and conviction seemed to settle down as the first hymn was sung. There was a wonderful spirit all through the service. The anointing of the Lord was on Brother Rogers as he brought a stirring and convincing message from Gen. 7:16 and Matt. 25:10. His theme was "Shut Out or Shut In."

At the close of the service three souls found Jesus as their Saviour and two as their Sanctifier. Thus closed a very profitable and blessed Quarterly.

THELMA ROSE, Secy.

HE LEADETH ME.

Dear Mrs. Charlton:

Am sending these lines entitled, "He Leadeth Me," for the Highway, hoping they will be as helpful to some others as they have been to me.—A. F. Sterritt.

In pastures green? Not always; sometimes He Who knoweth best in kindness leadeth me
In weary ways, where heavy shadows be,
Out of the sunshine, warm and soft and bright,

Out of the sunshine into darkest night.
I oft would faint with sorrow and affright
Only for this—I know He holds my hand.
So, whether in a green or desert land,
I trust, although I may not understand.

And by still waters? No, not always so;
Oft-times the heavy tempests round me blow,
And o'er my soul the waves and billows go;
But when the storm beats loudest, and I cry
Aloud for help, the Master standeth by
And whispers to my soul, "Lo! it is I."
Above the tempest wild I hear Him say:
"Beyond this darkness lies the perfect day;
In every path of thine I lead the way."

So, whether on the hilltop high and fair
I dwell, or in the sunless valley where
The shadows lie—what matter? He is there.
And more than this, where'er the pathway lead,

He gives to me no helpless broken reed,
But His own hand sufficient for my need.
Lo, where he leadeth I can safely go;
And in the blest hereafter I shall know
Why, in His wisdom, He hath led me so.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

The Thirty-fifth Session of the Reformed Baptist Sunday School convention convened at the Hartland Church with the Quarterly Meetings on June 4th, 1937.

Meeting opened with the President, E. W. Dow, in the Chair. A special song service, led by Brother George DeLong, of the Perth Church, was very much enjoyed by all.

Scripture was read by the Rev. Brother Anderson, of the Millville Church, from 2nd Timothy, followed by prayer by Rev. H. E. Mullin. The address of welcome by Mrs. H. C. Mullin, of the Hartland Church was then given.

This was followed by a very helpful response by Sister Sabine, of the Woodstock Church.

A solo was then rendered by the Rev. Geo. DeLong, entitled, "I Dreamed I Searched Heaven for You."

Reports were then read by the Secretary.

An address by Brother Hilyard of the Royalton Church, in which he stressed the points of reverence in the Sunday schools, also in walking in the ways of God. Co-operation between teachers and pupils, growth and education in Spiritual things, altogether a very strong and helpful message.

A talk by Brother Bertram Colpitts on "Early impressions in childhood that stay with us as we grow older."

A special solo well-rendered by Mrs. Hilyard, of the Royalton Church, entitled "There is a Name I love to hear, Jesus blessed Jesus," was greatly enjoyed by all.

A black board exercise given by Brother H. C. Mullin, of the Hartland Church, was much appreciated, along with a talk on Faith and Works, showing the building of a good foundation.

A talk also by Brother P. J. Trafton, of the Fredericton Church, on early training, was very helpful.

A solo by Brother Watson, of the Meductic Church, entitled, "Jesus Took My Burdens and Left Me with a Song."

In all a very helpful and Spiritual convention.

The Spirit of the Lord seemed to be upon us all through the evening.

A few remarks by the President, Brother Edward Dow.

Benediction by Brother Sabine.

Yours truly,
F. M. BOYD, Secy.

A NOBLE LIFE.

You may be very disappointed with yourself; you are no genius; have no brilliant gifts, and are not conspicuous for any special faculty; your days are remarkable for nothing but sameness and insipidity, yet you may live a great life. John did no miracle, but Jesus said that among those born of women there had not appeared a greater than he. John's main business was to bear witness to the Light, and this may be yours and mine. John was content to be only a voice, if men would think of Christ.

We are doing more good than we know, sowing seeds, starting streamlets, giving men true thoughts of Christ to which they will refer one day as the first things that started them thinking of Him.—Anon.

Character is higher than intellect. A great soul will be strong to live, as well as to think.—R. W. Emerson.
