

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. E. A. M. Kierstead, one of our outgoing missionaries is at present at St. Andrews visiting his mother, Mrs. I. M. Kierstead, and his brother, Karl and family. Their boy Harold who is with his father, is going to school there and Bro. Eugene is also taking some studies in the Dutch language as well as some other subjects which will further his education and help him in his work. The last date which is set by the steamship company for their sailing from Saint John is March 6. Mrs. E. A. M. Kierstead and their other two boys are still at Sandford, N. S.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and the church at Fredericton expect to begin evangelistic services there on March 5th with Rev. Wm. and Mrs. Mallory of Trenton, Ont., as evangelists.

Since the New Year has come in a great many subscribers to the King's Highway are in arrears. Please look at the label on your paper, friends, and let us hear from you as soon as possible. We need the money to pay our printers. Thank you.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane, of Seal Cove, N. B., reports a good meeting at Wood Island with Lic. A. D. Cann as evangelist. He writes that Brother Cann is doing great preaching and many have found the Lord. Bro. Cochrane expects to begin special services at Seal Cove on Feb. 16 with Rev. J. R. Turple as evangelist.

Rev. H. S. Wilson, of Calais, Me., expects to begin evangelistic services there in March with Rev. W. E. Smith as his evangelist. Brother Smith is at present engaged in services at Amherst, N. S. We have good reports from their services there.

Rev. G. A. Rogers and the church at Port Maitland, N. S., are engaged in special meetings there. Rev. F. A. Dunlop of Marysville is their special helper, and Brother Rogers writes that he is doing great preaching. They will continue over Feb. 22.

The Editor of the King's Highway enjoyed a very pleasant, but all too short visit with Deacon F. K. Brown, of Lower Brighton, who was in Moncton on business last Thursday.

NOTICE DISTRICT NO. 3

Our Quarterly Meeting will convene (D.V.) with the Church at Black's Harbor, Feb. 23rd to 26th inclusive.

Brethren let us plan to go and enjoy the time of refreshing from the Lord.

H. S. WILSON,
Secretary.

Writes Dr. Carrel, world-renowned surgeon and scientist: "The civilized races seem to be losing the courage to live. In almost every country the reproduction of the more gifted individuals is decreasing. Nervous fragility, intellectual weakness, moral corruption, and insanity are more dangerous for our future than yellow fever, typhus, and cancer. The specialists of physiology, medicine, pedagogy, politics, economics, and of other human activities, have proved their incapacity to solve the problem that concerns us as a whole."

A suspicious parent makes an artful child.—Haliburton.

A CORRECTION

In Brother Anderson's good article on "Why Stagger at the Promise," in the last issue of the Highway, there are several mistakes. The first two are in the last paragraph of the second column, where it reads: God does not do a holy work. It should read: God does not do a half work.

Also in the last column, paragraph two in the first line, holy is again used for half. Again in the last sentence of the first paragraph in column three it reads: "It is not plain then, etc." It should read: "Is it not plain then?" We are sorry for these errors, and humbly apologize to Brother Anderson for letting them get in, which might lead some who do not know our brother, to think he was not straight on doctrine, although we who know him better, know that he is, and hope he will write again, and we will be more careful next time. If these brethren, and sisters too, would write oftener, the printers and proof readers would become better acquainted with their writing, hence, would not be so likely to make errors.

BE TRUE

Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman

Be true to your ideals. Set them high. You will hardly rise above them. Let them lift you in spite of life's undercurrents. Keep your eyes up, your vision clear, your faith steady.

Be true to your convictions, only test them well. See if they will hold when the strain is heavy, the sky starless, your friends few. If they hold, follow them.

In times of crisis the demand is not for men of genius nor men of worldwide fame, but for those who are true. It is not necessary that we should succeed as the world counts success, but if life be worth the living it is absolutely essential that in all things we should be true.—Sel.

A METHODIST RESOLUTION

(In the handwriting of John Wesley)

It is agreed by us whose names are underwritten:

1. That we will not listen to or willingly inquire after any ill concerning each other.

2. That if we do hear any ill of each other we will not be forward to believe it.

3. That as soon as possible we will communicate what we hear by speaking or writing to the person concerned.

4. That till we have done this we will not write or speak a syllable of it to any other person whatever.

5. That neither will we mention it after we have done this to any other person.

6. That we will not make any exception to any of these rules unless we think ourselves absolutely obliged in conscience so to do.

UNCOMPROMISING

I am often told today that what the church of God needs in order to succeed is to catch the spirit of the age. I reply that the church succeeds only in proportion as she corrects the spirit of the age. I am told that if I am to succeed as a Christian worker I must adopt the methods of the world. Then, by God's help, I will be defeated. We are not in the world to borrow the world's maxims and spirit. The world would crucify Jesus as readily now as nineteen centuries ago. The cross is no more popular in the world today than when men nailed Him to it on the green hill outside the city gate nineteen centuries ago.—G. Campbell Morgan.
