RIVERSIDE CAMP-MEETING

August 6 to 15 Inclusive, 1937

at

Robinson's, Maine, on the B. and A. Railroad

Twenty-four miles above Houlton on the main highway, in the center of Aroostook Co., the great potato country, the home of a fine class of industrious, enterprising people, many of them descendants of a very godly stock who established Riverside Camp several years ago, for the promotion of the Wesleyan and Scriptural doctrine of holiness.

The meetings are held under the auspices of the Alliance of the Reformed Baptist Church, and are interdenominational in spirit. Rev. B. H. Pocock, evangelist, of Warren, Ohio, will be the chief speaker, assisted by other preachers and singers.

We extend a welcome to all lovers of truth and holiness to come and join with us in making Riverside Camp a great meeting and a time of salvation.
