

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. F. A. Anderson, of Millville, was elected president of our Alliance this year, and filled the position during both the business meeting and camp-meeting very acceptably. Several of our preachers are taking a few days after the camp-meeting to visit relatives and friends. Several others will begin tent-meetings at once under the auspices of the R. B. Home Mission Board. Rev. E. R. Bradley and Rev. S. A. Mullen were unable to be Beulah this year because of special home cares.

One of our young men, Rev. E. R. Watson, of Meductic, was ordained this year and two others were recommended for license.

Rev. W. E. Smith, of the Nazarene Church of Somerville, Mass., and Rev. H. G. Roushey, district superintendent of the Free Methodist Church of Palmer, Mass., and Rev. J. D. Howard, Free Methodist, of Clinton, Mass., all preached at Beulah, and their messages were greatly enjoyed. Other preachers present were Rev. Dr. H. E. Thomas, of Saint John, Rev. J. T. Gordon, of Deerfield, N. S., and Rev. Mr. Williams, Rev. Fitzpatrick and several others whose names we did not get. Many of these brethren spoke in highest terms of our camp-meeting, some of them among whom was our evangelist, said they had attended many camp-meetings, but had never found a finer class of people to associate with than they found at Beulah. They said they were very conscious of the presence of the Lord in our midst.

The Sterritt Sisters, our returned missionaries, will attend Riverside camp-meeting this year, August 6th to 16th, and after that will make a tour of our churches in the interests of Missions, and to renew their acquaintance with our people. Rev. B. H. Pocock, of Warren, Ohio, will be the special evangelist at Riverside this year. He comes to us highly recommended.

PERSONALS

The Editor of the King's Highway recently received a very interesting letter from Mrs. F. H. Hale, of Vancouver, B. C. Sister Hale retains a lively interest in the Lord's work, and finds great joy in prayer and intercession for all the people of God as well as others. Several of our people are spending some time at Beulah Camp-ground this summer, among whom are Mrs. S. A. Baker, Mrs. I. M. Keirstead, Mrs. R. Barr, Mrs. R. Dow, Mrs. G. B. Trafton, Mrs. A. L. Bubar, Mrs. Agnes Short, Mrs. F. Foley, Mrs. H. S. Dow, Mrs. E. A. M. Keirstead. We were fortunate to be able to get Lic. E. A. M. Keirstead to remain on the camp-ground this summer. Brother Keirstead will have charge of the grounds and rooms, and do the preaching. Any one wanting rooms, write him at Brown's Flats, Kings Co., N. B., Beulah Camp.

Mrs. E. Clark, of Houghton, has returned to her home in Newport, Me., after two weeks in Lawrencetown, Nova Scotia, where she went to care for her step-son, Herbert Clark. See obituary in this issue.

Reta Briggs, who is attending Byron and Stratton, Boston, Hazel Briggs, who is attending High School at Gouverneur, New York, are spending the summer with their parents, P. W. and Mrs. Briggs.

The music at Beulah was exceptionally helpful this year. Rev. B. C. Cochrane was appointed pianist and he was assisted by Mr. Robert Clifford, of Montreal, who also sang in a male quartet, which was greatly enjoyed. There were also trios, duets and solos by the young people, which all added to the success of the meeting.

NOTICE

Camp Meeting of the New England Conference of the Evangelical Church will be held near Silver Lake, Wilmington, Mass., from July 30th to August 8th. The chief speaker is to be "The Irish Evangelist", Rev. Wm. Turkington, of the New England Evangelistic Association. He will also direct the singing and render instrumental selections. Frank C. Ihley will conduct the daily Bible readings, specializing in the spiritual significance of the Mosaic Tabernacle and exhibiting in miniature. District Superintendents A. G. Woodcock and C. E. Willson are to be in charge of the encampment, assisted by ministers of the Conference. For details about board and lodging address Rev. Thomas Armstrong, E. Wareham, Mass.

MARRIED

Peterson-Watson

The church at Beals, Me., was the scene of a very pretty wedding June 15th at 4 p. m., when Gertrude Miriam Watson, daughter of Rev. F. A. and Mrs. Watson, was united in marriage to Stuart Adolph Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy E. Peterson, of Fredericton, N.B. They were supported by Miss Frances Staples, of Fredericton, and Mr. Alden Staples, of Nashwaaksis. The wedding march was played by Mrs. V. Beals, church organist. During the signing of the register a solo was sung by Mr. Hanford MacDonald of South Devon, uncle of the groom. Following the ceremony a reception was held after which the young couple left for their home in Fredericton.

"Did you ever know a missionary whose heart was in his work who wished to return to the homeland to live?"
