

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. P. J. Trafton received eleven members into the church recently.

The Sterritt Sisters showed views of our Mission Stations in Africa, to a large and appreciative audience in the Fredericton Church Tuesday evening, May 10th.

Rev. H. C. Archer, of North Head, G. M., writes that the work there is encouraging and is improving. He has tendered the church there with his resignation, to take effect June 20th. His health will not permit him to take a church next year, he says. See his letter in this issue.

Rev. G. A. Rogers has accepted a call to remain at Port Maitland and Sandford another year.

Rev. P. W. Briggs, Rev. P. J. Trafton and Rev. H. S. Dow were called to Apohaqui to attend the funeral of Brother James Patton, on Saturday, May 7th. Brother Patton died on Wednesday of that week of a heart attack. We extend our sincere sympathy to our good Sister Patton, and pray the Lord will sustain her in her sad bereavement. See obituary in this issue.

We received a letter from Rev. W. E. Smith recently. He is at Bear River, N. S., holding services in an Adventist Church. He expects to remain in this country till after Beulah Camp-meeting. We will be glad to have him there with us.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Monday evening, May 2nd, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wilson, of Seal Cove, in honor of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Nearly a hundred relatives and friends assembled to offer sincere congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson who are known and loved by a host of acquaintances. Their pastor, Rev. Bennett Cochrane, performed a marriage ceremony in which the happy couple confirmed their vows of fifty years ago. A most enjoyable evening was spent, during which appropriate readings were rendered and old songs and hymns sung. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson received many beautiful gifts which expressed the respect and affections of their kinfolk and friends.

We pray that the Lord may add many more years to this happy union and that our brother and sister may ultimately be among those who enter into that more enduring union of Christ and His ransomed Church.

IMPORTANT

The drinking fountain at Beulah Camp ground, near the tabernacle, commonly called the bubbler, where thousands of people get a drink of good spring water during the summer time, has been broken beyond repair. We were thinking that some generous person might like to donate one for the benefit of the camp-meeting as a kind of memorial perhaps. If so, please write Rev. P. J. Trafton, 233 Aberdeen Street, Fredericton, N. B.

NOTICE

The material for Bible study for Young People's page reached us too late for publication.—Ed.

Would like to report the special services held at Maple Ridge March 28th-April 10th, with Rev. H. S. Wilson as evangelist. Our brother certainly gave us some wonderful messages from the Word, which were owned of God. Every service was a time of refreshing for those who know the Lord. Six sinners found their way to an altar of prayer and claimed victory. Two others sought the blessing of Entire Sanctification.

Four of those converted in these meetings expect to be baptized soon.

We feel the services were very profitable indeed, and praise the Lord for these times of refreshing.

F. A. ANDERSON

WHY TAKE SUCH A RISK?

Let it be remembered that we have a responsibility to others. Some yeras ago on the Irish Sea a terrible storm was raging. It was known that just off the coast a vessel was going to pieces. Suddenly two men, an old sea captain and his son, put out through the storm. Everybody tried to persuade them not to do so, for it seemed to be absolutely useless. Over the waves which appeared almost mountain high, they pushed along, until at last, amid the cheers of the waiting throng, they returned with their little boat filled with those who had been all but lost upon the ship. When the minister said to the sea captain, "Why do you do this? Why take such a risk?" He answered, "I have been there myself, and I know the danger." It is because we have been once in sin and now are redeemed by the precious Blood of Christ that we may say something to those who are about us.—Chapman.
