

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. H. E. Mullen and the Church at Fort Fairfield began special meetings on Oct. 23rd to continue over Nov. 6th. Rev. F. A. Dunlop, of Marysville, is their evangelist.

The Moncton Church enjoyed a season of refreshing from the presence of the Lord recently under the ministry of Rev. G. R. Simonds, who was with us over two weeks. His messages were much enjoyed, and several souls were helped and many strengthened. Brother Symonds is a good preacher of the word.

Rev. G. A. DeLong, of North Head, and Rev. B. C. Cochrane, of Seal Cove, write that they are holding anniversary services for two or three weeks and are having Rev. W. E. Smith to assist them.

Rev. G. R. Symonds and Rev. H. S. Dow drove to Killam's Mills Sunday afternoon, Oct. 23rd, where Lic. A. D. Cann had arranged for Brother Symonds to preach, and Rev. H. S. Dow baptized one candidate in water. Several others expect to be baptized later. Brother Cann will speak in the Church at Moncton in the evening of Nov. 3rd and 4th. Rev. L. T. Sabine and the Woodstock Church are holding special anniversary services.

NOTICE

Did you look at the date on the label of the King's Highway? If you are paid up, the figures should be 39 now. We need your renewals, friends.

Rev. L. T. Sabine recently sent us some new subscribers and also some renewals for the King's Highway for which we are very thankful and we wish other pastors would do likewise. Thank you.—Editor.

NOTICE

The quarterly meeting of District No. 3 will convene with the Church at North Head, Grand Manan, Nov. 10-13 inc.

H. S. WILSON, Secy.

NOTICE

Any church of District No. 2 desiring the December Quarterly Meeting, will they please notify

MRS. PERLEY BRIGGS,
Head of Millstream Secretary

NOTICE

Any Church on District Number One wishing to have the next Quarterly Meeting will please correspond with the secretary at once. Let the date be decided by the church and notify the secretary,

MRS. H. C. MULLEN,
Hartland, N. B.

GENERAL MISSION FUND

Woodstock M. S.$5.45
Maple Ridge Church 3.00
Per I. M. Kierstead (N. W.)..... 5.00
Pledges—

Flora M. O. Brown.....20.00

RIVERSIDE WELL EXPENSES

Mrs. Maggie L. Turner..... 3.50
A friend 1.00

REV. L. T. SABINE

HOME MISSIONARY FUND

Miss Mary Campbell.....$5.00
P. J. TRAFTON, Treas.

PERSONALS

Brother and Sister Alex. Hayes, Head of Millstream, celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary on October 16th. Over a hundred friends and relatives met at their home that evening to offer congratulations and wishes for many more years of wedded life. They received many useful presents and a purse of money.

Brother and Sister Milton Steeves are making their home at Head of Millstream during the winter.

Sister Luella Hayes is spending the winter in Saint John.

The Editor of the King's Highway drove to Apohaqui on Tuesday, Oct. 25th, to see Mrs. Ida Patton, who was seriously ill at her home. We found her in a very critical condition, although the doctor said there was a chance for her recovery. She passed away at her home on Friday, Oct. 28th. Obituary will appear later.

Mrs. Solomon McFarlane is still quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Day, in Woodstock.

Edward Dow and wife, of Kirkland Lake, Ontario, are rejoicing over the arrival of a nice baby boy, Edward Walker, Jr., born Sept. 25th.

A CORRECTION AND AN APOLOGY TO THE APOSTLE PAUL

In the Oct. 15th issue of the King's Highway on Page 3, in an article entitled Plain Dressing, some of our readers might have noticed a very serious printer's error. It is serious I say because it makes the Apostle Paul say what he did not say in his letter to Timothy. In fact the article as it appears in print says just opposite to what Paul said. In the paragraph next to the last it reads: He states that women shall adorn themselves in modern apparel. This is no doubt the way that many would like to have it read. So we want to take this opportunity to inform such that Paul did not say modern apparel, but MODEST apparel, which is quite different from the modern apparel worn by many these days. When we get to heaven we will apologize to the Apostle Paul for allowing this serious error to appear in print—Editor.

MARRIED

Denton-Tatton

Donald Denton, of North Head, Grand Manan, and Isabell Tatton, of North Head, Grand Manan, were united in marriage on Wednesday evening, Oct. 12th, at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, North Head. Rev. G. A. DeLong was the officiating clergyman.

We wish them much happiness.

G. A. DeLONG

Richardson-Leckie

On Saturday evening, Oct. 1st, at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Miss Gertrude Leckie, of St. John, N. B., became the wife of Gladstone Richardson, of Castalia, Grand Manan.

Rev. G. A. DeLong performed the ceremony. The single ring service was used.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will reside at Castalia, Grand Manan.

We join with their many friends in wishing them much happiness.

G. A. DeLONG

A stern discipline pervades all nature which is a little cruel that it may be very kind.—Spenser.

OBITUARY

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. David MacDonald

The death of Mrs. David MacDonald occurred at Amherst, N. S., on Oct. 10th, after an illness of some months. The deceased is survived by two sons, Walter and John, and two daughters, Hazel and Esther, all of Amherst, one sister, Mrs. C. F. Millbury, Spencer's Island, N. S., and one brother, Mr. William Whelpley, North Head, Grand Manan.

Mrs. MacDonald was born at North Head, Grand Manan, and was a resident of the Island for many years before moving to Amherst. Her body was brought to Seal Cove for burial, and the funeral service was held in the R. B. Church, being conducted by Rev. E. H. Tupper, of Durham, Me., assisted by Rev. B. C. Cochrane and members of the church choir.

May the comfort of Spirit attend those who mourn.

Mrs. Thomas Martin

Our church at Salem has recently sustained a great loss in the passing of Mrs. Thomas Martin, who died in the hospital at Moncton, Oct. 21st following a serious surgical operation. The funeral services were held from the Baptist Church at Havelock, N. B., where our sister used to live, R. T. Sellick, of Oxford, N. S., officiated, assisted by Lic. A. D. Cann, of Killam's Mills.

Besides her husband, Sister Martin is survived by several other near relatives, whose names we did not learn, and also very many friends. She was a very generous, hospitable, kind hearted woman, and will be greatly missed, as every good Christian woman is.

To the sorrowing relatives and friends the King's Highway extends sincere sympathy.

EDITOR

Mrs. Susan Saunders

The funeral of the late Mrs. Susan Saunders, who passed away on Oct. 7th, was held from her late home at Marysville on Sunday afternoon.

The service was conducted by Rev. W. K. Pace, assisted by Rev. W. S. Smith and Rev. F. A. Dunlop.

The deceased leaves to mourn her passing, three daughters and two sons.

F. A. D.

THE JOY OF SALVATION

O happy day that fixed my choice
On Thee, my Savior and my God!
Well may this glowing heart rejoice
And tell its raptures all abroad.

'Tis done, the great transaction's done!
I am my Lord's and He is mine;
He drew me and I followed on,
Charmed to confess the voice divine.

Now rest, my long-divided heart,
Fixed on this blissful center, rest;
Nor ever from thy Lord depart,
With Him of every good possessed.

High heaven that heard my solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear;
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

—Philip Doddridge.

A sound discretion is not so much indicated by never making a mistake as by never repeating it.—Bovee.