

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. F. A. Watson, of Beals, made a brief visit to Fredericton recently, and his daughter Gertrude (Mrs. Stuart Peterson) went back with him.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop writes that the services at Marysville are good, and their special meetings held recently with Lic. P. Green of Wood Island as evangelist were owned of the Lord and proved a blessing to the church and congregations.

We hear good reports from the services at Fredericton. They are planning to hold special services there soon.

Rev. H. L. Robertson, of Havelock, N. S., writes very encouragingly of the work there. See his letter in this issue.

Mrs. Wm. Haywood writes that the work at Victoria is progressing well under the labors of their pastor, Rev. H. C. Mullen.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Hartland, says the meetings at Hartland are gaining in interest and blessing. They are expecting to hold an all-day meeting there on Nov. 11th. They also expect to hold special evangelistic meetings about the middle of November.

Our church at Woodstock will hold an anniversary service on Nov. 3rd. See Bro. Sabine's letter and notice in this issue.

The Sterritt Sisters visited Grand Manan and Wood Islands recently and Rev. B. C. Cochrane writes that their messages proved a great blessing to the churches there.

Rev. H. E. Mullen, of Fort Fairfield, made a short visit to a former field of labor, Killam's Mills, recently. He also called at the parsonage in Moncton. We had the privilege of visiting his church at Fort Fairfield on Oct. 10 and found his work going well both in the church and Sunday School.

Lic. Sydney Ingraham is holding some services in our church at Lutes Mountain. He has also spoken several times in our church at Moncton recently and the people appreciate his messages.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

A Friend .....$ 1.50
Miss Helen Goodspeed ..... 1.50
Mrs. A. A. Hartley..... .50

We are very grateful for these offerings to this fund which helps us to send the Highway to those who are not able to pay for it themselves.

We do wish that those in arrears would let us hear from you at once and if you cannot pay all send us what you can and it will help us.

Thank you,

EDITOR.

ANNIVERSARY AND ROLL CALL

On Wednesday, Nov. 3rd, the Woodstock Reformed Baptist Church will hold an anniversary service at 2.30 p. m. and Roll Call at 7.30.

On that date, Nov. 3rd, 1888, at 2.30 p.m., the organization of the "Alliance of the Reformed Baptist Church of Canada" took place at Woodstock, and in the evening the first church in connection with the new denomination was organized. This being the "Mother" Church it is fitting that there be as large a delegation as possible. Let us pray for and attend this holiness convention, and may we enjoy a grand spiritual rally.

A cordial invitation is given to all the ministers, and in this district especially. Special speakers at both services.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Eugene Keirstead, of Plaster Rock, writes that they enjoyed a visit from the Sterritt Sisters recently. She also says that their baby has been quite sick since they left Beulah camp-ground, but is improving again.

We have also just heard that Brother E. E. Cameron, of Fredericton, is in poor health. Let us remember him in prayer.

Please remember your renewal to the King's Highway. We need the money.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS

The quarterly meeting of District No. 3 will convene with the church at Calais, Me., Nov. 4 to 7. All churches of the district are requested to send delegates and also report by letter to BENNETT COCHRANE, Secy.

The quarterly meeting of District No. 2 will be held at Moncton, N.B., Nov. 11 to 14 inclusive. Let us have delegates and reports from all churches on the district.

MRS. P. W. BRIGGS, Secy.

The quarterly meeting of District No. 1 will be held at Perth, N. B., Nov. 4 to 7 inclusive.

G. A. DeLONG, Secy.

CORRESPONDENCE

Woodfords, Me.

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed you will find money order for one-seventy-five for my Highway. We enjoy the paper and have passed them on to others, hoping they will be a help and blessing.

MRS. THOMAS M. BUTLER

Fort Wayne, Ind.

Dear Brother Dow:

Greetings in Jesus' name. I notice by the label on the Highway that my subscription is due.

You will find enclosed money order for renewal.

We are busy with our fall and winter campaigns. We have quite a few meetings booked already and expect (D V.) to be kept busy all winter.

We enjoy the Highway and look forward to its coming. We still feel that we are a part of the Reformed Baptist Church, although our work has taken us away.

The Lord bless you and the work in that part of the country.

Yours in His service,

CARL I. PARLEE

Woodstock, N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed $2.00 for my renewal to the Highway, the other 50 cents for Supplementary Fund. I find it a great comfort; so many good things in it that cheer me on my way Heavenward. It's like a light along the way.

I have been sick for the last two months. The blessed Lord has seen fit to raise me up again. I am leaving it all to Him; He cares. I feel good in my soul. Praise His name; He is with me all the time. And though I have sorrow and trouble He keeps the joy bells dinging in my soul. Such joy and peace I cannot tell it all; it is glory just to walk with Him.

Your Sister in the Faith,

MRS. A. A. HARTLEY.

THE BIBLE, THE BOOK OF BOOKS

By Georgia A. Merry

As the years fall into their places in the onward march of time and, as the world grows older, great secrets which the centuries have waited to disclose are now being brought to light, proving that the Bible is authentic history as well as inspired revelation and directions for life.

The great clay tablets of Assyria and Babylon, which have been rescued from centuries of oblivion, clearly prove that it was written by inspiration and is being fulfilled before our very eyes. This is awakening scientists to its validity and making it more real to Christians.

How marvelous is the Bible, "fresh in the morning and new in the evening!" The student of its pages never grows weary of solving its mysteries. Like a great, fathomless mine it constantly reveals treasures new and old.

One writer has said, "In the Bible we may love to work with Christ, think and travel with Paul, study the law with Moses, read the eloquence of Isaiah, sing with David, weep with Jeremiah, and dream with John."

"The Bible begins with a new earth and ends with the earth made new. Its first pages chronicle the fall of man; in its last pages man is restored to more than pristine glory. Its first pages show Paradise lost; its last pages, Paradise regained. Its first pages are blotted with tears and stained with blood; its last pages show the curse removed, sin and death destroyed, and tears forever wiped away.

"It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, the Christian's chart.

"Read the Bible to be wise; believe it to be safe; practice it to be holy. It should fill the memory rule the heart, and guide the feet. The Bible will help us to live and teach us how to die; it will deepen our joy and soften our grief; a friend to sinners, a safe guide to all. To obey its teachings is life in this world, and life everlasting in the world to come."—The Free Methodist.

THE ROADSIDE TREE

A lofty tree by the roadside grew,
Rearing its head to the heavens blue.
It grew and spread till, broad and tall,
It reached out sheltering arms to all.
When the fierce rains beat and the hard winds blew

It bent to God's will, as His creatures do.
When the storms had passed it stood upright,
And lifted its face to the healing light.

How many of us, a small voice asks,
Are like the tree in its growth and tasks?
Do we grow by the roadside and offer to all
The help that we can, whether great or small?

Do we breast the storms of life and then
Lift our hearts to the light again?
Shall we, understanding, less faithful be
Than the broad, tall, sheltering, mindless tree?

—Margaret Jeffries in the Free Methodist.
