

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The Moncton Church is looking forward to a gracious meeting at the Young People's Convention held here Oct. 6 to 10. We are expecting several preachers and a large delegation of young and old. All are welcome. We expect, the Lord willing, to continue special evangelistic services following the convention for a few weeks.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Fredericton, writes very encouragingly of his work in Fredericton. The young people had charge of the service one Sunday night recently and the attendance was especially good all day. We say, praise the Lord.

Our out-going missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Keirstead, visited the churches on Hartland circuit recently and were at Woodstock on Sunday, Sept. 25th. We hear that their missionary talks were much appreciated by good congregations.

Rev. P. W. Briggs and Mrs. Briggs, of Millstream, were recent callers on the Editor of the King's Highway at Moncton, N. B.

A CORRECTION

In the Sept. 15th issue of the Highway, reporting missionary money, two errors appear: Mr. and Mrs. M. Mullen should read $15.00 (N. W.) instead of $5.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Trefry should read $5.00 instead of $3.00 for passage fund.

THINGS WORTH WHILE

Not whence you came, but whither bound;
Not what you say, but how you live;
Giving the world the love it needs,
Living the life of noble deeds.—Sel.

PERSONALS

Mrs. F. D. Foley, of St. John, spent the week-end, Sept. 23-25, with Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton in Fredericton.

Mrs. P. J. Trafton and Miss Emma Trafton, of Fredericton, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Foley Saint John. While in the city, Miss Trafton attended the Annual Convention of the New Brunswick Association of Registered Nurses.

Miss Grace Lawlor, of Saint John, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Otty Keith at their home in Westfield recently.

We had a nice letter from Mrs. P. Mac Mullen, one of our faithful members of Hartland church, recently. She is praising the Lord for His wonderful care and salvation.

Brother F. H. Lock, of Amherst, N. S., visited his daughter and family, Mrs. Harold Freeze, at Moncton over last week-end, and attended church on Sunday.

Mrs. S. A. Baker plans to make her home with Mrs. C. P. Phillips at Woodstock this winter. We will miss her from the church in Moncton; but we are thankful that she has a nice comfortable place to live with Sister Phillips.

Brother T. W. Whitten, of Woodstock, N. B., is still confined to his bed through weakness, though his general health is about the same. Sister Whitten is better so she is able to get out and go quite long distances to see friends by auto.

MARRIED

Saunders-Boulter

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, 233 Aberdeen St., Fredericton, N. B., Saturday evening, Sept. 17th, Jessie Juanita Boulter and David Osborne Saunders, both of Peniac, N. B., were united in marriage by Rev. P. J. Trafton.

EVIDENCE OF CHRISTIANITY

Dr. Simpson used to tell of a scholarly minister who once gave a course of lectures on "The Evidences of Christianity" for the special purpose of convincing and converting a wealthy and influential sceptic in his congregation. The gentleman attended his lectures and was converted. A few days later the minister ventured to ask him which of the lectures it was that impressed him decisively.

"The lectures!" answered the gentleman. "My dear sir, I do not even remember the subjects of your lectures, and I cannot say that they had any decisive influence upon my mind. I was converted by the testimony of a dear old colored woman who attended those services. As she hobbled up those steps close to me, with her glad face as bright as heaven, she used to say, 'My blessed Jesus! My blessed Jesus!' and turning to me, would ask, 'Do you love my blessed Jesus?' That, sir, was my evidence of Christianity."

A shining face and a radiant spirit are worth a ton of logic, rhetoric, and elocution.—Selected.

"I have no hesitation in saying," says Prof. C. A. Chan, professor of Astro-Physics at Toronto University, "that at least ninety per cent of astronomers have reached the conclusion that the universe is not the result of any blind law, but is regulated by a great Intelligence."—Sel.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Friends:

In the August 31st issue an appeal was made by the committee in charge of the new well proposition at Riverside Camp Ground, for funds, asking that as many as possible send in $3.50 as the price of total cost of the new well. To date we have a gift of about $50.00, and $3.50 from one as the price of one foot. We are anxious to have this financial obligation cleared up as soon as possible.

Won't you buy at least one foot? Those who visit the Camp know of the value of good water there for drinking and other necessary purposes.

We have done our best. Won't you try to do yours

Arrange to send us what you can, please. Any amount will be gratefully received.

Thank you!

Black's Harbour

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find my renewal for the King's Highway. I would not want to do without it. It has blessed my soul so many times.

I am still trusting to Jesus and find Him a friend that is ever near.

Yours in Jesus,
JULIA MULLEN

Beals, Maine.

Dear Bro. Dow:

Please find enclosed my renewal for "The King's Highway" which I enjoy very much.

I love to read the letters from our missionaries. Some way they seem like letters to me, and often I read them several times. I am so thankful for the "Faith of our Fathers" and for full salvation. Jesus is very precious to me. I thank Him for His keeping power.

Yours for Holiness,
MRS. ESTEN L. BEAL,

Millinocket, Me.

Dear Brother Dow:

Am sending you $2.00 renewal for the Highway. Don't think I could do without it as it seems like a letter from home. I do love to read it and wish many friends would write to it.

May the Lord bless you and the paper. This leaves us all well. With Christian love to all its readers.

A. B. CRAIG

SIMPLICITY

Simplicity, in truth, is less dependent upon external things than we imagine. It can live in broadcloth or homespun; it can eat white bread or black. It is not outward, but inward. A certain openness of mind to learn the daily lessons of the school of life; a certain willingness of heart to give and to receive that extra service, that gift beyond the strict measure of debt which makes friendship possible; a certain clearness of spirit to perceive the best in things and people, to love it without fear and to cleave to it without mistrust; a peaceable sureness of affection and taste; a gentle straightforwardness of action; a kind sincerity of speech—these are the marks of the simple life, which cometh not with observation, for it is within you.—Henry Van Dyke.
