PERSONALS

Mrs. E. A. M. Keirstead, of Plaster Rock, N.B., enters the Bath Hospital this week for an operation for appendicitis. We are sorry to hear this and trust all our readers will remember her in prayer.

A letter from our good sister I. M. Keirstead says her hand which was so badly hurt several months ago, is improving nicely now.

We hear that Mrs. James Patton of Apohaqui is quite poorly, also Brother Chas. Grant of Woodstock, N.B. Let us remember to pray for them.

Brother and Sister T. W. Whitten of Woodstock, N.B., still remain in very poor health. They are both confined to their beds, but are rejoicing in the Lord for His great salvation. The editor called on them recently while passing through Woodstock.

Bro. W. C. Wright of Greenbush has been in Woodstock Hospital for treatment recently but is out again and is improving.

Miss Luella Hayes has returned home after spending a month with friends in Saint John.

Mrs. Leslie Hayes was taken sick with tonsillitis while at the quarterly meeting in Saint John. She stayed at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Mullen until Friday when Mr. Hayes went after her. She is much better now.

Eva Sears of Fort Fairfield, Maine, has been a patient at the Deaconess Hospital, Boston, and underwent an operation for goitre. She will be home in a few days much improved.

OUR RISEN LORD

Let all the people praise Him! For His matchless love towards the children of men. For His advent to this old world of sin. For the indignities and insults that He bore, and for His patient suffering on Calvary's cruel Cross, to pay the supreme sacrifice for our redemption. We do humbly offer adoration, praise, thanksgiving and the love of our hearts to our victorious Lord Who arose triumphant over hell, death and the grave.

I. M. KIERSTEAD

Wishing all the Highway family a joyous Eastertide, with the assurance of prayers for Heaven's richest blessings to rest and abide upon each member.

I. M. K.

Easter brings a song. Had Bethlehem led to Calvary and nothing beyond, the song sung by the angels at the birth of the Babe of Bethlehem would have been a mockery. But we still sing that song and the poetry and the music of it are ever and ever fresh and sweet, because it has been hallowed by another and loftier song, that of Easter: the song of the risen Christ, who rose from the dead and dieth no more but is alive for evermore. Let us set our hearts in tune to salute the great festival of the Resurrection with a song.—Selected.
