

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and Mrs. Trafton went to Woodstock last Wednesday to see Brother C. P. Phillips, who is still in poor health. They also called on some other friends.

The Editor and Mrs. Dow drove to Hartland on Tuesday, June 21. They also called on Brother and Sister Phillips, found Brother Phillips still confined to his bed. We also called on Brother Charles Grant, who is in poor health. Let us remember all the sick ones in prayer.

Lic. Norman Trafton is home from Eastern Nazarene College where he has been studying during the past year. He will be at Beulah Camp Meeting.

Rev. H. C. Archer and Mrs. Archer spent last Sunday at Beulah Camp-ground.

Rev. G. A. Rogers and Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Alvin Perry of Port Maitland, N.S., stopped overnight in Moncton, N.B., on Monday the 27th on their way to the camp-meeting.

Mrs. S. A. Baker and some of the young people of Moncton went to Beulah camp-ground on the 18th.

Rev. H. S. Dow, pastor of the church at Moncton, received three members into the church on Sunday night, June 26.

HOME MISSION FUND

Reformed Baptist S. S.....	$13.67
Marysville Y. L. Class.....	5.00
Miss Grace Ingraham.....	3.00

Let us hear from others soon. Thanks.

P. J. TRAFTON, Treasurer.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

If you were present at the organization of the Reformed Baptist Alliance, come to Beulah Camp Ground this year to help celebrate the 50th anniversary of that event. It will be held July 7th from 2 to 5 p.m. An interesting programme has been arranged. Let there be a great gathering of our people.

FOREIGN MISSION FUND

Victoria Corner	$ 5.00
Mrs. J. H. Roberts.....	1.00
Woodstock M. S.	14.26
Salem S. S.	6.00
Per Mrs. I. M. Kierstead for Aloni.....	15.00

REV. L. T. SABINE,
Treasurer.

Box 282, Woodstock, N. B.

THIS IS FAITH

To live one's best today, believing that God will give us strength for the responsibilities of tomorrow when they come.

To use one's best judgment in each emergency, refusing thereafter to reproach one's self for not having used better judgment.

To invest all one has on the side of right, confiding in God that the investment shall be eternally safe.

To meet each rising sun with the knowledge that no temptation will be more than we can meet, if we walk with Christ at our side.

To do the duty that I now see clearly, trusting that each new duty will be clear when I come to it—this is faith.—Selected.

Impatience is Satan's wedge that he sets to open the door of the heart for himself.

A DONATION

On the evening of June 2nd a number of the Woods Harbor folk surprised us by gathering at our new home, thus welcoming us to their community. A pleasant evening was spent in conversation, also a few recitations. We were presented with over nine dollars in cash and some useful articles. We appreciate this very much and pray that God will richly bless them and our stay here. The ladies served refreshments and we offered prayer before separating.

LIC. & MRS. G. R. SYMONDS

OBITUARY

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Charles Randall

The Reformed Baptist Church at Belvedere has sustained a great loss in the passing of Mary Randall, wife of Deacon Charles Randall, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Stanley, Farmington, Maine, whom she had gone to visit some weeks previous. Her death occurred Wednesday morning, June 8th.

Sister Randall was converted at the age of twenty and joined the Free Baptist Church at Dyer Brook. Coming to Crystal twenty-seven years ago she joined the Free Baptist Church at Crystal. Later when the Reformed Baptist Church was organized at Belvedere, she with Brother Randall became a charter member. She was a devoted member, having acted as clerk of the church. She was also an ardent member of the W. C. T. U. She will be greatly missed by the church and the community.

She leaves to mourn their loss, her sorrowing husband, two daughters, Mrs. Faye Downing, Crystal; Mrs. Clarence Stanley, Farmington, and one son, Claud Randall, Island Falls, besides eight grandchildren, other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral was conducted at the Belvedere Church, Friday, June 10th, the writer officiating, assisted by Brother H. C. Mullen, Fort Fairfield, and Rev. P. W. Quigg, Island Falls.

To the bereaved ones we extend our sincere sympathy.

S. A. MULLEN

TOMORROW

"Tomorrow I shall freely give
To help some one in need;
Tomorrow I shall try to find
A hungry heart to feed.

"Tomorrow I shall gladly say
A world of kindly cheer;
Tomorrow I shall do a deed
To free some one from fear.

"Tomorrow I shall sacrifice
My selfish ways and views;
Tomorrow I shall prove that I
A nobler way can choose.

"Tomorrow I shall something do
To make an honored name."
Alas, he put it off too late—
Tomorrow never came!

"The Field Is the World" is the legend on the famous Haystack Monument on the campus of Williams College. Here four young men held a prayer meeting in August, 1806, that led to the beginning of the foreign missions movement in America.—Sel.

WHAT GREAT MEN HAVE SAID ABOUT THE BIBLE

The Word of God tends to make large-minded, noble-minded men.—Henry Ward Beecher.

The Bible is the treasure of the poor, the solace of the sick, and the support of the dying.—Robert Hall.

The Bible is the Word of God, with all peculiarities of man, and all the authority of God.—Professor Murphy.

There is not a boy or a girl, all Christendom through, whose lot is not made better by this great book.—Theodore Parker.

Take all of this book upon reason that you can, and the balance on faith, and you will live and die a better man.—Abraham Lincoln.

To give a man a full knowledge of true morality I should need to send him to no other book than the New Testament.—John Locke.

All human discoveries seem to be made only for the purpose of confirming more and more strongly the truths contained in the scriptures.—Sir John Herschel.

A noble book; all men's book. It is our first statement of the never-ending problem of man's destiny and God's way with men on earth.—Thomas Carlyle.

It is impossible mentally or socially to enslave a Bible-reading people.—Horace Greeley.

The Bible is the best Magna Charta of the poor and oppressed.—Thomas Huxley.

The Bible is the best book in the world.—John Adams.

The Bible is the rock on which our Republic rests.—Andrew Jackson.

In its spiritual significance, the most valuable thing this world affords.—King George V.

In all literature there is nothing that compares with the Bible.—John Milton.

—Wesleyan Methodist

A SOFT ANSWER

A man who bought a farm soon afterwards came across his nearest neighbor. "Have you bought this place?" asked the neighbor.

"Yes."

"Well, you have bought a lawsuit!"

"How is that?"

"Well, sir, I claim your fence line is ten feet on my side, and I am going to take the matter to court to prove it."

The newcomer said, "Oh, don't do that. If the fence is on your side of the line we will just take it up and move it back."

"Do you mean it?"

"Of course I do," was the reply.

"Well, that fence stays where it is!"—Selected.

THE MOST MYSTERIOUS JOY

The most mysterious joy one ever experiences arises from a sense of God. Known in His covenant relation as reconciled in Christ Jesus, and full of infinite love, the soul perceives Jehovah's all-pervading presence by an unutterable sense of overshadowing which brings with it a delight such as nothing can rival, as much above all joys of mere nature as the heaven is above the earth. The will of God is then the soul's highest will; His glory, its all in all. More bliss it could not conceive; yet it is not bliss that it thinks of, but the Lord Himself.—Charles Haddon Spurgeon.