

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. W. E. Smith says he can assist any of our brethren in special services after Riverside Camp-Meeting if any are in need of an evangelist.

Rev. Geo. DeLong, of North Head, N. B., preached at Fredericton Sunday evening, July 16th. Rev. P. J. Trafton preached at Marysville in the absence of the pastor, Rev. F. A. Dunlop.

Rev. W. E. Smith, who is to be our evangelist at Riverside this year, writes that he has been busy pushing the battle in the Lord's work ever since he went home from Beulah. He preached on Boston Common Sunday afternoon, July 23rd, and in the Nazarene Church in Somerville in the evening.

Rev. H. L. Robertson preached in Moncton Church morning and evening, July 16th, and Rev. H. M. Kimball preached there on July 23rd, at both services and at Lutes Mountain Church in the afternoon. The people enjoyed their messages.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane writes that the church at Seal Cove will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their organization with special meetings from Aug. 9th to 13th. Some of our brethren of the ministry will be with Brother Cochrane and the Church to assist in the preaching.

The Church at Moncton has given Rev. H. M. Kimball an unanimous call to be their pastor. Brother Kimball has accepted and will move to Moncton in the near future.

Rev. H. S. Dow baptized two young women in water at Lutes Mountain on Sunday afternoon, July 30th, and received four into membership of the Moncton Church at the evening service.

The End of the Road.—Under this head the Evangelical Christian mentions the death of Samuel Insull. This man was reputed at one time to be in control of property worth $3,000,000,000. He died in a subway in Paris, France, with twenty cents in his pocket.—The Holiness Era.

It is reported that the Los Angeles Ministerial Association made an investigation to find out how many kinds of religion there were in the city. They found, among other things, that there were twenty pagan societies holding regular meetings in and about the city.—World Religious News.

PERSONALS

We are glad to hear that Mrs. S. A. Baker is feeling better than when she went to Beulah. She is able to walk out a little.

Mrs. A. K. MacCallum and son, Grant, spent a week at Beulah recently while A. K. MacCallum was away on his vacation to Buffalo, N. Y., to visit his brother.

Alfred Trafton and family, of Pontiac, Mich., who have been home recently to visit his parents, Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton at Fredericton, returned last Tuesday to their home, taking Misses Emma and Marguerite, his sisters, with them.

Mrs. Ida M. Keirstead was called to Millville last week on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Estey.

OBITUARY

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.—Revelation 14-13.

Mr. David Phillips

On Tuesday, July 17th, at the age of 77, Mr. David Phillips passed peacefully away at the home of his only son, Durrell, at Upper Woodstock.

The greater part of his life was spent at Green Bush, York Co., N. B., but sold his home there about twenty years ago. Mrs. Phillips deceased shortly after going to Upper Woodstock.

Left to remember a kind father, brother, a good neighbor and friend, are one son, one brother, Wendall, of Greenbush, three grandchildren, and all who knew him. Mr. Phillips was modest and possessed a good spirit and was held in high esteem by the Woodstock R. B. Church.

It was the writer's privilege to know the deceased for over thirty years, and remembrance of the kindness and hospitality of him and his companion in their home at Greenbush will ever be cherished by the many who shared their generosity.

The funeral held at the home on Thursday was largely attended. Assisting were Revs. E. R. Watson, S. A. Mullen and H. E. Allaby (U. B.)

Interment was made in the family lot at Middle Southampton. "Not lost, just gone before." L. T. S.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cox

The many friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Cox, widow of the late C. Nathan Cox, were saddened to learn of her death which took place on Wednesday, July 5th, at her home in Hartland. Her husband passed away Sept. 23rd 1938. Mrs. Cox was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church at Victoria.

Surviving are eight daughters and one son, Kenneth, at home. Seven of the eight surviving daughters were present at the funeral which took place in Hartland on Friday p. m., July 7th. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. C. Mullen, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church. Interment was made in the Greenwood Cemetery, Hartland.

CORRESPONDENCE

Westborough, Mass.

Dear Brother Dow:

Thinking of Riverside reminds me my "Highway" subscription is due. Of all my magazines I should miss that if it failed to come on time. Enclosed is check for the past year, also for the year to come.

I had hoped to be at Riverside this year but conditions seem to make my Maine trip best for later in the year. I am always thankful I was lead to the little Belvidere Church and to Riverside the summer of '31.

Since leaving school two years ago and coming here to live, I have my time filled with Sunday School and church work, beside the town Woman's Civic Club and Natural Science talks to schools and Junior Grange.

While I shall not be at Riverside you will have my best wishes and prayers for a glorious week and I shall be there in spirit if not in person.

Sincerely,
CORA D. E. ROBINSON
