Mrs. Ada A. Rodney

Mrs. Ada A. Rodney, formerly of Sandford, N. S., died of pneumonia in Lynn, Mass., on April 5th at the age of 70 years. The funeral was held from the Goodrich Funeral Parlors on April 7th. Rev. James A. Young, pastor of the Nazarene Church, officiated.

The body was brought home by boat. Interment was made in the cemetery at Darling Lake, N. S. A short service was held at the grave. Rev. G. A. Rogers gave a brief message and had charge of the committal service. Singers from the R. B. Churches of Sandford and Port Maitland rendered two beautiful selections.

When a young woman Mrs. Rodney became a member of the Reformed Baptist Church, Sandford. Since coming to Lynn, Mass., she had been a regular attendant of the Nazarene Church. The testimony concerning Mrs. Rodney was that she was a devoted Christian woman.

She leaves three brothers, Mr. Arthur Wyman, Short Beach, N. S., Mr. Robert Wyman and Mr. Copiel Wyman, U. S. A.; four sisters, Mrs. C. E. Churchill, Darling Lake, N. S.; Mrs. Frances Layte, Mrs. Estelle McKenney and Mrs. Katherine Churchill, Mass., U. S. A.; one grandson, Rodney Oak, and a large circle of friends.

May God bless all sorrowing hearts in the hour of bereavement.

DONATION

On Tuesday evening, April 9th, about thirty-five people from the church and community of Royalton met at the parsonage to spend the evening with their pastor and family.

We enjoyed the fellowship of these good people in this social time and hymn singing. During the evening the ladies served a very tasty lunch which too seemed to be enjoyed by everyone.

After all had departed for their homes, we found that a substantial sum of money had been deposited on the living room table and some produce had been left in the pantry and porch. While some who found it impossible to be present, are showing that their "spirit was indeed willing," are sending or bringing their portion.

We wish to thank one and all for these kind remembrances and say God bless you and continue to make you a blessing.

REV. S. G. and MRS. HILYARD

DONATION

Wednesday evening, May 8th, we were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stokes and Mr. John Cogle. Nearly forty people from the church and community met for a social time, engaging in contests and conversation.

About ten o'clock Brother Stanley Pryor with a few well chosen remarks, on behalf of those present presented the pastor and his wife with a fine purse of money and produce made up of butter and eggs. Mrs. Hilyard and I tried to express our appreciation to these good people for their tangible means of help that they have shown to us during our stay among them, and the present donation, following which the pastor gave thanks to our Heavenly Father and prayed His blessing on them and His work, then all joined in singing Blest be the Tie that Binds.

A very tasty lunch was served by some of the ladies which brought to a close a very enjoyable evening to all and a profitable one for the pastor and family.

We thank one and all.

NOTICE QUARTERLY DISTRICT 3

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 3 will convene with the Reformed Baptist Church at Seal Cove May 23-26 inclusive.

Let there be a large representation from all the Churches in the district. Please send reports in on time. The success of the Quarterly depends largely upon the individual personal preparation. Let's pray for a great time in the Lord. H. L. ROBERTSON, Secretary

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 will convene with the church at Salem, N. B., on Thursday, May 30th, to continue over the following Sunday. J. A. OWENS

QUARTERLY MEETING DISTRICT NO. 2
To the Reformed Baptist Churches of District No. 2:

In two short weeks after this is published, the Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 will convene with the R. B. Church at Salem.

Now a Quarterly can only attain its objective as it is sustained by the individual pastors and churches comprising that district.

For instance if there are twelve churches on a district and one fails to have their letter reporting the work for the last quarter and fails to have a delegate to represent their church, and also if that particular church's pastor is absent, right away one-twelfth of our force is down.

We hear a good deal these days about the "fire power" of the navy and land forces in the war.

The objective of our Quarterly is a time of reviving of salvation of lost souls. Praying God's blessing and favor on us; going on with the Lord.

Since coming on this district, I remember a Quarterly when a good representation was there and after the smoke of battle cleared, there had been twenty-two souls, some on planks of reclamation, timbers of conversion, life-belts of sanctification, had escaped safely to land. Praise the Lord.

Let us begin now to ask God to help us that we won't be low on "fire power" at this Quarterly, but rather have a good representation from each church. I mention the different churches on District No. 2: St. John (Grey's Mills); Norton, Mercer Settlement, Lower Millstream, Head of Millstream, Killam's Mills, Lutes Mountain, Moncton, Amherst, Westchester.

Now, beloved, let's have 100 per cent cooperation in this matter and God will bless our effort.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services—May 30th over the following Sunday.

Come, believing God.

President of District,

REV. J. A. OWENS

The understanding is better employed in bearing the misfortunes that actually befall us, than in anticipating those that possibly may.

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging. Whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.—Prov. 1:20.

WHO IS TO DRINK IT?

This is the report of an actual dialogue which took place between two American citizens the other day—one of them a business man, and the other a clergyman, to whom the business man spoke frankly, as one does to a good friend:

"Well," said the layman, with an air of finality, "prohibition is a failure, and we must get used to the idea of making America wet once again."

"But who is to drink the liquor?" queried his friend. "Will you?"

"Why, no," he replied. "You know I am a teetotaler."

"Will your son drink it?"

"No, that shall not be!"

"Would you want it to come back for the sake of your clerks?"

"No, it is my practice to discharge any clerks who drink liquor."

"Do you want your customers to drink it?"

"No, I would much rather not; I am sure that those who use strong drink will not buy so much from me nor pay their bills so promptly."

"Will you want the engineer on your train to use it?"

"No, I admit I don't want to ride on a drunkard's train."

"Ah, then, you want this liquor for the men whom you meet driving cars on the public highway?"

"No, of course not; that is a danger to everybody."

"Well, then, who is to drink this liquor in America, pray tell me?"

"I am not so sure that anybody should drink it. I guess we're much better off without it."—The American Issue.

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."—Prov. 20:1.

INTOLERANCE IN SPAIN

The spirit of the Inquisition has returned to Spain, according to a report in Sunday School Times. A new book by the National Chief of University and Secondary Education for Spain states, in outlining government policy: "The Catholic religion must be declared the official religion of the State. No public worship of any other religion will be permitted. It is said by some that the opinions of others must be tolerated and respected. We emphatically reject this assertion. The program for total Catholicization cannot be achieved without decided and opportune action against the anti-Catholic sects."—The Pentecostal Evangel.

WHAT THEY SAID BEFORE REPEAL

"The saloon will never come back."

"All we want is light wines and beer."

"We must have repeal to stop the young people from drinking."

"This terrible crime wave! Wipe out prohibition and we will stop it."

"The revenues from the sale of beer alone will enable us to decrease taxes."
