

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop of Marysville writes that they are enjoying the blessing of the Lord on their services there.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and Rev. H. C. Mullen write that their work at Fredericton and Hartland is going steadily on under the blessing of the Lord.

We hear that the work at Moncton is encouraging. The pastor, Rev. H. M. Kimball, is preaching good sermons and some souls are being saved.

Lic. Alice Sterritt of Greys Mills writes that their work is encouraging and that they are praying for a revival.

Rev. G. A. Rogers expects to begin special meetings at Port Maitland Dec. 31st. He will be assisted by Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Cochrane of Seal Cove, N. B. Brother Rogers writes that his services at Sandford and Port Maitland are seasons of blessing, also having good young people's meetings.

Rev. H. S. Dow is assisting Rev. G. R. Symonds and the church at Wood's Harbor, N. S., in special meetings. The attendance and interest are good with much conviction on the people.

MARRIED

Crawford-Savage

A pretty but quiet wedding took place in the Reformed Baptist Church, Fredericton, N. B., Saturday evening, Nov. 25th, when Rev. P. J. Trafton, assisted by Major C. A. Kimmins, S. A., united in marriage Pauline Lena, youngest daughter of Mrs. Grace H. and the late C. Temple Savage, Fredericton, and John Winslow Howard, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Crawford, Doak Settlement, N. B. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of a wedding march rendered by Miss Lois Goodspeed. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John E. Hodgson, and the groom by his brother, Willard Crawford. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Douglas A. Savage. There was a large company present to witness the ceremony, after which the bridal party left by auto for Doak Settlement, the home of the groom, where a buffet lunch was enjoyed by the immediate families of the bride and groom. The happy couple have many friends who wish them much future happiness.

Dear Highway:

We wish through your columns to extend to all readers of The King's Highway, a Very Joyous Christmas and a Happy New Year. The Lord bless you, one and all, and be gracious unto you and give you peace.

P. J. AND MRS. TRAFTON

A DAY AT A TIME

A doctor was once asked by a patient who had met with a serious accident, "Doctor, how long shall I have to lie here?"

The answer, "Only a day at a time," taught the patient a precious lesson.

It was the same lesson God had recorded for His people of all ages, long before: The day's portion in its day. Faithful for one short day, long years take care of themselves.—Andrew Murray.

PERSONALS

"He whom thou lovest is sick." May the Lord bless them all.

We just received a letter from Mrs. Amanda Boyer, of Vancouver, B. C. She writes that Mrs. F. H. Hale, of the same place, met with a very serious accident on Nov. 29th. Mrs. Hale is very hard of hearing, and although she is in the 90th year of her age, she has been still going out to church services. She was on her way to prayer meeting that evening and was struck by a car which knocked her down, broke her leg, cut her head, and bruised her badly, and she is in a serious condition. Sister Boyer is quite well and says she would like to see her friends in N. B. again. She is praising the Lord for His great salvation and wonderful care.

We were glad to receive an interesting letter from Brother Allen Ward, of Vancouver, B. C., recently. He sent us some good clippings of articles which he had read, for the King's Highway.

A letter from Mrs. C. P. Phillips, of Woodstock, says, she is finding God's Grace sufficient to keep her in victory in spite of times of testings and loneliness. She writes that Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Whitten, who have been in quite poor health recently, are better again, and were able to have several friends of the church there invited into their home, to celebrate their wedding anniversary, and also Sister Phillips' birthday anniversary on Nov. 25th. She also enjoyed a short visit from Mrs. I. M. Kierstead lately. Sister Kierstead, who has been visiting friends and relatives in York and Carleton Counties since she left Beulah, has again returned to her home with her son, Karl, and his wife at St. Andrews, for the winter.

We also had a letter from a good friend of former years, Brother Wm. Jones, who used to live at Gordonsville. He now lives at Shelton, Conn. He thanks the dear Lord for his sustaining grace at all times.

We received an interesting letter from Mrs. S. A. Baker, of Woodstock, recently. She writes that she is quite well, but not able to go out much this winter. Our sister still retains her interest in the Lord's work, and prays for us all. She is also much exercised, as we all ought to be over the liquor situation at the present time. It has been reported on good authority that the government liquor stores are doing a thriving business in the towns where the soldier boys are training. It is reported that in the small town of Woodstock, the day after the soldiers were paid that one store took in over one thousand dollars. We are all praying no doubt for the success of our own empire in this war and for the peace of the world; but some of us are wondering how long a just God is going to tolerate this terrible destructive business of taking the grain which ought to be used for food to save the under-nourished children and hungry people everywhere, and making it into intoxicating drink which robs the innocent children of food, clothing, homes, and sober parents, and everything that is necessary to their comfort and welfare. Our governments take boys who are scarcely out of their teens, away from their homes in quiet country places and put them in the towns to train, give them small pay, then take it back from them again for strong drink, which will curse them in body and soul. I say, notwithstanding—

L. T. SABINE,
Woodstock, N. B.,

Treasurer

Friends, interested in the mission work, and who have pledged to its support:

We thank all who have so kindly sent in all or part of their pledges to our foreign work. We have almost no funds for the next quarterly salaries to be sent by the middle of February. We will need at least $800.00. Will all endeavor to send in as much as you can that our faithful missionaries may receive their small salary remittance. Thank you.—L. T. S.

COMMUNION WITH GOD

A man was at work at the top of a telegraph pole at a very busy and noisy street corner. From time to time his mate below sent up in a little carrier just the very article he needed. The two worked together in such complete harmony that the attention of passers-by was attracted. What was the secret understanding between the two? It was soon noticed that the man on the pavement had a little telephone receiver clamped to his ear. He was in constant communication with the one who was doing the work.

"It is God that worketh." Yet He needs us. We are only effective "fellow-workers" with Him if we are ever listening to His voice. We must be "in tune" or we shall not hear.—Selected.
