

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. S. A. Mullen has received a unanimous call to remain pastor of the Belvidere and Crystal Churches.

Rev. J. A. and Mrs. Owens have accepted a call to remain at Westchester another year.

Rev. W. E. Smith, of Somerville, Mass., and R. T. Sellick, of Oxford, N. S., called at the parsonage at Westchester, N. S., on Friday, the 18th. They also made a brief call on Rev. H. S. Dow, pastor of Moncton Church, on Monday, June 21st. They were on their way to Salem, Kings Co., N. B. Brother Smith preached at Norton Reformed Baptist Church on Sunday, June 27th.

PERSONALS

Miss Helen Doyle is a student nurse at Grace Maternity Hospital, Halifax, N. S. Our sister is being missed greatly in the church, where she laboured so faithfully for so many years. God bless her in her chosen field.

Mrs. J. A. Owens and family will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mullen, while Mr. Owens attends the Alliance and Camp Meeting.

Several of the children who attend the Children's Meeting, have been seeking the Lord in their child-like way. God help us to feed His lambs.

Miss Cora D. E. Robinson, of Westboro, Mass., visited Island Falls, Me., recently and was present at the wedding of her cousin, Miss Luna Thorne.

Miss Wyonetta Sargeson, associate editor of the Young People's Page, has been spending her vacation on Grand Manan, visiting friends at Seal Cove and having a very pleasant time.

Mrs. H. S. Dow also is down there on a business trip, and is delighted with the place.

Edward Dow is home at Moncton, and has spoken at several of the young people's meetings, as well as other services in the church.

MARRIED

Humphrey-Thorne

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thorne, of Island Falls, on Wednesday evening, June 16th. Their only daughter, Luna Deborah, was united in marriage to Seth Daniel Humphrey, of Hodgdon, in the presence of relatives, by Rev. Stillman Mullen, using the double ring service.

Refreshments were served following the marriage ceremony, and friends to the number of about three hundred gathered to offer congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple, and telegrams were received from others. Friends and relatives were present not only from neighboring towns, but from Houlton, Hodgdon, Dexter, New Brunswick and Massachusetts. During the reception the bridal party stood under an arch of green and white surmounted with white wedding bells.

Mrs. Humphrey was tendered showers in her pre-nuptial days, and had a wealth of wedding presents, including a blooded Jersey cow, money, and quantities of linen, silver, glass, electrical, and other things for use in the new home. The bride has hosts of friends in her home town where she has been organist at the Belvidere Church, and active in W. C. T. U., and in church and social affairs, where she will be greatly missed. Her place in the community will be hard to fill. She goes to her new home with the best wishes of her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey will be at home in Hodgdon to their friends after July 1st.

Allen-Moore

A wedding of interest to friends here and elsewhere was solemnized on Saturday evening, June 19th, at seven o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Moore, when their daughter, Annie F., and Oscar Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allen, of Penniac, were united in marriage by Rev. F. A. Dunlop in the presence of about seventy-five relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lena Moore. The bridegroom was supported by Edward White.

Following the ceremony, a buffet lunch was served.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Alonzo Hollis

The death of Mrs. Alonzo Hollis occurred at her late home on Monday evening, June 7th, after several months of suffering.

Mrs. Hollis was a member of the R. B. Church, and her last testimony was, "Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus." The funeral was held at the home Thursday a. m. at 10.30. Rev. J. A. Owens had charge of the service assisted by Rev. Miester. Text used for the occasion was "I go to prepare a place for you—John 14-2. A mixed choir sang "The Last Mile of the Way," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and Mr. and Mrs. Owens and Miss Jean Doyle sang as a trio, "We are Going Down the Valley One by One."

Besides her husband she leaves three daughters: Mrs. Ralph Rushton, Sadie and Dorothy Hollis, all of Westchester, also one brother, Roland, of this place.

May God bless and sustain the sorrowing ones.

MRS. J. A. OWENS

Phyllis Green

The death of Phyllis, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Green, of Wood Island, N. B., occurred at the Chipman Memorial Hospital, St. Stephen, on Tuesday, June 15th. The child, who was but two years of age, was taken suddenly and seriously ill but a few days before her passing, and all efforts failed to save her. She was dearly loved by her parents and other relatives and will be greatly missed by them. Surviving in the immediate family besides the parents is one brother, Heber.

The funeral was held from the home of Lic. Percy Green on Thursday, June 17th, and was conducted by Rev. B. C. Cochrane, pastor of the R. B. Church at Wood Island, who was assisted in singing by Miss Gertrude Cochrane, of Marysville, and ladies of the choir of the R. B. Church of Seal Cove. To those who have sustained this great loss we extend our sincere sympathy.

To learn never to waste our time is perhaps one of the most difficult virtues to acquire. A well-spent day is a source of pleasure. To be constantly employed and never asking, "What shall I do?" is the secret of much goodness and happiness. Begin, then, with promptitude, act decisively, persevere; if interrupted, be unruffled, finish it carefully—these will be the signs of a virtuous soul.

To rule oneself is in reality the greatest triumph.—Sir J. Lubbock.
