

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The evangelistic meetings at Killams' Mills have proved a blessing to that place. Quite a number of souls found salvation. They had a baptism there on Sunday, May 28th. Rev. G. A. Rogers, of Port Maitland, who was their evangelist, is visiting his parents at Benton, N. B., for a few days since the meetings closed at Killams, and on June 1st he expects to go with Rev. P. J. Trafton and Mrs. Trafton, of Fredericton, to Wollaston, Mass., to attend the graduation services of Eastern Nazarene College. Rev. Norman Trafton, son of Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton, graduates this year. Mrs. George Rogers is already at Saugus, Mass., visiting her parents. After their visit Rev. and Mrs. Rogers expect to return to Yarmouth, N. S., by boat. Rev. H. S. Mullen, of Saint John, has accepted a call to Black's Harbour for the coming year.

Rev. J. A. Owens made a brief call on the editor of the King's Highway on Monday on his way home from the quarterly meeting at Killam's Mills. He reports the work at Westchester, N. S., quite encouraging. He had a baptism there recently.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Rev. E. E. Angell, of Nampha, Idaho, very recently. The funeral service was held at Wollaston, Mass. Many of our people will remember Professor Angell. He was our evangelist at Beulah one year. He was a good man, an excellent preacher and carried a great burden for lost souls. His place will be hard to fill. He was Professor of Theology in the Nazarene College at Nampha, Idaho. The King's Highway extends sincere sympathy to his bereaved family.

Rev. S. G. Hilyard, of Royalton, writes encouragingly of the work there and at Brookville. The people there have been redecorating the inside of the parsonage, and the people at Brookville have been making special contributions to the pastor's needs recently.

Rev. E. R. Watson, of Meductic, and Rev. H. M. Kimball and family, of Black's Harbour, were recent callers at the Royalton parsonage. And Rev. S. G. Hilyard attended prayer-meeting at Fort Fairfield Tuesday evening, May 16th.

Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Woodstock, who is being assisted in evangelistic services at Woodstock by Rev. Wm. and Mrs. Mallory, writes that they are getting good preaching with fair attendance; and we hear since that some souls have been helped.

Rev. H. C. Archer is supplying for Rev. G. A. Rogers in Nova Scotia in Brother Rogers' absence.

A truck load of over 20 young people from Moncton church attended the Young People's Rally at Killams the 24th.

AN OMISSION

We learned just recently that the money raised for missions by our church at Gordonsville, N. B., last year was not acknowledged in the report of the Gordonsville Church in the minutes. We don't know the exact amount that was raised, but we do know that the Deplissey family at Bristol gave $40.00 to this fund. We are sorry that this was overlooked, and did not get into our minute book for we appreciate the interest that the Gordonsville church has always shown in our missionary work, and we are glad to acknowledge it.—H. S. D.

PERSONALS

"He whom thou lovest is sick." May the Lord bless them all.

Mrs. S. A. Baker has not been very well lately, but is able to be up and about the house, and expects to get to Beulah again as usual.

Mrs. T. W. Whitten, also of Woodstock, is confined to her bed again in poor health. Brother Whitten, who is bedfast, keeps about the same.

Mrs. Frank Weade, of Royalton, who was in the hospital at Bath recently for an operation, has recovered sufficiently to be out to church again.

Brother Silas Burt, of Royalton, had a very poorly spell recently but is improved and out again.

Mrs. Henry Hoyt, who is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Burden, in Fredericton, N. B., is seriously ill at the present time.

Mrs. F. D. Foley, of Saint John, N. B., is recovering slowly after an operation in the Saint John Public Hospital, eight weeks ago.

Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton and Miss Emma Trafton, R. N., spent the day in Saint John, May 25th.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1 will convene with the Church at Lower Hainesville, June 1-4, and asks clerks to send the church reports to me, and oblige,

Yours truly,

FLORA M. O. BROWN,

Secretary

Also Sunday School Convention at this session of the Quarterly.

A DONATION

We were surprised on the evening of April 13th upon arriving home from our service in Shag Harbour to find the house filled with a goodly number of Church folk and friends who had gathered there with their arms laden with groceries. As they left we were enriched by a presentation in groceries and cash.

We were also kindly remembered at the Easter season with appropriate things to eat. The Shag Harbour friends gave us a Bible which we needed very badly.

We appreciate the kindness of these dear people and trust that God will richly bless them and that we shall be the blessing to them that the Lord would have us to be.

MR. & MRS. G. R. SYMONDS

MARRIED

Billings-Tranquilla

A wedding of interest took place recently at the Reformed Baptist Church parsonage, Marysville, when Miss Mable Tranquilla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tranquilla, of Millville, N. B., was united in marriage to Austin Billings, son of Harper Billings and the late Mrs. Billings, of Central Hainesville, N. B., the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. A. Dunlop. The bride was attended by Miss Beatrice Brawn, of Nashwaaksis, while the groom was supported by Arthur Morgan, of Upper Hainesville. Following the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the groom's father, where a reception was held. The happy young couple will reside at Central Hainesville.

The missionary passion is one of the fundamental elements of a healthy Christian life. If that is dying out we are in great danger of losing the semblance of life that we have. It can be demonstrated that churches die or else become mere social organizations when the missionary impulse grows weak.—Bradley Jones.
