MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Deacon A. G. Good of Moncton passed away Thursday morning, Sept. 14th. The funeral service will be held on Saturday. Obituary will appear later.

Rev. T. W. DeLong, of Walthan, Mass., preached Sunday evening, Sept. 10th, in the Reformed Baptist Church, Fredericton. Five souls responded to the invitation. His daughter, Mrs. Walker, sang a solo. Brother DeLong was visiting his brother, J. P. DeLong.

Rev. G. R. Symonds, of Woods Harbor, N. S., is assisting Lic. A. D. Cann in special meetings at Salem, N. B.

A letter from Sister Kierstead, one of our missionaries in Africa, wishes me to say that their present address is Rev. E. A. M. Kierstead, Delfkom P. O., via Piet Reteif, Transvaal, S. A., and that the postage required to send a letter there is six cents (6c). If there is not enough postage put on a letter here they have to pay double on that end, so be sure you put six cents on all your letters. They write very encouragingly of the work there. See their letter in this issue.

The brethren of our ministry and also all the young people who attended the Young People's Convention at Toronto had a very interesting trip. The officers of the Young People's Society who were present will no doubt write a full report of the meeting for the Highway.

Most of our ministers who went to the convention at Toronto preached there on Sunday. The editor of the King's Highway preached in the Free Methodist Church in the morning and in the First Nazarene Church in the evening.

Rev. H. S. Dow spent Sunday, Sept. 10th, with the Church at Westchester, N. S., and also expects to be with them on Sunday, the 17th.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop and Rev. H. S. Dow attended the revival meetings at Salem, N. B., Wednesday evening, Sept. 13th. The interest is very good and some souls are being blessed.

Rev. G. R. Symonds expects to assist Rev. F. A. Dunlop in special meetings at Marysville in October.

The church at Moncton is enjoying the labors of their new pastor, Rev. H. M. Kimball. The attendance is increasing and prayer meetings are good and well attended.

CORRESPONDENCE

East Florenceville, N. B.

Dear Brother:

You will find enclosed a postal note for $2.00.

My renewal for the King's Highway.

As editor, I think you are to be congratulated on your good success in keeping your church paper measuring up to the old time holiness standard.

With my sincere wish that the Highway may bring a rich Spiritual blessing to every home receiving it.

I am yours in the Master's service,

(REV.) G. A. SELLAR

Have you looked at the label on your paper to see if you are paid up? We need your renewal.—Editor.

EVIDENCES OF HOLINESS

Mr. Wesley was once asked, "By what fruit of the Spirit may we know that we are of God, even in the highest sense?" His answer was, "By love, by joy, and peace abiding; by long-suffering, patience, resignation; by gentleness triumphing over all provocation; by goodness, mildness, sweetness, tenderness of spirit; by fidelity, simplicity, godly sincerity, meekness, calmness, evenness of spirit; by temperance, not only in food and sleep but in all things, natural and spiritual.

"This involves further total resignation to the will of God without any mixture of self-will; gentleness without any touch of anger, even the moment we are provoked; love to God without the least love to the creature but in and for God, excluding all pride and all envy, all jealousy and rash judging; meekness, keeping the whole soul inviolably calm, and temperance in all things."

OBITUARY

Hugh Churchill

Yarmouth County lost one of its most highly respected citizens and one of its most successful business men in the passing of Mr. Hugh Churchill at the age of 65 years. Mr. Churchill had an attack with his heart last spring, but almost fully recovered from that. The end came very suddenly on Sunday morning, Aug. 20th.

Mr. Churchill has resided in Yarmouth for a number of years where he was employed 22 years with the Eastern Steamship Company. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Churchill. He was born in Sandford and when a young man united with the R. B. Church at Sandford. He always kept his church connection. The pastors who have served on this field know how Mr. Churchill has kept vitally interested in our work on this circuit and who he has helped in a very substantial way in the upkeep of the same. His deeds both small and large were not always known by the majority.

Besides his beloved wife he leaves one daughter, Mrs. U. A. Mader, Halifax; one sister, Mrs. Martha Rodney, Sandford; a grand-daughter, nephews and nieces. Mrs. Eugene Keirstead is a niece.

The funeral was held from the late home on Aug. 23. Rev. G. A. Rogers officiated and Rev. H. Westhrup assisted. The singers of the Wesley United Church sang "Meet Me There" and "Abide With Me." Mr. Ian Shaw rendered a solo.

The beautiful flowers and the large funeral bore silent testimony of the high esteem in which Mr. Churchill was held in the community.

Interment was made in the Chegoggin cemetery.

To the sorrowing ones we extend tender sympathy.

Mrs. Samuel Gorst

The death of Mrs. Samuel Gorst took place Wednesday, Sept. 6th, 1939. She had been in failing health for some time, and was in the 81st year of her age. She was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church of Fredericton, and was always faithful in life and testimony to the saving and keeping power of Jesus her Saviour. She was a faithful and loving mother, a good and kind neighbor and friend to all. She leaves three sons, Clarence Brown, Sandford Brown, George Brown, and a large number of grandchildren. She was twice married, her last husband, Samuel Gorst, predeceased her several years. The funeral was held from the home of her son, George, Allan St., Fredericton, N. B., Friday, Sept. 8th, at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. P. J. Trafton officiating, assisted by Rev. John Linton, U. B. Interment was made in Sunny Bank cemetery. There were numerous beautiful floral tributes.

THE BRAVEST MEN

It is related of Lord Clyde, states the Rev. E. J. Hardy, chaplain to the forces, that on one occasion he asked his officers to pick him the bravest men from his small army before Delhi, to form the forlorn hope in a desperate attack. It was on a Sunday evening. "There is a prayer meeting going on now in the camp," said the officers. "If you go there you will find all the bravest men."—The Christian Age.
