

many unite with Nazism, and in fact even now seems in the beginning of this procedure. Again I say we are in a day of world trouble, and as followers of the King of kings, servants of the Most High God, there are two things that we should see to: First, that we are prepared as a member of the Bride of Christ, ready for the Rapture, and secondly, that we are being used to oppose ungodliness and help to win souls from the great octopus of sin. Let us pray, and let us increase in the vitality of our life in God.

To the Readers of the Highway:

Just a brief overdue report from this part of God's vineyard.

On two different occasions since Beulah the members of the church have met and given us nice donations, including a nice remembrance quilt. We are grateful to them for their thoughtfulness and kindness and pray God to richly bless them in all things.

Then on Sept. 12th we began special meetings in the Crawford church continuing until the 24th. Rev. F. A. Anderson was our evangelist. He proved himself to be a true man of God and brought us some wonderful truths from the good old Book. Our church was edified, souls were saved and believers sanctified. To God be all the glory.

On Oct. 11th we began special meetings in Wesley with the Rev. H. S. Mullen as special worker. Again we were privileged to listen to good sound preaching backed up by the word of God.

These meetings closed Oct. 22nd. As usual we did not see as much accomplished as we would have liked to have seen, but souls were definitely helped, and we trust that the seed sown shall yet bring forth fruit.

Yours in His service,

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed find renewal for Highway. We as a family are well and God is blessing and helping us greatly. Glenna's husband is assistant pastor of a Church of the Nazarene at Washington, D.C., and they are living there. Reta and Hazel are in Wollaston, Mass.

There is much sickness here. Mr. Leslie Hayes is confined to his home with heart trouble, also Fred Hayes and John James Hayes are not able to be out of bed. Fred has heart trouble and J. J., rheumatism and other troubles. Miss Vilas Hayes is still confined with T.B. Miss Luella Hayes is spending the winter in Saint John.

Trust you are well.

Yours in His name,

P. W. BRIGGS

Dear Highway:

We feel a few lines from this section would be in order at this time. God has been very gracious to us in supplying our needs, and giving us some encouragement in the work. We began special services on October the 10th. Rev. J. W. Turpel, of Lisbon Falls, Maine, was our evangelist. He continued with us to Nov. 2nd inclusive. Our brother gave himself wholeheartedly to the work, preaching and singing in the power of the spirit of God. He was clear in his declaration of Bible truths and raised the standard of full salvation, fearlessly and convincingly. He showed from the word of God clearly, justification for the sinner, sanctification (entire) for the believer as a necessary preparation for the coming of the Lord and efficiency in service for him. The attendance was good throughout the entire meeting, and all that attended seemed to appreciate the ministry of our brother. It was a hard battle, but the Lord gave us some victory in spite of opposing forces. There were times it seemed we might have a real smash-up but folk failed to walk in the light of conviction and truth. We did not see all accomplished that we hoped for, but there were a number reclaimed, some converted, one professed sanctification and numbers were strengthened in their Christian experience. We had the privilege of entertaining our Bro. Turpel at the parsonage and our fellowship was sweet. He was a man of fervent prayer, student of the word of God and strong in faith. We say praise the Lord. We expect to keep on the old time line by the help of God. Keep on praying.

Yours for true holiness,

P. J. TRAFTON

Dear Brother Dow:

May I take the opportunity of expressing my thanks, through the Highway, to the people of the R. B. Church at Moncton, for their kindness to me while in the hospital at that place.

When I learned that I had to go to the hospital I sort of dreaded going amongst strangers and wished that I might go to Woodstock (near home), but was unable to go that far.

The Lord was with me. It was a fine hospital, with kind nurses and doctors where I received the best of care.

My first visitor was Rev. Mr. Dow.

I appreciated his thought in telling many of the church members that I was in the hospital.

Many of them called on me, bringing me reading matter (religious papers), newspapers, fruit, etc. Rev. Mr. Kimball called too. The prayers of these ministers brought a blessing and comfort.

I received many nice cards from the friends of Salem Church for which I thank them for their kind thought.

I was able to take up my work again on Oct. 16th.

Yours truly,

ANNIE K. ROGERS

Dear Bro. Dow:

I wish to report our church work here at Marysville. We have recently held a meeting with Bro. Gordon Symonds as evangelist. His clear, clean-cut, preaching meant much to us. The man himself—his spirit and manner—makes one appreciate what the saving and sanctifying grace of God can do for men. The whole church was revived and strengthened. Some sought the blessing of holiness and a few defeated hearts got back to their Lord. The faithful ministries of the Holy Spirit were very evident throughout the entire meeting. Conviction rested heavily on the hearts of many whose spiritual standing with God is everything else but good, yet they persisted in "rejecting the counsel of God against themselves." The devil is working with great power. He is a past master in the art of deceiving. During this past year I have been astonished at his ability to entrap the souls of men. He plays his game well, and wisely, and when he "cashes in" there is but little left to salvage. However we face the future with the assurance that God is able.

An added feature of our meetings was the singing of Brother Deverne Mullen. His choice of material, and ability to sing the same, makes him one of the finest soloists I have heard. This man should be kept busy singing the gospel. He will pay for himself in any meeting. Surely we need such a man in our revival work. I cannot speak too highly of the special workers God permitted us to have for our services. May they live long to bless others. Personally, we have many reasons for grateful praise to God. The kindness and loyalty of our people here make those who serve in our capacity feel everlastingly indebted to them. The town people, one and all, have shown us every courtesy. We pray God may ever keep us worthy of their trust and confidence.

In the personal letters of late, printed in the Highway, we have been noticing with satisfaction requests for more information from our mission work in Africa. Doubtless we will be hearing more in the future from this branch of our work.

Wishing the Highway readers every success and happiness, we are,

Yours in the Master's service,

REV. and MRS. F. A. DUNLOP

"THE LORD IS AT HAND"

I do not know how it may be with others, but I feel that when I can say that the coming of the Lord draweth near I have a weapon in my hand of no common edge and temper.

I can go to the struggling saint, against whom the battle seems to go hard, and say, "Faint not, the Lord is at hand, and He will bruise Satan under your feet shortly." To the saint, wearied with a vexing world, fretted with its vanities, and troubled with the thickening darkness of its midnight, I can say, "Be of good cheer; the Lord is at hand; but a little while, and the world shall cease to vex; sooner than you think, the morn will break." To the suffering saint, I can say, "Weep not, the Lord is at hand; the torn heart shall be bound up, and the bitterness of bereavement forgotten in the joy of union forever." To the flagging saint, heavy and slothful in his walk, I can say, "Up, for the Lord is at hand; work while it is day; look at a dying world, all unready for its Judge; cast off your selfishness and love of ease." To the covetous saint I can say, "The Lord is coming. This is no time for hoarding now. Heap not up treasure for the last days."—Horatius Bonar.
