

Some who were not able to be here on account of stormy weather sent in their gifts. We wish to thank these kind friends for their thoughtfulness, and also all those who remembered us with beautiful Christmas cards. May you all have a happy and prosperous New Year with the blessing of the Lord resting upon you.

Yours in His service,
P. W. and MRS. BRIGGS.

Greys Mills Sunday School held their annual Sunday School entertainment on Thursday, December 30th. A very interesting Christmas program was carried out by the children and some few of the adults. Our returned missionaries, the Sterritt Sisters, were present and sang in Zulu language. They also gave a short account of how Christmas was celebrated in Altona, South Africa.

While our Sunday School is small in number, yet the interest is good and encouraging. First, second and third prizes were given for attendance; all received gifts. Also the Sterritt Sisters, who had not been to a (White) or homeland Sunday School Christmas entertainment in over sixteen years, enjoyed it very much, and we certainly enjoyed having them with us immensely. They were presented with a very suitable cash gift by friends and neighbors. All present were treated to candy and oranges.

The S. S. Superintendent, S. H. Bradley, had charge of the entertainment and presented the prizes.

Dear Brother Dow:

Editor the King's Highway, Moncton, N.B.

I am sending you a brief report of the colportage work I did in 1937. I had charge of the Bible stand at Beulah Camp Meetings in July for 12 days. My distribution of Scripture Bibles, etc., was considerable more at the camp meetings this year than in any previous year since I have had this work, nine years.

After camp meetings I did colportage work in parts of Kings, Queens, Sunbury and York Counties, making 2,514 calls, distributing 426 Bibles, 240 Testaments, 1360 portions of Scripture, making a total distribution of 2,026 pieces of Scripture valued at $433.15.

During my work I found 16 families destitute of Scripture. These families I supplied with Bibles. I have to say this work of distributing God's Word is a great work owned and blessed of God. In the words of the Psalmist I would say, "The entrance of Thy word giveth light," also "The law of the Lord is perfect converting the soul," and in the words of the hymn writer:

A glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic like the sea;
It gives a light to every age:
It gives but borrows none.

As ever, yours in the Master's service,
S. H. BRADLEY,
Colporteur for the British and Foreign Bible Society in New Brunswick.

Dear Bro. Dow:

Just a note to say that we are well at this time. Trust you are enjoying good health.

Was home about one month ago to see my father who is suffering severely with a cancer. The last letter I had from mother stated that it looked like he could not last long. The X-ray showed two cancers, one in the bowel passage and one in the stomach. It is hard to see our loved ones suffer so.

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Rogers and Mrs. Kinsman Mullen spent Christmas with us.

The winter has set in here and I expect but few can attend the services during the winter months. We are trusting the Lord to keep those who have lately started.

Yours in Him,

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find renewal for Highway. Willie and I were quite alone at Christmas as Charles and his wife went to Florida to see what Christmas was like there.

Another year is near its close, with its joys and sorrows, and '38 holds the same, but how good that we have the promise, "My grace is sufficient."

Hope you and Mrs. Dow are well.

Sincerely,
MRS. ADDIE TRAFTON.

Dear Bro. Dow:

Please find $1.50, my subscription for the Highway. I would miss it in my home so much. I am praising God so much these days for His keeping power in my life. Glory to God for His presence in my soul just now.

Yours truly,
T. WOLVERTON.

Dear Mr. Dow:

Enclosed please find money order for my subscription to the King's Highway, for which we enjoy reading very much and always pass along.

Port Maitland

Dear Brother Dow:

Below you will find a report of the donation given us.

On Monday evening, Dec. 27th, we were surprised by the Port Maitland and Sandford young people gathering at our home with their arms laden with groceries. An offering was also taken and presented to us. The groceries amounted to about ten dollars, and the offering over five. The presentation was made by our pastor, Rev. G. A. Rogers, with a few remarks. We tried in responding to express our appreciation and thanks. Refreshments were served and prayer offered by the pastor. We pray that God will richly bless these dear folk.

Dear Highway Readers:

It has been some time since anything appeared in the columns of The King's Highway from us; not because we are not interested in our denominational paper, for we are, as we look for its coming twice each month, with deep interest. It is a definite witness to the full gospel that we believe and teach; its editorials are of a high order and worthy of the commendation of all.

As we look back over the past year we feel that we have great reason to praise the Lord for His abundant mercies toward us; our lives certainly have fallen to us in pleasant places, we have enjoyed a goodly heritage. We have had our testings on many lines, trials have come, temptations from the enemy severe, as only those know who are seeking to hold high the banner of holiness unto the Lord and live in accordance with the teaching of the blessed Word of God, but our light afflictions have worked out for us a far more and exceeding weight of blessing, as they have been the means of driving us to our knees in humility and waiting upon God, and such rich blessing has come to our souls, we can heartily sing, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." The Christmas season was no exception. We never received before so many greeting cards from friends far and near, and many other tokens of love and esteem. At the close of the Sunday School exercises on New Year's Eve, Deacon C. N. Goodspeed, on behalf of the church and congregation, presented us with a nice sum of money, which we very much appreciated. To one and all we say a hearty thank you, and may the Lord richly bless you in return, during the coming days.

We look to the future with hope; first, for greater outpourings or anointings of the Holy Spirit upon our souls, as we seek to use the talent He has given us. We feel we must work while the day lasts, for the night cometh; second, that a gracious revival shall be given by God, to the work of holiness, world-wide, that a gracious revival shall come to the Reformed Baptists as a denomination, and that the individual churches shall have a refreshing from the presence of the Lord, that will result in the salvation of sinners, the sanctification of believers, and the building up of the saints; thirdly, that greed, and hate, and war shall cease in the world. We are now in the scrap iron war, some one has said, before the time of universal peace; read in the prophecy of Joel 3-9 and on, "But there is coming the time when the opposite of this shall take place and may the Lord hasten the day.

To all who read these lines, we wish a Happy New Year, and to everyone else the same. Let us make this year of 1938 the very best of our lives in service to God and to our fellow beings. Let us worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness and among those who are ready for the marriage of the Lamb. Keep on praying.

MR. and MRS. P. J. TRAFTON

SO WE REJOICE

Of course if one feels very self-sufficient and very well-satisfied with himself he may brag. He may say, "Well, I think that I will make it if anybody does." He may tell of the bad deeds which he has not done and of the good deeds which he has done. But some of us have felt the weight of sin and our utter undone condition. We felt lost. We knew that we were lost if God is just and holy.

Then came the knowledge of the death of Jesus. And we read, "He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities. The chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed." And "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." How our hearts leaped for joy! No need to brag. No need to be lost. A Savior provided! Praise the Lord! Though it has been long now since we first heard the blessed story of the wondrous provision, we are still very often very much moved by what He did for us upon the cross, and by what He has done in us as we have looked by faith away from our own righteousness and away from our own sin to that cross.

"Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord."—Free Methodist.
