

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Bro. W. E. Smith was with us at Millville from October 9-23 in special meetings. Our brother preached faithfully a full salvation gospel. God owned and blessed the Word to the strengthening of His people, and a number of souls were saved.

Lic. A. D. Cann and the church at Killam's Mills begin special meetings Nov. 15 with Rev. G. A. Rogers, B.A., of Port Maitland, as evangelist. Bro. Cann and Rev. H. S. Mullen, fo Saint John, exchanged pulpits Sunday, Nov. 13th.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and the Fredericton church are holding special meetings with R. T. Sellick, of Oxford, N.S., as evangelist.

Several of our churches held special anniversary services from Nov. 3rd over the following Sunday in celebration of the organization of our church fifty years ago. See some reports in this issue.

The work in the Moncton church is encouraging. We had a baptism at the close of the evening service last Sunday.

A letter just came from Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Fredericton, with a very encouraging report of his meetings. He says the attendance is good and many are seeking salvation.

It is a popular error to suppose the loudest complainers for the public to be the most anxious for its welfare.—Burke.

DONATIONS RECEIVED

A donation was given us by the people of Lower Millstream on Oct. 22 when a number of friends from the community gathered for the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Jewett. Refreshments were served by the ladies and the pastor was presented with a purse of money, also vegetables and produce.

We would like to again express our appreciation of these generous gifts, and the thoughtfulness of these kind people.

50TH ANNIVERSARY SERVICES IN SAINT JOHN CHURCH

The special services held in the Saint John Church commemorating the 50th anniversary of the organization of the Reformed Baptist Denomination were conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. S. Mullen with Rev. H. C. Archer as the special speaker. On Thursday evening, using as his text, "Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God hath led thee," the speaker gave an interesting account of the history of the denomination, and stressing the importance of a greater advancement within the next 50 years, he urged the young people to stand true to the "faith of their fathers."

The regular monthly missionary meeting was held Friday evening, presided over by Mrs. A. L. Bubar, who was recording secretary of the General Mission Society at its organization in 1888. After a brief session, Rev. H. C. Archer gave an appropriate missionary address.

A Holiness message was heard Sunday morning from the text, "Holiness becometh Thine house, O Lord, forever," after which the Ordinance of the Lord's Supper was administered. In the evening service Brother Archer preached on "Entire Consecration." The Misses Helen and Alice Sterritt, pastors of the Grey's Mills church, also took part in the service.

The special selections, throughout the services, were rendered by the choir of the church.

The services were well attended and proved to be a source of blessing to all.

MARRIED

Churchill—Blades

The R. B. parsonage, Port Maitland, N.S., was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Wednesday evening, October 26, when Alden M. Churchill, son of Mr. Clayton Churchill, and the late Mrs. Churchill, and Miss Dorothy Belle Blades, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Blades, Vilagedale, N.S., were united in marriage. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sollows, Jr. The single ring ceremony was used. The pastor, Rev. G. A. Rogers, performed the ceremony in the company of a few relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Churchill will reside in Port Maitland, N.S. They have a host of friends who wish them a long and happy life.

A wedding of interest to friends in Woodstock and Debec, N.B., took place when at the home of Mrs. W. B. McLeod, Woodstock, Rev. L. T. Sabine united in marriage Miss Helen Appleby and John Dickinson, Nov. 2nd. Immediate friends only were in attendance.

THAT HATEFUL LETTER

What a fearful letter that was which came to the hand of Hezekiah! It breathed hate and threat; even impending disaster. This king was not always wise, but this time he showed the master strategy. He "spread the letter before the Lord." Thus his appeal was to one who was greater than Sennacherib. And his Lord did not fail.

There is a story of a little boy who when he could not get satisfactory answers to all his questions said to his mother, "I wish that I could have five minutes with God." The good part is that not only he but the rest of us may each have the five minutes, and much more, with God.

He may not satisfy all our curiosity or answer all our questions as we would like, but as surely as He met the great need of Hezekiah He will meet our smaller needs and help us in the solution of our smaller problems. Have you "spread the letter before the Lord?" Why not?—Free Methodist.

THE COMPANY THEY KEEP

A newspaper report of August 8 reads:

"The Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention here today said motion pictures were 'probably the most powerful medium in putting the cigarette between the lips' of American women.

"The speaker was Miss Maude Aldrich, of Gresham, Oregon, national motion picture department director for the W. C. T. U.

"She said further, that films were responsible for 'dulling the perception of many as to the unwomanliness and menace in the use of alcohol; in creating standards of dress and conduct which completely ignore the sacredness of person, and in spreading the cheap, compromising ideas of love, marriage and home life so prevalent today.'"

Miss Aldrich is right in suggesting the alliance between the picture show the cigarette, liquor, immodest attire, immoral conduct and divorce. She might go on to say that thousands of movie houses are promoting the great gambling racket sometimes called "bank night." Professed Christians and decent people in these places gamble night after night for stakes ranging from fifty to thousands of dollars.

The movie and the New Deal saloon are the twin gates of hell.—Free Methodist.
