

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane and Mrs. Cochrane are engaged in special meetings at Nortondale, N. B. He writes that his address from Nov. 4th to 24th will be Meductic, N. B.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop, of Marysville, N. B., is assisting the church and pastor at Sandford, N. S., in evangelistic meetings.

Rev. A. D. Cann, of Westchester, N. S., expects to begin evangelistic services with the pastor and church at Millville, N. B., on Nov. 3rd, instead of Oct. 1st, as was formerly announced.

Brother Cann and Mrs. Cann made a few days visit to Sister Cann's home at Hicksville recently. They also visited friends at Salem and Killams.

Mr. R. T. Sellick, of Oxford, N. S., was also with Brother and Sister Cann and spent a few days hunting. Brother Sellick spoke at the regular prayer meeting at Salem on Friday evening, Oct. 25th.

Rev. P. W. Briggs writes asking to have the address changed on his paper from Skowhegan, Me., to Havelock, N. S., so we take it for granted that he expects to move to Havelock and take charge of the church there.

Rev. P. J. Trafton supplied for Rev. F. A. Dunlop Sunday night, Oct. 27th, and Chester Cochrane, of Marysville, supplied for Brother Trafton.

FOREIGN MISSION FUND

Beals S. S.	$17.60
Mrs. D. Deplissey and friends, for the Immanuel R. B. Church in the Transvaal	$10.00
Mrs. D. Deplissey	1.50
Mrs. Pearl Green	2.50
Pledges—
Mrs. C. P. Phillips	5.00
Moses Hillman	5.00
Native Workers—
Belvidere Church	14.90
Crystal Church	11.00
Seal Cove S. S.	20.00

L. T. SABINE,
Woodstock, N. B.,
Treasurer

P. S.—We thank Mrs. Deplissey and her friends for the $40.00 in all that has been sent for the erection of a new church.—L. T. S.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Mrs. A. A. Hartley50
Mrs. Annie Horncastle.....	.50

Thank you for your help.

Again I would remind our subscribers of our needs. We are not receiving enough from our renewals to meet our financial obligations. And please remember we have no other source of income to draw from to pay for the printing of our paper, the King's Highway. So please look at the date on your paper today, and if it does not read 40 or 41, send in your renewal. We are depending on you, friends, to help us.

H. S. DOW, Editor

BIRTHS

On Oct. 25th, to Lic. Mered Grant and wife, a son, Charles David. Weight 7 lbs. and 10 ozs.

PERSONALS

Mr. A. E. Luther, of the Friends Church, Newport, R. I. accompanied Rev. Norman E. Trafton, B. A., on his trip home recently.—P. J. T.

We just had a letter from our good sister, Mrs. I. M. Keirstead, of St. Andrews. She writes that her health is very poor. She suffers a great deal with neuritis. Let us remember her in prayer.

HOME MISSION FUND

Nora Everill	Pledge	$ 2.00
Miss Emma Trafton.....	"	10.00
Wm. K. Trafton.....	"	10.00
Charles Goodspeed	"	5.00
Mrs. Allen Nason.....	"	2.00

We trust that others will respond soon. Thanks!

P. J. TRAFTON,
Treasurer

MARRIED

Harding-MacCallum

The community church of Monticello, Me., was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday evening, Oct. 16th, when Miss Lois Elizabeth MacCallum, of Humphrey's, N. B., became the bride of Robert Harding, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Harding, of Bridgewater, Maine. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Lee C. Good, of Monticello, using the double ring ceremony.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Bridgewater, Maine.—Moncton Times.

Sanders-Murchy

On Oct. 14th, at 2.30 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murchy, Dartmouth, N. S., Norman J. Sanders and Miss Bessie Murchy were united in marriage.

It was a quiet home wedding, with the families of the contracting parties and a few close friends attending.

The groom was attended by the bride's brother, James, and the bride by one of her classmates of N. S. Hospital, Miss Hamilton.

Rev. Elgie, pastor of the bride's family, performed the ceremony.

For a time they will reside at their small apartment at 103 Charles St., Halifax.

May God continue to bless this Christian young couple. MRS. H. C. S.

Marsten-Dills

The Reformed Baptist Churches, at Meductic, was the scene of a wedding of interest on Wednesday, Sept. 25th, when Miss Bernice Dills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dills, of Whichita, Kansas, and Lic. W. D. Marsten, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marsten, of Meductic, were united in marriage by Rev. E. R. Watson.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom, the house being decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The young couple will reside in Roy-alton.

Among those at the wedding were Mrs. LeRoy Dills, mother of the bride, from Kansas, U. S.

Both bride and groom attended God's Bible School at Cincinnati.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die Revelation 14-13. in the Lord."—

Mr. Herbert Brawn

The death of Mr. Herbert Brawn occurred at his home at Millville Sept. 13th.

Mr. Brawn was among the older members of the community, having come here when a boy. There were only two or three houses in the community at that time, and comparatively few acres of cleared land. He was a deacon of our Reformed Baptist Church at Millville, and our work here has suffered a great loss in the passing of our brother who was faithful in his office and in his support of the work, also in attendance of the services when his health permitted.

The funeral service was held at the home and the Union Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Bainbridge, pastor of the United Baptist Church, and Rev. S. G. Hilyard assisted with the service at the house, and Rev. L. T. Sabine and Rev. S. G. Hilyard at the church.

Interment was made in the Millville cemetery.

We extend our sympathy to those bereaved. F. A. ANDERSON

Jacob H. Goewey

Jonesport lost one of its older residents, and the Reformed Baptist Church of this town lost another of its charter members in the passing away of our brother, who departed this life at 1 a. m. Thursday, the 17th, after a lingering illness. Brother Goewey was nearing his 78th year. Funeral services were conducted from the R. B. Church Saturday at 2 p. m., the writer officiating.

Surviving are his widow, one son, George H., of Charlestown, Mass.; one daughter, Mrs. Hortense Fish, of South West Harbour; one grandchild and a host of relatives and friends. The many floral tributes were silent reminders of the high esteem in which our brother was held.

To those bereaved we offer sympathy and prayer. H. S. WILSON

Nadine E. White

The death of Nadine, 6 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl White, of Jonesport, occurred at the hospital in Machias Tuesday, the 22nd, three hours after being hit by an automobile.

The funeral service was held on Friday at 2 p. m. from the Upper Bay school-house, by the writer.

Little Nadine leaves to mourn their loss, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. White, and two sisters, Marjorie and Beatrice, as well as many other near relatives.

We extend our deepest sympathy to those bereaved. H. S. WILSON

HELPING SOMEWHERE

Is your father at home?" I asked a small child on the doorstep of the village doctor.

"No," he said, "he's away."

"Where do you think I could find him?"

"Well," he said with a considering air, "you've got to look for some place where people are sick or hurt, or something like that. I don't know where he is, but he's helping somewhere."

This is what should be said of the follower of Christ. "He's to be found where people are sick or in trouble; he's helping somewhere."—Selected.