

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Lic. Gordon Simonds writes that they are having the dedicatory service of their new Church at Wood's Harbor, N. S., on Feb. 18th. We are glad to know that the work is going on well there.

Lic. A. D. Cann writes that they are having some success in their meetings at Jonesport, Maine.

They are beginning special meetings at Port Maitland, N. S., on Feb. 20th, with Mrs. Mabel Manning as evangelist.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop writes that they had a good day at Marysville on Sunday, Feb. 6th. Rev. B. C. Cochrane was the preacher, and gave them two very helpful messages. He says they are having a special day in the interests of missions on Sunday, the 13th.

The Moncton Church and pastor expect to begin special evangelistic services on Feb. 22nd, with evangelist R. T. Sellick, of Oxford, N. S., as special speaker. Please pray for us.

Lic. Bernard Tatton, of North Head, G. M., N. B., says he is ready to take up work with any of our pastors who may need his services. See his letter.

Rev. J. A. Owens writes that their work at Westchester is encouraging. Several of the other brethren have reported their work by letter which you will see in this issue.—H. S. D.

Revival services will be held in the Reformed Baptist Church at Fredericton, N. B., beginning (D. V.) March 6th, and continuing until the 27th. Rev. Gilbert M. Laite, Conference Evangelist of the New England District, Evangelistic Church, will be the speaker. We covet your prayers.

P. J. TRAFTON, Pastor

The ruin of most men dates from some idle moment.—G. S. Hilliard.

Keep on thy course, nor crave for things to mend;

He only wins who holds on to the end.

NOTICE

Anyone desiring positions to wait on tables or wipe dishes at Beulah Camp will please write Rev. B. C. Cochrane, Seal Cove, Grand Manan.

Bread-cutters, tea pourers and potato-peelers have been engaged. Waitresses must have sleeves in their dresses or wear smocks while in the dining-room.

PERSONALS

We were very sorry indeed to hear of the passing of our esteemed sister, Mrs. George Tedlie, of Lower Brighton, who was one of our staunch members there, and will be greatly missed. We extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy in this time of sorrow, and pray that God may comfort their hearts.—H. S. Dow.

We had a nice letter from Mrs. F. K. Brown, of Lower Brighton, recently, who speaks very feelingly of Sister Tedlie's passing, and of the loss sustained by the Church there, and she prays the Lord may raise up others to take her place. She also writes that the services there are seasons of blessing.

Mrs. Perry Alward, of Salem Church, is in Moncton Hospital, recovering from a major surgical operation. She seems to be doing well. Mrs. Rufus Trites is also there and has lately undergone an operation for goitre. She also seems to be doing well, for which we are thankful.

We received a letter from Brother Ward, of Vancouver, recently, and are sorry to learn that he has been quite poorly since before Christmas. Brother Ward is still interested in spiritual things and often laments over the lack of spirituality in so many churches.

Mrs. Cora Grass has returned from Boston where she enjoyed a few weeks visit with friends.

We recently received a book from our friend and brother, S. H. Havens, of Jacksonville, which contains an account of his life, which is very interesting, and also several pieces of poetry of his own composing.

Mrs. D. J. Patton ..... .50
Mrs. Howard Cox ..... .50
Mrs. George Crosby ..... 1.00
Mrs. S. Ann Gray..... 2.00

Thank you, beloved, for these contributions to the King's Highway. I am sure this is very thoughtful of you all, when sending your renewal to remember this fund which makes it possible for those to have the Highway who are not able to pay for it themselves.

Everybody in arrears, please let us hear from you at once. Thank you.—Editor

MARRIED

Bagley-Robinson

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Jonesport, Maine, on Jan. 20th, 1938, Clarence V. Bagley, of Milbridge, Me., and Miss Hazel Robinson, of Harrington, Me., were united in marriage by Rev. E. R. Bradley. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Claudius Robinson.

They will reside at Milbridge, Me., and are wished a long, happy united life.

E. R. B.

Fish-Reynolds

The Reformed Baptist parsonage, Jonesport, Maine, was the scene of a peaceful wedding, Armistice Day, Nov. 11th, 1937, when Arthur L. Fish, of Jonesboro, Me., and Miss Ida F. Reynolds, of Milbridge, Me., were united in marriage by Rev. E. R. Bradley, in the presence of a few near relatives.

Best wishes are extended the happy couple.

E. R. B.

Thistlewood-Craft

A quiet wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Jonesport, Me., Saturday, Feb. 5th, 1938, when Robert Thistlewood, of East Machias, Me., and Miss Verna M. Craft, of Alexander, Me., were united in marriage by Rev. E. R. Bradley. They were accompanied by Lic. A. D. Cann and Mrs. E. R. Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Thistlewood will reside temporarily with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Craft, Alexander, Me. We wish them a happy married life.—E. R. B.

CORRESPONDENCE

Black's Harbour

Dear Highway Friends:

I wish to acknowledge through the King's Highway, the kindness of the women and young people who gathered at our home on the evening of January 22nd, and gave us a pleasant surprise party in honor of my birthday. They brought with them several lovely and useful gifts, including a handsomely decorated birthday cake. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation and singing of hymns.

For all God's goodness and these manifestations of his love and care for us, we thank Him today. He is precious to my soul these days, and the way is growing brighter, and I love this way of Holiness so true.

MRS. HOLLIS KIMBALL

WHAT IS A RELIGIOUS LIFE?

In itself the religious life is not so much truth, or so much idea, or even so much goodness. It is the right direction, strain, aim, of the very life of the soul, which produces harmonious action, goodness, character, as result and fruit; and in whatsoever nation and at whatsoever time, men fear God and work righteousness, they are accepted of Him.—Rev. T. W. Freckleton.

BEAUTIFICATION

The light of God is falling,
Upon life's common way;
The Master's voice is calling,
Come walk with Me today.
No duty can seem lowly,
To him who lives with Thee,
And all of life grows holy
O Christ of Galilee.
