

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, of Port Maitland, N. S., and Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Woodstock, N. B., exchanged pulpits for Sunday July 17th and 24th.

Rev. H. E. Mullen, of Fort Fairfield, Maine, visited friends at Killam's Mills and preached there Sunday evening, July 17th.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane and Mrs. Cochrane, of Seal Cove, N. B., visited Mrs. Cochrane's home at Amherst, N. S., after Beulah Camp Meeting. They also visited friends at Westchester, and Brother Cochrane preached there on Sunday, 17th. They passed through Moncton and called on the Editor of the Highway on Friday, July 22nd, on their way home.

The pastor of the Church at Moncton received four men and one woman into church membership recently.

Rev. H. S. Mullen and Mrs. Mullen, of Saint John, are spending their vacation in Nova Scotia, where they attended the wedding of their son, Devern, to Miss Fannie Mullen, at the home of her parents.

Rev. P. J. Trafton reports good services with good congregations in spite of the holiday season. He says they had some seekers at the altar recently and the Lord is blessing, with 35 or 40 out to prayer-meeting.

Lic. A. D. Cann finds the work encouraging on his new field of labor. Lic. A. Deadman, of Moncton, was with Brother Cann at Killam's and Salem on Sunday, July 24th, and reports good services.

Lic. Norman Sanders was the preacher at the evening service in Fredericton, July 17th.

Lic. Hubert McGeorge left Fredericton July 28th for Nova Scotia, where he will assist Rev. Gordon Symonds in a tent meeting at Shag Harbour.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer are at Shediac visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Good. The above address will reach Brother Archer.

ORDINATION SERVICE

Friday, July 8th, at 5 p.m. an ordination service was held at Beulah Camp Grounds at which the following brethren were ordained: Norman E. Trafton, Eugene A. Kierstead and G. R. Symonds.

Scripture Lesson was read by Rev. L. T. Sabine; Prayer, Rev. H. C. Mullen; Sermon, Rev. P. J. Trafton; Special Song, Rev. H. S. Mullen and Wife; Questions asked by Rev. H. C. Sanders; Ordaining Prayer, Rev. H. E. Mullen; Hand of Fellowship, Rev. H. C. Archer; Charge to Candidates, Rev. H. S. Dow; Charge to Church, Rev. F. A. Watson; Hymn, "A Charge to Keep I Have"; Benediction, Rev. G. K. Symonds.

Divine wisdom may be given to the humblest.

PERSONALS

Competing with nurses from many sections of Nova Scotia, Miss Myra Augusta Crowell, Port Maitland, a graduate of Yarmouth Hospital, led the province in the spring registration examinations of the Registered Nurses Association of Nova Scotia, it was announced during the week-end by the Provincial Registrar, Miss Muriel Graham, R. N., of Halifax.—Halifax Herald.

Mrs. Soloman McFarlane, of Woodstock, N. B., while attending the morning service in the Tabernacle at Beulah on July 6th, was taken very suddenly and seriously ill just after giving her testimony. A doctor and nurse were summoned and on the following day she was removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Hawkins, at Fredericton, where she is still confined to her bed. Her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Pearl Czesky, R. N., of Waterbury, Conn., is caring for her. There is a slight improvement in her condition. Her testimony is "Jesus Saves, Sweetly Saves." Remember our sister in prayer.

Alfred H. Trafton and wife, of Pontiac, Michigan, were recent guests of his parents, Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton, 233 Aberdeen St., Fredericton, N. B.

Mrs. C. N. Goodspeed, of Fredericton, N. B., left for Ottawa on Friday, July 22nd, to visit her daughter, Helen, and sons, Edward and Herbert and their wives.

Mrs. S. Minue, of Fredericton, N. B., has been confined to her bed for some days through illness.

Mrs. Isaac Lawson, of South Devon, N. B., who has been seriously ill for some time, shows considerable improvement of late.

We are glad to hear that Brother C. P. Phillips, of Woodstock, N. B., is improving in health after being confined to his bed for several weeks.

Mrs. Joseph Saunders, of South Devon, N. B., is recovering nicely from a minor operation. She was a patient at the hospital for eight days.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

The Fiftieth Anniversary of the Alliance was observed by an appropriate service held at Beulah Campground on Thursday, July 7th, at 2 p.m. The following programme was carried out: Opening Hymn, Coronation; Scripture Lesson, Rev. H. C. Sanders; Prayer by Rev. G. A. Rogers; Special Singing, Rev. H. S. Mullen; Anniversary Sermon, Rev. H. C. Archer; Roll Call, Rev. L. T. Sabine; Tribute to the Founders, (clergy) Rev. P. J. Trafton, (laity) Mrs. S. A. Baker; Our Foreign Missionary Work, Mrs. H. C. Sanders, with remarks by Miss Helen Sterritt; Our New Missionaries, Rev. F. A. Dunlop, with remarks by Mrs. I. M. Kierstead; Our Home Missionary Work, Rev. F. A. Watson; Our Publication, "King's Highway," Rev. H. C. Mullen; Our Young People, Rev. H. S. Dow; Remarks, Rev. H. E. Thomas; Remarks, Rev. W. E. Smith; Hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers"; Benediction.

Dear Bro. Dow: South Devon, N. B.
I am enclosing postal note for $1.50 for subscription for "The King's Highway" for 1938. I am enjoying the Highway, it is like receiving letters from old friends.

I am unable to attend church now but am enjoying salvation.

Your brother in Christ,

JOHN MITCHELL

OUR NEXT MEETING

The Camp Meeting this year at Beulah was owned and blessed of God and many souls were definitely helped; we give Him all the praise. There was a fine spirit of cooperation on the part of God's people, there was also a spirit of prayer upon the saints, and the people had a mind to work. Let us pray that we may have another time of gracious victory at Riverside Camp Meeting which begins Aug. 12 and continues through the 21st. Plan to come, stay all through, and put our best into it for the glory of God. Amen.

P. J. TRAFTON, Pres.
