

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. Hollis Kimball, of Black's Harbor, writes. The work is going good here, and we are having quite a revival. The battle has been hard but God has broken through in answer to prayer. Brother Kimball sent us six new subscribers to the King's Highway and several dollars for the Supplementary Fund, for which we are very thankful. Let other pastors do likewise. Brother Kimball expects to have a baptism soon and to receive several into church membership.

Rev. S. A. Mullen, of Island Falls, Me., has received a unanimous call to remain as their pastor, but has declined the invitation, and is open for a call to become pastor wherever the Lord leads.

Rev. H. S. Mullen, of Saint John, has had a call to Black's Harbor and has the matter under consideration. He and Rev. J. A. Owens and Rev. H. S. Dow attended the quarterly meeting at Amherst, N. S. It was a good meeting. The report will appear later.

Rev. H. S. Dow has received a call to remain pastor of the Church at Moncton, N. B., for the seventh year, but has declined, and tendered his final resignation to take effect the last of June.

Rev. H. C. Mullen is continuing special meetings at Lower Brighton following the quarterly meeting. Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Woodstock, is assisting him.

Rev. L. T. Sabine has accepted a call from the Church at Woodstock to remain with them another year.

PERSONALS

Many of our people are still confined to their homes and beds because of sickness and colds. Deacon A. G. Good, of Moncton, is still very weak although they think he is improving slowly. We are sorry to hear that our good brother, Deacon B. W. Brown, of Lower Brighton, is also quite ill.

We see by the Fort Fairfield Review that Rev. H. E. Mullen's wife and children have had the "flu" also, and Rev. H. M. Kimball writes that his family and several of his church members have likewise been afflicted, but we are thankful that they are all improving.

Please look at the date on your Highway. See if it reads 39 or 40. If not, send in your renewal today. Friends, we have no other source of income besides your renewals and free will offerings. Will you not help us by paying up your arrears at once.

NOTICE

The Sunday School Convention for District No. 2, which was to have been held at Amherst with the Quarterly Meeting of March 23-26, was postponed on account of the inaccessibility of the roads and sickness in some of our schools. The next convention will convene with the June Quarterly Meeting. Everybody please cooperate in making this convention a success.

GRACE K. LAWLOR,
Secretary.

APPRECIATION

It is with much pleasure that we express our great appreciation of the way the appeal for funds, for our foreign missionary enterprise, was responded to by the lovers of that great and prosperous work.

The people who answered the call included those from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and many who are not members of our denomination, but who have become acquainted with our work through the "Highway", attendance at our Camp Meetings and otherwise.

To all we say, THANK YOU FRIENDS.

We are sure that all contributors will not feel themselves any the poorer by so doing, but richer in that they have made a real investment in something that will reveal its worth in eternity and the salvation of souls.

Think of it, money can be instrumental in the redemption of the lost.

This great mission is not the work of the officers of the society but YOURS, MINE—EVERYBODY'S; and yet as those in charge it is wonderfully pleasing to us, and a great load is lifted when by your cooperation of faith, prayer, and offerings, we have sufficient to meet our financial obligations.

The Kierstead family is well on their way across the Atlantic, and you have helped to send them.

We shall appreciate your continued support to sustain this valuable work in South Africa.

May God bless our faithful and devoted missionaries and the consecrated native workers. May He bless the faithful and consecrated supporters, and some day reward all for sacrifice and service.

Yours for souls,

L. T. SABINE, Treasurer.

AT JESUS' FEET

Verena V. Johnson, '22

I want to sit at Jesus' feet a while,
And rest my soul in His beloved smile;
I'm weary of the rush and roar of life—
The clamor of the world's endless strife.

I want to tarry till I hear Him say—
"I'll give thee strength sufficient for thy day,"
Until His voice speaks to me, sweet and clear—
"Rest, weary child—you know that I am here!"

I want to bare the secrets of my heart—
The hidden longings of myself a part;
The burdens that no other one can share—
I want to tell Him, for I know He'll care.

I want to listen while He whispers low:
"Child, I love thee—Oh, I love thee so!"
Until the radiance of this blessed love
Lifts my poor soul far up to realms above.

I want to tell Him that I love Him, too,
And long to do what He would have me do—
To live for Him through-out each given day
And let Him use me just how-e'er He may.

I want to linger in His Presence still
To merge my will in His own precious will—
To warm my soul in His beloved smile—
Oh—I need to sit at Jesus' feet a while!

IF WE ONLY UNDERSTOOD

(By Rudyard Kipling)

If we knew the care and trials
Knew the efforts all in vain
And the bitter disappointment,
Understood the loss and gain
Would the grim eternal roughness
Seem—I wonder—just the same?
Should we help where now we hinder
Should we pity where we blame?

Ah! we judge each other harshly,
Knowing not life's hidden force
Knowing not the fount of action
Is less turbid at its source;
Seeing not amid the evil
All the golden grains of good;
And we'd love each other better
If we only understood.

Could we judge all deeds by motives
That surround each other's lives
See the naked heart and spirit
Know what spur the action gives
Often we would find it better
Purer than we judge we should
We should love each other better
If we only understood.

Could we judge all deeds by motives,
See the good and bad within,
Often we should love the sinner
All the while we loathe the sin;
Could we know the powers working
To overthrow integrity,
We should judge each other's errors
More than patient charity.

Canadians last year spent $32,500,000 on motion pictures. It is a popular form of amusement. The amount works out to an average of nearly $3 for every Canadian.—Hanover Post.

Under great pressure or emergency when help is quickly needed, pray for it.
