

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. G. A. Rogers writes that the interest in their special meetings at Sanford is good and that Mr. Sellick, their evangelist, is giving them good messages.

Rev. Hollis Kimball, of Black's Harbor, writes very encouragingly of the work there. See his letter in this issue.

A letter from Brother J. H. Golding, of Hartland, says that the special meetings there are encouraging, and the evangelist, Rev. H. S. Mullen, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. H. C. Mullen, is doing good preaching, and souls are being blessed. Brother and Sister Golding have moved to Hartland for the winter.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane, of Seal Cove, is assisting Rev. F. A. Watson in special meetings at Beals, Maine. When thinking of Christmas presents, please remember your renewal to the King's Highway. We need the money to meet our obligations.

Thank you!

About fifty of the members of the Woodstock N. B. Church met at the parsonage on Thursday evening and gave the pastor, Rev. L. T. Sabine, a party in honor of his birthday, which was the following Saturday, Nov. 20. To these kind friends the pastor wishes to express his sincere thanks. The party enjoyed a pleasant social evening and left, having made a presentation of a purse of money and considerable groceries.

The plan for the evening was wholly a surprise for the recipient, who wishes God's blessing upon them all. Several others contributed who were unable to be present.

The editor received a very nice letter from Sister Annie Horncastle, who is a faithful member of Fredericton Church. She has gone to live at Upper Stewiacke, N. S., for a time. She says she finds great blessing in praying for the other Christians and especially for the ministers of the churches.

Lic. C. S. Ingraham spoke at the evening service in Moncton Church Sunday, Nov. 28.

The Sterritt Sisters have been on the Millstream circuit during the last two weeks, and will visit Moncton this week and continue over Sunday, Dec. 5th.

NOTICE

We wish the pastors would help us in our work on the King's Highway. They can do so by writing some good articles, not too long, for I find that short articles are read more often than long ones. The people often ask me why more of our pastors who are such good preachers do not write more. And also send in more notes of your work. Our readers also enjoyed the contributions by the preachers' wives. Please write again.

Again I wish more of our pastors would call the people's attention to the Highway and get renewals and new subscribers, and thereby help us with our work. Thank you!

REASONS FOR CHRISTIAN MISSIONS

"The Presbyterian" quotes the answer of a prominent Chinese Christian leader, Mr. C. K. Lee, to the question put to him by a student, "Why should we send Christianity to China when she has Confucianism?" as follows: "There are three reasons," he said. "First of all, Confucius was a teacher, and Christ is a Savior. China needs a Savior more than she needs a teacher. In the second place, Confucius is dead, and Christ is alive. China needs a living Savior. In the third place, Confucius is some day going to stand before Christ to be judged by Him. China needs to know Christ as Savior before she meets Him as Judge."

GOING HOME

Puzzled in the effort to find a better explanation of the direction-finding powers of migratory birds, some naturalists believe that they are guided by the stars. Certainly they seem to be little directed by the things of earth. Their ways, so far, have been "past finding out."

The true child of God is just a little like these feathered creatures. His ways are a mystery to earth-bound and earth-guided beings. Sometimes he makes his way through storm and head winds. Here he is a pilgrim and a stranger. He will not be understood by those who are "of this world," whether they be professors of religion or not. The pilgrim is going somewhere. He has his heart set on home.—Free Methodist.

A smile is the color which love wears. It is the light in the window of the face, by which the heart signifies to father, husband or friend, that it is at home and waiting.

Distance sometimes endears friendship and absence sweeteneth it.—Howell.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 convened with the Church at Moncton, Nov. 11th to 14th inclusive. This was truly a great time in the Lord, there were over sixty delegates and visitors present. The good people of Moncton entertained all royally, and the Lord did richly bless. Thursday evening Rev. P. W. Briggs brought the message.

Friday afternoon was given over to a discussion on Sunday School work.

Preaching Friday evening was by Rev. H. S. Mullen. Two souls prayed through to definite victory at the close of this meeting.

Saturday morning a prayer and testimony meeting was led by Lic. Norman Sanders.

Saturday afternoon business session was held. The following ministers were present: Rev. H. S. Dow, H. S. Mullen, P. W. Briggs, J. A. and Mrs. Owens, Mrs. H. S. Sanders and Lic. Norman Sanders, and Lic. Mered Grant. Election of Officers were as follows: President, H. S. Dow; Vice President, Rev. P. W. Briggs; Secretary, M. R. Briggs; Highway Agent, Rev. J. A. Owens; Treasurer, A. K. MacCallum. There were delegates present from nearly all the churches, and most encouraging reports were read, each church spoke very highly of their pastor and his faithful ministry.

Saturday evening Brother, Lic. Mered Grant preached a good sermon.

Sunday morning the Love Feast was led by Sister J. A. Owens. A soul-stirring testimony meeting was enjoyed, there being over eighty taking part. Preaching followed by Rev. J. A. Owens.

Sunday afternoon a short session of the Sunday school was held, after which Lic. S. Ingraham spoke briefly on our need of a religious school in our work.

Afterwards Sister H. C. Sanders brought a good message to the Young People. The closing message Sunday evening was brought by Rev. P. W. Briggs. There were eight souls knelt at the altar at the close of this service, consecrating their lives to God and prayed through to victory. The preaching throughout this gracious convention was of a high order. The two works of grace—Justification and Sanctification—were surely emphasized mightily and God did wonderfully bless.

To God be all the glory.

M. R. BRIGGS, Secretary

TRY YOUR TESTIMONY

It is said that the blatant skeptic obtained an argument with the illiterate but pious blacksmith. Beaten in the discussion, the poor smith broke into tears and said, "I cannot answer your arguments but I am interested in your soul's salvation and I am going to pray for you." The skeptic went away to think and pray and repent. He was won by the spirit of the good man who could not answer his attacks upon Christianity.

Argument is all right in its place. For it is good to have the mind satisfied. But the arguments concerning our religion will appeal only to the willing heart. The unwilling, driven by the best debater from his position, will seek something else for his defense and ever remain away from God. To win one to the Lord the most effective thing is your testimony and your faithful interest, guided and accompanied by the Spirit of God.

"The greatest help to the foreign work is a great revival at home."—Hudson Taylor.
