

Owens, who spoke from James 4:14, "For what is your life?" He was assisted by Lic. Mr. Dollar, U.B. A mixed choir sang three selections, "Nearer My Home," Pearly White City" and "The Night of Death is Near," and Mrs. Owens sang, "I Want to Go There, Don't You?"

The beautiful floral tributes bespoke of the esteem in which she was held by church and community.

Interment was made in the family lot in Westchester. May God bless and sustain those left to mourn.—H. B. O.

Mrs. J. H. Coy

On Thursday, March 23rd, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Briggs, Mrs. Angelina Coy at the age of 84, passed to the Great Beyond, after a brief illness.

The deceased's first husband was T. H. Ackerson who died in 1906. In 1909 Mrs. Ackerson married Rev. J. H. Coy who also predeceased her. She has made her home these several years with her daughter, Alda, who has given her mother kindly care and for which she always expressed herself as very grateful.

To the former marriage there were ten daughters, seven of whom survive. There are also eleven grandchildren and nine great grandchildren, one brother and one sister to remember a kind mother and friend.

The funeral services were held on Friday with a brief service at the home followed by a service at 2.00 p.m. at the R.B. church in Woodstock, where Sister Coy was a beloved member. At this service Rev. L. T. Sabine was assisted by Revs. H. C. Mullen and P. J. Trafton.

The body was laid to rest in the family lot at Bridgewater, Me.

Our sister was well known in the State of Maine as well as in N. B. She will be missed at our Camp Meetings where she was held in high esteem by her many friends as devout Christian.

The sympathy of the large acquaintance is extended to the relatives.

Mrs. Ernest Smith

Mrs. Ernest Smith died on March 23rd at her home in Sandford. Mrs. Smith was 49 years of age. She has been in failing health for the past year. The writer called on her several times during her sickness. She was always glad to hear him read the Word and pray. She testified that her trust was in God.

Besides her beloved husband she leaves two daughters, Mrs. George Dennis, Wellington, Mrs. Chester Rodney, Sandford; four sons, Bernard, Victor, Ronald and Robert at home; one sister, Mrs. Arthur Christie, Barrington Passage, and three grandchildren.

The services were held on Sunday, March 23. The writer had charge of the service at the house. Immediately following the funeral was held from the U. B. Church at Sandford. Rev. A. S. Bishop was in charge. Rev. G. A. Rogers spoke from Ps. 39:4. A mixed choir from the U. B. and R. B. churches sang three selections. Ivan Shaw rendered a beautiful solo.

Interment was made in the Chegoggin cemetery.

God bless these bereaved hearts in this hour of sorrow. G. A. ROGERS

Mr. Roland H. Trites

Mr. Roland H. Trites, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Indian Mountain, died at the home of his son, Irvine, on Wednesday, April 5th, of pneumonia, in the ninetyeth year of his age.

He is survived by four sons, Henry, of Berry Mills, Rufus of Stilesville, Russell of Wells,

B.C., and Irvine with whom he lived; and two daughters, Mrs. Howard Young of Melrose, Mass., and Mrs. Guy Horsman of Lutes Mountain; one sister, Mrs. Susan Mitton of Salisbury. Also surviving are 23 grandchildren and other relatives and many friends.

The funeral service was held from the home on Friday, Rev. H. S. Dow, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church, of Moncton, officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Graves of Berry Mills. Burial was made in the family lot at Birch Hill cemetery.

Mary Esther Tedlie

The death of Mary (Manie) Esther Tedlie, daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Hale Tedlie, occurred at the home of her sister, Mrs. Annie Hovey, 9 Grange St., Houlton, Maine, early Tuesday morning, April 4th.

The deceased, who was seventy-two years of age, was born at Newburgh Jct., and resided there until twenty years ago when she moved to Houlton with her sister and family.

Miss Tedlie had never enjoyed robust health since childhood, but was a very clever student, and had prepared herself at the early age of sixteen for the teaching profession, but was forced to abandon the plan, on account of being afflicted with deafness, which became decidedly acute at that time.

She then began to take a keen interest in art needlework, and became an adept in designing and making all kinds of dainty articles and garments. She was famous both in New Brunswick and Maine for her exquisitely beautiful handiwork.

She was a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church at Lower Brighton, whose pastor, Rev. H. S. Mullen conducted the funeral service, assisted by Rev. Mr. Simpson and Rev. Mr. Storms, Houlton. The text chosen was "Let me die the death of the righteous, let my last end be like His." The hymns, "Abide With Me" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul" were sweetly rendered by chosen singers.

The pall-bearers were relatives of the deceased, Maurice Haley, Willard Hovey and Byron Hand of Houlton; and Fred Brown of Newburgh Jct.

Interment was made in the family lot at Lower Brighton.

One sister, Mrs. Annie Hovey, the last of a family of nine, survives, also several nephews and nieces in Maine, Penn., N. B., and Canadian West.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Burns passed away at the Community Hospital of Fort Fairfield, Maine, on April 6th. Friday afternoon a brief service was held at Dorsey's Funeral Parlors, conducted by the writer.

We extend our sympathy and prayers to the bereaved. H. E. MULLEN

The parents and friends of the community were shocked by the sudden death of Jackie Sherwin Mullen, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mullen, of Weymouth, N. S.

Death occurred on Sunday afternoon, March 26th, following the brief illness of six hours, from an attack of influenza. The baby was five months old. He leaves to mourn besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Mullen, grandparents, Mrs. H. M. Kimball, an aunt, and Freddie Mullen, an uncle.

Service was conducted by the writer at the home of the parents. The message was based on II. Samuel 12:23: "I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me."

Music was furnished by Mrs. Fred Hankin-son and Carl Mullen. Interment was made in the Havelock cemetery. To the bereaved we extend our sympathy.

H. L. ROBERTSON

Riley Haskell

Port Maitland has lost one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens in the passing of Mr. Riley Haskell at the age of 78 years. Mr. Haskell had been in failing health for the past few months. On April 4th the end came rather suddenly as a result of hemorrhage of the brain.

Mr. Haskell had been a fisherman for about sixty years. He was a friendly man, a good neighbor and a fine citizen. The people of this village knew him as "Uncle Riley." He shall be greatly missed in this community.

Besides his beloved wife, formerly Miss Hattie Smith, he leaves one brother, David, Port Maitland, N. S.; three sisters, Mrs. Georgia Banks, Danvers, Mass.; Mrs. Alvina Trask, Port Maitland, N. S.; and Mrs. Ida Wiggins, Danvers, Mass.; a number of nephews and nieces and a host of friends.

The funeral was held from the home on Sunday, April 9th. Rev. G. A. Rogers spoke from I. Cor. 7:29, and II. Kings 20:1: "The time is short," and "Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live." Rev. A. S. Bishop and Rev. G. R. Symonds assisted. The choir from the R. B. Church of Sandford sang three selections. The large attendance and the beautiful flowers were a silent testimony of the high esteem in which Mr. Haskell was held by the people of Port Maitland.

Interment was made in the Island cemetery.

May the God of all grace comfort these hearts in this valley of sorrow.

G. A. ROGERS

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 convened with the Church at Amherst, March 23rd to 27th, inclusive.

The opening service, Thursday night, was in charge of Rev. J. A. Owens, who preached from I. Peter 3:8-17. Our brother's message was deep and searching.

Friday afternoon we had a spiritual refreshing in a "Love Feast," led by Brother Owens.

Friday night Rev. H. S. Dow brought us a message from Heb. 6:1: "Not laying again the foundation of repentance," it was a message that we as God's people need to keep in mind. We were sorry Brother Dow could not stay with us for the remaining services.

Saturday afternoon the business meeting of the Quarterly was held. After the formal opening, Mrs. McBrien was appointed secretary pro tem. Roll Call found the following ministers present: Rev. H. S. Mullen, Rev. J. A. Owens and Mrs. H. C. Sanders. Delegates were present from the Moncton and Upper Millstream Churches.

The following officers were elected:

President—Rev. J. A. Owens.

Vice-President—Rev. H. S. Mullen.

Secretary—N. J. Sanders.

Treasurer—Mrs. McBrien.

Highway Reporter—Mrs. H. C. Sanders.

Reports were read from the St. John, Greys Mills and Amherst Churches. Verbal reports were given from the churches at Moncton, Killams Mills and Westchester. We were glad to hear from these churches, knowing that we are "members one of another." Motion passed

(Continued on Page 8)