

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

We had a very interesting letter from Rev. C. S. Hilyard of Grafton Center, N.H. We are glad to hear that his health is better. He speaks of the first camp-meeting held at Beulah in the big tent, and remembers well the blessing of those days. He says he would like to be with us this summer to celebrate our 50th anniversary, and I am sure we all want him to come. We want all the readers of the King's Highway who have taken the Highway from the beginning of its publication to write us a short letter if they cannot be there in person and we will read their letters at our anniversary service.—Editor.

Rev. W. E. Smith, of Somerville, Mass., preached at both services in our church at Moncton, May 29. He also preached at Lutes Mountain in the afternoon. We enjoyed his messages and the blessing of the Lord was on the services.

Rev. H. C. Archer visited Seal Cove recently and spoke at a temperance meeting in our church there held by the W. C. T. U.

Rev. J. M. Murchison of Saint John spoke in our church at North Head on Sunday morning, May 22.

Rev. W. E. Smith, of Somerville, Mass., and Rev. Errol Watson and the Editor of the King's Highway attended the special services at Woodstock on Tuesday night, May 24, and enjoyed the preaching and singing of the evangelists, Rev. and Mrs. Mallory. We also called on Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Whitten in Woodstock and were glad to find Mrs. Whitten's health much improved. She is about the house again and doing considerable work. Bro. Whitten's health remains about the same. They are both praising the Lord for His great salvation that sustains them in their times of weakness.

The special revival services began at Woodstock on Sunday, May 22nd, with good attendance. Rev. Wm. and Mrs. Mallory of Trenton, Ont., who are the special workers, have already won a large place in the hearts of the congregation. They both preach and sing. The services will continue for two weeks at least, till June 5th. The interest is good and we extend an invitation to all who can, to attend.

REV. L. T. SABINE, Pastor.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Hartland, has been laid by for a week with a severe cold.

A CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all my friends who were so kind, and thoughtful of me during our recent sorrow in the passing of my dear husband. I received so many expressions of sympathy in cards and letters that it seems quite impossible for me to reply to them all individually. But I do appreciate your kindness very much, dear friends, because they were a great source of comfort to me, and to you all. I say Thank, You, and the Lord bless you.

MRS. JAMES PATTON

NOTICE

We are sending some extra copies of this issue of the King's Highway, the camp-meeting number, to our pastors. Please distribute them among the people and help to advertise our camp-meeting. Thanks

MARRIED

The Reformed Baptist Church at Black's Harbor, N. B., was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Saturday evening, May 14th, when Rev. H. M. Kimball united in marriage Miss Marjorie Jean Leighton, of Grand Harbor, Grand Manan, and Malcolm Joseph Richardson, of Woodward's Cove, Grand Manan. The bride was attended by Miss Helena Griffin, while the groom was supported by Milton Earle Leavitt.

The many friends of this young couple join in wishing them a long and happy married life.

OBITUARY

A. L. Berry

A resident of Moncton for the past 25 years, A. L. Berry, insurance agent, died at his home, 224 Cameron street, Thursday, May 26, at the age of 72 years. Highly esteemed, his death will be mourned by a host of friends throughout the city and in his birthplace, Berry Mills, where he resided prior to coming to the city. He had been a farmer before becoming an insurance salesman.

Surviving are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. A. MacCallum, and Mrs. Gertrude Kelly, both of this city, four sons, Bruce M., of Edmundston; Gordon F., Halifax; Bliss E., St. Stephen, and Carey R., of Moncton. Three sisters, Mrs. Rachel Killam, Somerville, Mass.; Mrs. Harry Wood, Sydney, and Mrs. James Bratton, of Washington, and three brothers, John, of Moncton; Daniel, Berry Mills, and Christopher, of Vancouver, are also left to mourn. The latter arrived here Tuesday for a visit.

The funeral service was held on Sunday afternoon from the home attended by Rev. H.S. Dow. The floral tributes were many and beautiful and the service was largely attended which spoke of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Burial was made in the Elmwood cemetery, Moncton, N. B.

OUR EFFORTS AND OUR PRAYERS

A preacher explained that the people of his rural community were not a "churchgoing people." He might have said, "The farmers around here have no housegoing preacher," for he did little faithful calling. He hoped that the people would come to hear him preach, though he did not call on them. If any did come, they did not hear much, for his studies were too largely of the newspaper and too little of the Word, good books or any other sermon-provoking material.

We have no right to ask the blessing of the Lord upon our half-hearted, ambitionless efforts to carry on this great work. "The Lord helps those who help themselves" may not be written in the Scriptures, but certainly none other should have the temerity to ask of Him. It is "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed," that "shall come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Free Methodist.
