

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

We have just read in one of our exchanges that Rev. H. E. Mullen's mother, Mrs. Alveretta Mullen, of New Tusket, N. S., has passed away aged 80 years. The Highway extends sympathy to Brother Mullen and the family.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Fredericton, reports excellent revival meetings, with many souls saved and blessed in his recent services with Rev. Gilbert Laite as evangelist.

We hear that Rev. F. A. Dunlop, of Marysville, N. B., is assisting Rev. H. S. Wilson at Calais, Me.

Lic. A. D. Cann, who has been assisting the pastor and church at Moncton for two weeks past, will go to Hartland with Rev. H. C. Mullen to hold a series of meetings at Lr. Brighton and other churches on that field. Brother Cann's preaching was greatly enjoyed by the church at Moncton, and brought blessing to many souls. He is a strong scriptural preacher whose messages go deep.

Many souls were blessed at Killam's Mills, where Brother Cann held meetings recently.

Rev. H. C. Archer writes that his work is going on well at North Head, G. M., N. B., and his health is better, although Mrs. Archer is not very well at present.

Rev. J. A. Owens, of Westchester, N. S., made a trip to Royalton recently and while there preached in the Church twice on Sunday, March 6th, for the pastor, Rev. S. G. Hilyard. He stopped off at Moncton for a night on his return home.

Lic. Francis Dubee, who is at present at E. N. C., writes that he would like to do evangelistic work during holidays this summer.

Brother Roy Wheaton, who has recently united with the Church at Moncton, is also open for a call to evangelistic or supply work.

Rev. L. T. Sabine has resigned as pastor of the Woodstock Church, and would appreciate correspondence from any church which is having a change of pastors.

Special services are arranged for at Woodstock, May 22 to June 5 or longer. Rev. W. W. and Mrs. Mallory, of Trenton, Ont., both preachers and singers, are the workers. The church solicits an interest in prayer for these services.

NOTICE

The Sunday School Convention for District No. 2 will convene at Saint John, during the coming Quarterly Session there, on April 1. Sunday Schools are requested to send delegates and written reports.

GRACE K. LAWLOR,
Secretary.

PERSONALS

Bro. Frank Weade, of Royalton, had the misfortune to have a tree fall on him a few weeks ago. He is improving and is able to be around a little. His granddaughter, Lona Weade, has been very sick, but is much improved and is able to be out.

Stora William, of Island Falls, Maine, son of Bro. and Sister Emmet, is at home convalescing after an operation for appendicitis. He was brought home Sunday, March 20th, the day of his little sister's death.

Mrs. A. C. Willey, of Crystal, is moving to Waterville, Maine, in the near future to join her husband, who is engaged in business there.

The only means we have of paying for the printing of the King's Highway is by your renewal. Will you please send it in today? Thank you.

DONATION

Centreville, N. B.

On the evening of March 8th we were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens, where about forty of the good people of the Church and community met for an enjoyable time. Among those present was Brother J. A. Owens, who was home for a visit at the time. We enjoyed his fellowship and the privilege of hearing him preach Sunday evening, March 6th.

Mixed with the singing, conversations, etc., was an interesting programme of readings, solos and duets, both vocal and piano.

A very tasty lunch was served by Mrs. Owens, aided by others. The evening closed with Brother B. W. Burke, on behalf of those present, presenting Mrs. Hilyard and myself with a purse of money, also groceries and farm produce, followed with prayer by the pastor.

We say, Thank you and come again.

S. G. and MRS. HILYARD

HOW TO HELP THE PREACHER

If you want to make the best preacher that ever lived, try some of the things listed below:

Regularly attend prayer meeting.

Always attend Sunday evening service.

Sacrifice to be at the morning service.

Habitually be on time at the services.

Consider the church service your most important engagement.

Show yourself friendly to all present.

Be cordial with your pastor.

Call often at the parsonage.

Sometimes thank the pastor for the sermon.

Tell him you appreciate his efforts.

Offer to help him.

Let him feel you enjoy his sermons as well as others you hear.

Make him feel that you appreciate his being your pastor.

Speak well of him to strangers and outsiders.

Speak well of him before your child.

Make him welcome when he calls.

Invite him if he doesn't call often enough.

Don't criticize him and his family's dress.

Don't criticize his wife for not mixing in everything.

Don't tell folks his wife is trying to run things.

Take your Sunday company to church.

Let him know when you are sick.

Pay as much as you can.

Love him and pray for him.—Sel.

WEDDINGS

On March 25th, at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Moncton, N. B., Mr. C. S. Ingraham and Miss Eileen MacCallum, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacCallum, of Nixon, N. B., were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. H. S. Dow.

WHERE TO LOOK . . . IN THE BIBLE

When "things look 'blue,'" read Isaiah, chapter 40.

When tempted to do wrong, read the 139th Psalm.

If you are "bored," read Psalm 103 and 104, Psalm.

When you are discouraged, think over Psalm 23.

If you are "bored," read Usalms 103 and 104, or Job, chapters 38-40.

When business is poor, read Psalm 37.

When you are lonely or fearful, read over Psalm 27.

When you are anxious for dear ones, read the 107th Psalm.

When you plan your budget, read St. Luke's Gospel, chapter 19.

To live successfully with your fellowmen, follow Romans, chapter 12.

If you are sick or in pain, read Psalm 91.

When you leave home for labor or travel, carry Psalm 121 with you.

When you are very weary, seek St. Matthew 11:28-30, Romans 8:31-39.

When everything seems to be going from bad to worse, try II Timothy 3.

The best investment is described in St. Matthew's Gospel, chapter 6.

Does God figure in our national life? Read Deuteronomy 8.

When your friends seem to go back on you, hold fast to I Corinthians 13.

For an inward peace, consider the 14th chapter of St. John's Gospel.

Have you been placed in a position of great responsibility? Read Joshua, chapter 1.

If you have been bereaved, there is a message for you in I Corinthians 15, and Revelation 21.

For a stirring record of what trust in God can do, turn to the 11th chapter of Hebrews.

If you are satisfied with being "well-to-do," read chapters 15 and 16 of St. Luke's Gospel.

If you have experienced severe losses, read the last paragraphs of chapter 8 of Romans.

If you are having to put up a stiff fight, there is a fine equipment listed at the end of Ephesians.

When you have sinned, read I John 1, St. John 3:1-21, Isaiah 53, and make Psalm 51 your prayer.

The way of prayer—I Kings 8; Psalms 42, 51; St. Luke's Gospel, chapters 11:1-13; 18:1-14; St. John's Gospel, chapter 17; Ephesians, 3.

The way of prayer—I Kings 8; Psalms 42, 51; chapters 11, 17, and 20; II Corinthians, chapters 4, 5; Romans, chapter 8; Revelation, chapters 7, 21, and 22.

The Ten Commandments—Exodus 20; Deuteronomy 5.

The Shepherd Psalm—Psalm 23.

The Birth of Jesus—St. Matthew 1, 2; St. Luke 2.

The Sermon on the Mount—St. Matthew 5, 6, 7.

The Beatitudes—St. Matthew 5:1-12.

The Parable of the Sower—St. Matthew 13; St. Mark 4; St. Luke 8.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan—St. Luke 10.
