

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, pastor of the church at Port Maitland writes that they will begin special meetings there Jan. 21st to continue till Feb. 13th with Mrs. Mabel Manning as evangelist.

Rev. H. C. Mullen reports good meetings at Hartland with good attendance since their recent revival.

Rev. Errol Watson, of Meductic, reports the work encouraging on his field in spite of the seeming hindrance such as sickness and winter weather which keeps some folk away from the services.

The good people of our churches have again showed their appreciation of their pastor's efforts among them, by making them special Christmas gifts of money and other needful things, which I am sure is very commendable.

Lic. Norman Sanders, of Amherst, N. S., spent Sunday, Jan. 23rd, in Moncton visiting friends. He reports the work going on well at Amherst.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane, of Seal Cove, has been spending a few days at his home town, Marysville, recently.

Rev. H. C. Archer, of North Head, is not enjoying the best of health lately. And Mrs. Archer is confined to her bed through illness. Their niece, Miss Nellie Good, R. N., of Moncton, is caring for Mrs. Archer.

Rev. H. E. Mullen, of Fort Fairfield, writes that their work is encouraging. The blessing of the Lord is on their meetings and new faces are often seen in their congregations.

Rev. S. G. Hilyard, of Royalton, writes that his father, Rev. C. S. Hilyard, of Grafton Centre, N. H., is under the doctor's care, suffering from a severe attack of heart trouble. He requests the prayers of God's people for his recovery.

We are glad to have a nice letter from our good sister, Mrs. I. M. Keirstead, of Plaster Rock, and to know that her hand which was so badly injured is much improved so she is able to write some again. See her letter in this issue.

Lic. A. D. Cann, of Port Maitland, N. S., wishes to say that he is open for a call to supply, or evangelistic work.

PERSONALS

Mrs. T. W. Whitten, of Woodstock, N.B., is in very poor health, confined to her bed. Brother Whitten has been confined to his bed for over two years now. Let us all remember these good people in prayer.

Brother Charles Grant and B. M. Colpitts are also poorly and not able to get out very much.

The Editor of the King's Highway was in Woodstock recently and called on these folk. We also called at the home of Mrs. George Tedley and family of Lower Brighton and found them not enjoying very good health. We had a short visit with our good brother and sister C. P. Phillips and wife of Woodstock. Sister Phillips like many others was afflicted with a severe cold. Brother Phillips was enjoying very good health.

Mrs. Robert Barr, of Fredericton, who has been in poor health for several months, is improving.

Mr. E. E. Cameron, of Fredericton, is still in poor health, as is also Mrs. O. R. Estey, we hear.

Mrs. Silas Burt, who has been confined to her home the past six weeks and to her bed a good part of that time through sickness, is improving slowly. She is missed from her place in the church and Sunday School.

Mrs. B. W. Burke has been in poor health during the fall and winter and has been missed from the services.

Let us remember all our sick ones in prayer.

OBITUARY

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.—Revelation 14-13.

Douglas J. Robertson

The New Year was ushered in with sadness when on January first occurred the death of the late Douglas Robertson, son of the late Joseph and Frances Robertson of Norton.

The deceased was seventy-two years old and had suffered only a few months, before his death by cancer.

When assured that death was near all was assigned to the Heavenly Father whom he had revered for many years. His faith was unwavering to the end.

His church affiliations have never been severed from the Free Will Baptist Church in Mercer Settlement.

He leaves to mourn his widow and ten children, four daughters, Mrs. J. A. Young of Ripples, N.B.; Mrs. George Tuck of Framingham, Mass.; Mrs. Borden Schrader of Southborough, Mass., and Mrs. Charlie Cleveland of Norton, N. B.; also six sons, Harry of Hatfield's Point; Rev. H. L., of Havelock, N.S.; Percy, of Ripples, N. B.; Gordon, of Cambridge, Mass.; Arthur, of Memphis, Tenn., and Foster, of Saint John. Four brothers, George D., William and Fred, of Los Angeles City, and Wesley of Norton; two sisters, Mrs. D. H. Hayes of Norton, and Mrs. Fred Mercer, of Los Angeles, California.

Service was at the residence, conducted by Rev. Hatt, assisted by Rev. Phinney of Norton. Interment was made near the Frances Robertson Memorial in the Riverbank Cemetery.

The departed will be greatly missed in the home and community. W. R. CARSON

Wilfred Crawford

The community of Royalton was greatly shocked the morning of Nov. 11 to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. Wilfred Crawford. He had been in his usual health and did all his fall work, but suffered a stroke and lived but a few hours. He was a good neighbor and a kind friend. He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his widow one son, Perry, of Montana; two daughters, Mrs. Reginald Smith of Summerfield, Mrs. Harding Smith of Centreville; two brothers, one of Mimiac and Elisha of Royalton.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. S. G. Hilyard on Nov. 12, who spoke from II Kings 20:1. Interment was made in Royalton Cemetery. Prayer is made and sympathy extended to the sorrowing. —S. G. H.

Hershel Crandlemire

The infant son, Hershel, of Mr. and Mrs. William Crandlemire, of Brookville, died of pneumonia at the age of six weeks. The funeral was held from the home on Jan. 2 at three o'clock and was conducted by Rev. S. G. Hilyard, who spoke from Matt. 19:14. Burial was made at Bloomfield Corner, Rev. Mr. Rowley, U.C., conducting committal service.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy. S. G. H.

Mr. W. D. Tompkins

The passing of Mr. W. D. Tompkins was a great shock to his relatives and friends at twelve o'clock, Dec. 31, 1937, of Brookville. He had been in poor health for a number of weeks, but had been improving. Following a good night he began sinking and continued until the end.

He leaves to mourn their loss besides his widow, one son, Ervin, of Brookville; two daughters, Mrs. Fred Ketch, of Charleston, and Vera of Royal Oak, U.S.A.; one brother, James, of Centreville.

The funeral was held from his home to the United Baptist Church at Lakeville Monday, Jan. 3, and was in charge of Rev. E. A. Trites of Centreville, N.B. Prayer was offered at church by the writer. Burial was made in cemetery adjoining church.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy. S. G. H.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Bro. Dow: Meductic.

We feel a few lines from the Meductic Circuit would be in order. The past year has been one of blessing and victory in our own souls. "Praise the Lord."

Although we haven't seen the results of our labors that we would wish, yet we feel they have not been in vain. There is conviction on our services. Some have got through to the Lord. To God be the glory.

We wish to acknowledge through the "Highway" the gifts of sufficient money to wire the parsonage from the members of our church and friends in Meductic. This money was raised by two young ladies of the village, Miss Dorothy Bragdon and Miss Velma Porter. We appreciate very much this kind act, which we feel was not only to us but also to our denomination.

On Thursday, Dec. 16th, the good folk of Meductic gathered at the parsonage and spent a social evening and left with us a good supply of groceries and a donation of cash. Lower Southampton, Middle Southampton and Green Bush also remembered their pastor with gifts of money and produce.

Words fail to express our thanks to these kind friends for the goodness to us. (Say from the depths of our hearts, Praise God from whom all blessings flow.) Trusting we may in some way be a blessing to them.

Wishing the Editor and readers of the Highway God's richest blessing in 1938.

Yours in His service,
MR. and MRS. E. R. WATSON.
