

YOUNG PEOPLE'S PAGE

"Let no man despise thy youth"—L. Timothy 4-12

Editor: REV. B. COCHRANE, Seal Cove, G. M., N. B.

Please address all reports for Young People's Page to the Associate Editor. MISS WYONETTA SARGESON, 34 Archibald Street, Moncton, N. B.

Associate Editor: MISS WYONETTA SARGESON, 34 Archibald Street, Moncton, N. B.

GLEANINGS

"The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared unto Simon."—Luke 24:34.

We believe in a risen Lord. Turn not your faces to the past that we may worship only at His grave, but above and within, that we may worship the Christ who lives. And because He lives, we shall live also!—Abbott.

"My will, not thine, be done," turned paradise into a desert. "Thy will, not mine, be done," turned the desert into Paradise, and made Gethsemane the gate of heaven.—de Pressense.

In the risen Saviour death is dethroned; he takes his place at the footstool to do the bidding of his sovereign Lord and King.—J. H. Jewett.

"Twas by a path of sorrows drear,
Christ entered into rest;
And shall I look for roses here,
Or think that earth is blessed?
Heaven's whitest lilies blow
From earth's sharp crown of woe:
Who here his cross can meekly bear,
Shall wear the kingly purple there."

TOMORROW—AND TOMORROW

"Not yet," said the little boy, busy at play; "when I grow older I will think about God." The boy grew to be a young man. "Not yet," said the young man; "when I see my business prosper then I shall have more time." Business did prosper. "Not yet," said the man of business; "my children must have my care. When they are settled in life I shall have more leisure." He lived to be grey-headed. "Not yet," still he cried; "I shall soon retire, then I shall have plenty of time to read and reflect." So he died, and he put off another time what he should have done when young. He lived without God, consequently he died without hope.

LET US PRAY

O Lord, support us all the day long of this troublous life, until the shades lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over and our work is done. Then, Lord, in Thy mercy, grant us safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at the last, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.—Amen.—Selected.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The Young People's Association announces a Denominational Y. P. Convention May 6-8, to meet with the church at Marysville. Rev. H. S. Dow and Rev. F. A. Dunlop will be special speakers. They will be assisted by our own young people. Remember, this Convention is not merely a district meeting, but is DENOMINATIONAL, so will EVERY SOCIETY, of every district, please SEND at least one DELEGATE. More will be welcome. This is sure to be a great time of blessing, so begin now to plan for it. Let us come from the north, south, east and west, and sit with Christ in heavenly places. All delegates will be entertained free of charge.

SOCIETY LETTERS

Dear Young People:
Greetings from the Young People's Society of Seal Cove!

We are glad to report that, since the time of our last writing, the Lord has been with us. The active members of our Society are making progress in spiritual things, and some new young people have been saved recently, as well as some backsliders being reclaimed. We hold our meetings Friday evenings, and they are times of refreshing.

On Friday evening, April 8th, we had a special service in observance of the third anniversary of the organization of our Society. Rev. H. C. Archer, the honorary president of the Young People's Association, was with us, and brought a fine message from the text, "Ye serve the Lord Christ." On this our third "birthday" we believe that we are "growing in grace," and earnestly pray that the Lord will strengthen us with might "by His Spirit," and increase our numbers.

We would appreciate an interest in the prayers of all our young people.

Yours in the service of Christ,
HILDA M. COCHRANE (Reporter)