

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

A letter from our outgoing missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. M. Keirstead, states that they expect to sail for Africa the last of January, and if any churches or persons have any boxes to send they should send them to our missionaries at Sandford, N.S., before Jan. 15 or they should be packed ready to ship and sent to Saint John.

The Saint John church are celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of their organization on Friday, Dec. 30. Rev. E. W. Smith of Somerville, Mass., will be the chief speaker at this service, and will assist the pastor, Rev. H. S. Mullen, in evangelistic services for a few weeks following.

The pastors of our various churches held appropriate Christmas services with inspiring music last Sunday. The Moncton church was no exception. Our evening service was under the auspices of our Young People's Society. The president, Brother Harold Mitton, gave a short talk and the service continued with songs and testimony. The pastor of Moncton church had the privilege of worshipping with our church at Saint John in the evening and greatly enjoyed the service, especially the good Christmas music.

Rev. H. S. Dow and Mrs. Dow and daughter Grace took Christmas dinner with another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Armstrong, of Fredericton.

Our brethren of the ministry and their families were all very kindly remembered by their congregations with many practical gifts at Christmas time.

The editor of the King's Highway and Mrs. Dow want to thank their many friends from far and near who were so thoughtful in remembering them at Christmas with gifts, and so many beautiful cards.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Claude Cronkhite	$3.25
Mrs. Alberta Ryder50
Harold E. Mann50
Mrs. T. W. Whitten.....	.50
Mrs. Walter M. Steeves.....	.50

We appreciate very much these gifts to this fund as well as the goodly number of renewals received. Rev. G. A. Rogers of Port Maitland, N.S., sent us in quite a number of renewals. For all this we say thank you. EDITOR

Mark Twain did not believe in long sermons. He was present at a charity service conducted by a most eloquent preacher. The appeal for funds went to everybody's heart. Mark himself was so moved that he itched for the plate to come round in order that he might give the $400 he had in his pocket. But the preacher went on and on, the air grew hotter, he grew sleepier, and his enthusiasm went down $100 at a time, till at last, when the plate reached him, he stole ten cents out of it.

Note—A good sister sent in the above clipping and requested we print it in the Highway. She said it might be good for some of our preachers to read. EDITOR

"TRUTH NEVER DIES"

Truth never dies,
The ages come and go;
The mountains wear away;
The seas retire;
Destruction lays earth's mighty cities low;
And empires, states and dynasties expire;
But caught and handed onward by the wise,
Truth never dies.—Anon.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Brother Dow: Milltown, Maine.

As I read through the last two issues of the Highway I was very glad to find selections written by our own brethren. It seems nice to read selections written by our own people. We as young people would be very glad to read many more of these. We hope more of our people will write some of their experiences, it would be very helpful to us.

Please let us see more of these on the pages of our paper.

Yours in His service,
MARGUERITE WILSON

Dear Highway:

We wish to acknowledge, through your columns, the kindness and good will of the many friends, far and near, who remembered us with greeting cards and gifts at the Christmas season. We appreciate their kindness more than words can express, and we pray God's blessing upon them one and all. Also at our Sunday School and Missionary exercises held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 28, we were presented with a gift of money by the church. This coming so soon after our 40th anniversary celebration, was indeed a pleasing surprise to us. We did try to express our appreciation. We feel in the coming year that we want to be and do more for our blessed Lord than ever before. How wonderful have been the blessings bestowed upon us unworthy servants. God has been gracious, merciful and kind; we are enjoying health of body, mind and soul, but we do want to "grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

MR. and MRS. P. J. TRAFTON

Gordonsville, N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed $1.50 in postal note for my renewal to the King's Highway as I enjoy reading it very much and may you have a Very Happy New Year.

MRS. JOHN CAMPBELL

The Grey's Mills Sunday School held their Christmas concert and entertainment on Thursday evening, December 22nd, in the Baptist Church at Grey's Mills. The concert consisted of 24 parts of recitations, duets and Christmas hymns by the scholars of the Junior and Primary classes assisted by the older members of the school. Miss Doris Chalmers and Miss Ruth Vanwart, teachers of the Junior and Primary Classes, deserve much credit for the very efficient manner the children were trained. Prizes were presented by the Superintendent for good attendance and efficiency, also gifts for all the scholars. Rev. Peter Jackson, pastor of the United Church, being present, also gave a short address. The Grey's Mills Sunday School is evergreen. The church was beautifully greened with evergreen trimmings.
