

CORRESPONDENCE

Manset, Maine

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed $2.00 for renewal for the King's Highway. Use other money where needed most.

We enjoy the paper very much and would not want to be without it. It seems like letters from home and we look forward to it. Jesus is precious to us and we are looking to him each day.

Yours in Him,

MR. & MRS. ALTON URQUHART

Woodstock, South Ohio,

Dear Brother Dow:

I was just reading the Highway and read where you said you would be thankful if many that are in arrears would send in their renewals, and I thought I had not sent ours in. Hope that a lot more will think about it and make you thankful. Perhaps they would if you stopped their paper, if they would miss it like I am sure I would.

I can still praise God for His goodness to the children of God. Praise Him for keeping my dear ones that are in the United States, safe through the great storm. Thank Him for the keeping power of the Holy Spirit.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. MANNING MULLEN

Dear Brother Dow:

At this time we wish to report of our special services. On Thursday, Sept. 15th, Rev. A. J. Owens and Sister Owens began special meetings in our Church, continuing over September 28th.

There was not a large attendance but the messages were of very high order. Both Brother and Sister Owens brought deep spiritual messages from God's Word. Some hands were lifted for prayer. Three souls sought and found the Lord. We must say that all were sorry our good helpers had to leave so soon. Brother and Sister Owens' fellowship was much enjoyed by pastor and people. Sister Owens rendered special music which was much appreciated.

Thursday and Friday nights of the 29th-30th Rev. G. A. Rogers and Mrs. Rogers, of Port Maitland, were with us. Brother Rogers preached for us. One soul claimed the blessing of entire sanctification.

October 2nd at our regular service two souls came forward for pardon and claimed the new birth. We are praising the Lord for His many blessings upon us as a church.

Our service on Sunday morning was given over to testimony and praise. The new converts gave definite testimony to the saving power of Jesus Christ in their life. We counted nineteen testimonies.

The enemy is trying hard to discourage his people but we are looking for greater victory through Christ.

The messages of Rev. G. A. Rogers were much enjoyed also.

Yours in Christian love,

REV. & MRS. H. L. ROBERTSON

Dear Brother Dow:

For fifty years I have been a reader of the Highway. I was in Woodstock when the denomination was organized. But after fifty years I must give up my Highway. Sickness and death and hard luck have left us in such a hard place I cannot pay for my paper any longer. It is hard in your old age to be so reduced but a year ago we lost our daughter-in-law suddenly, and the shock on me was too much, and I have not been well at any time, and have to have help all the time. My husband is 77 and still working hard. We only have one son and he has a hard time with just us old folks. We have seen much better days—that makes it all the harder. I shall miss the Highway as it has always been like a letter from my friends. I do not know if I can pay what I owe on the paper. I should have notified you before to stop it, but I kept hoping I could pay and not have to give it up, and it wasn't right for me to keep hoping and let it run. It is hard in your old age to give up the things we loved from our youth up and clung to. We lost all of our grain crop in the gale; was ready to begin to thresh the day the rain struck and it rained ten days, until it sprouted and grew back into the ground. One field of corn for ensilage was laid flat but they managed to cut that. Will you pray for us; we sure need the prayers of God's people.

MRS. C. B. H.

Dear Brother Dow:

I have been thinking of writing you for a long time; have been putting it off till camp meetings were over, knowing you would be away. I have been very poorly the last year; have been suffering a great deal of late. Doctor says it is caused by too much sugar in my blood. I am getting behind with my Highway, and I shall miss it very much as I do enjoy it; have taken it for over 25 years. I don't have anything coming in and my health is so I cannot earn anything now and have to have help some of the time so I will have to stop my paper unless you could send me a free copy once in a while. I don't want to be in debt. I will try to send you what I am behind soon. I am still trusting in the Blood that took my sins away. Jesus is precious to me. I hope you are enjoying good health and the blessing of the Lord. I remain,

Your sister,

MRS. A. W.

NOTE.—Here are two samples of many letters that I have received similar to these from God's people who because of adversity, are not able to pay for their paper. To all of these I say you shall not be deprived of the King's Highway because you have no money to pay. Through the kindness of our friends who contribute to the Supplementary Fund, we are glad to continue sending your paper, so we mark them paid up-to-date. We do wish, however, that all those who are in arrears and are able to pay, would do so at once. God has blessed many of you with good homes and an income to make you comfortable. How can you withhold from God that which you owe on the King's Highway. This is His work and yours. Will you not, my friends, send in your renewals at once and thus help us to keep this good paper going to the many who need it. Thank you.—Editor.

Jonesport, Maine

Dear Highway Friends:

As it has been some time since I last wrote, I think it would be well to write a few lines at this time.

We have had several busy but interesting weeks touring the churches. So far we have visited and had services in twenty-six different churches. In my last letter I mentioned the first four. Our second Sunday was spent at Fredericton and Marysville, and from there we went to Meductic, Middle Southampton, Lower Southampton, Nortondale, Maple Ridge, Lower Hainesville, Millville, Lower Brighton, Hartland, Victoria Corner, Belvedere, Woodstock, Gordonsville, Brookville, Royalton, Fort Fairfield, Perth, Knoxford, Black's Harbor, Beals Island and Jonesport. At every place we felt the Spirit of the Lord in our services and we were graciously entertained. I do thank the dear Lord for this blessed privilege that He has given me to get better acquainted with our people and the home work, and also to visit our pastors and their wives and families. It was a blessing to me also to visit in the homes of Rev. H. E. Mullen and Rev. L. T. Sabine, who were former pastors of the Sandford Church before I was married.

I wish to acknowledge through the Highway some gifts that we have received recently. At Gordonsville Mrs. James Stephenson gave me a very pretty quilt. We greatly appreciate this thoughtful gift.

My husband had lived quite a few years in Royalton, and there we received a warm welcome too. Mrs. Bordman Burke presented us with a very nice quilt while we were there, and we received several other very useful gifts from others also. We thank them very much and may God bless them.

We also wish to mention a very interesting evening spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis True at Woodstock. We spent that evening getting better acquainted with the members and friends of the Woodstock Church. At the close of the evening Brother Sabine, the pastor, on behalf of those present, presented us with a large basket full of beautiful gifts including two nice quilts and other articles of bedding, a dress for me, towels, etc. We did our best to express our thanks to them for all their kindness to us, and we also thank the dear Lord for the way that He provides for His children.

We had a very nice time at Beals also. I enjoy seeing the ocean again. On Saturday evening a number of the ladies of the Beals Church met at the parsonage and again we were presented with useful gifts. As it was my husband's birthday the Young People's Society presented him with a nice box of chocolates. For all these gifts we do thank those dear people.

At present we are with Brother and Sister Bradley at Jonesport. We expect to have a service here to-night, and to-morrow we leave for Calais to have services with Brother Wilson.

We again wish to thank the dear friends for their kindnesses and thank the dear Lord for His leadings.

Yours in His service,
GLADYS M. KIERSTED

THE RICH AND THE POOR

There is not such a mighty difference as some men imagine, between the poor and the rich—in pomp, show and opinion there is a great deal, but little as to the pleasures and satisfactions of life; they enjoy the same earth, and air, and heavens; hunger and thirst make the poor man's meat and drink as pleasant and relishing as all the varieties which cover a rich man's table; and the labor of a poor man is more healthful, and many times more pleasant too, than the ease and softness of the rich.—Dr. Sherlock.
