

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Flora Dickinson, of Meductic, is very ill at her home, and requests the readers of the Highway to pray for her.

A. K. MacCallum, of Moncton, has been quite sick recently. He was taken to the hospital for treatment, but is home again and is improving.

Mrs. B. C. Cochrane, of Seal Cove, N. B., was in Moncton last week attending the W. C. T. U. convention. She remained over Sunday and was with us in our meetings, and sang several selections which were an inspiration to all. She and Miss Gertrude Cochrane, of Marysville, N. B., also sang over the air at the Moncton devotional service Monday morning when Rev. H. S. Dow was the speaker.

Mrs. Fannie Mutch, of Woodstock, attended the W. C. T. U. Convention at Moncton last week.

Mrs. P. J. Trafton and daughter, Emma, R. N., of Fredericton, attended the Young People's Convention at Moncton, and had the privilege of meeting many of their friends and acquaintances of former years who were glad to see them again.

As we go to press we have just heard that Mrs. Ida Patton, of Apohaqui, is quite poorly. Let us remember our sick ones in prayer.

ANNIVERSARY GREETING

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 4th, a number of the congregation of the Woodstock Reformed Baptist Church met at the parsonage and tendered the pastor and wife, Rev. L. T. and Mrs. Sabine, a party, the occasion being their 27th wedding anniversary.

On behalf of the friends, Mr. Ellis True presented a purse and gifts, which were appreciably received.

After a pleasant evening the company left, wishing their pastor and wife many happy returns of the day.

ATTENTION LADIES! EXTRA BEDDING WANTED

Did you know that Beulah Camp is in need of a large number of sheets and pillow cases?

Resolutions were passed last year to have extra rooms prepared, also we are told that new beds are to be purchased.

We request that each church supply a pair of sheets and pillow cases to be ready for our next camp meeting. We are in need of extra pillows also.

While the cost to each church would be small this would save the Alliance a considerable amount.

We should like to have the names of all those who plan to help in this way, so that in due time notice may be given through the Highway.

We believe there will be a loyal response from all our Churches.

H. L. ROBERTSON,
Chairman Rooms Committee

MARRIED

Whittie-Allen

A quiet but pretty wedding took place Aug. 6th at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Marysville, when Rev. F. A. Dunlop united in marriage Della Allen, daughter of Moses Allen and the late Mrs. Allen, Penniac, and William Whittie, of Durham.

White-Moore

The home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moore, Marysville, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday evening, Sept. 24th, when their daughter, Lena A., was united in marriage to Edward J. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. William White, Marysville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Dunlop in the presence of a number of invited guests.

Kelly-Billings

On the evening of July 17th a quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wallace of Lower Hainesville when Maud Billings, a niece of Mrs. Wallace, was united in marriage to Ronald, son of Mr. Walter Kelly and the late Mrs. Kelly of Millville, by Rev. S. G. Hilyard. The single ring service was used. The couple were attended by Mr. Alva Wallace and Miss Dora Jones. The guests were of the immediate families. Following the ceremony refreshments were served.

We join in wishing the young couple a long and happy life. S. G. H.

LOVE IS NOT FOR GAIN

That love is not getting, but giving; not a wild dream of pleasure, and a madness of desire—oh, no, love is not that—it is goodness, and honor, and peace, and pure living—yes, love is that: and it is the best thing in the world, and the thing that lives longest.—Henry Van Dyke.

LOVE ABIDES

All emotions cease with their occasions. But it is not so with the state or fixed passion of love. It abides, stays with the man all day, wakes with him in the morning when he wakes, and he has even slept his sleep as a loving man. His heart is drawn by the magnetism of a divine polarity, settled thus to its pole of eternal aspiration, even as the needle itself. Thus when David says: "My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed," he describes the true reality of love without using the word. He means that he is settled by a divine love, which is the fixed passion of his nature.—Horace Bushnell.—Sel.
