

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

We are very sorry that our good Sister I. M. Keirstead, of St. Andrews, is suffering so with neuritis. She finds it very hard to write letters. She is afraid that she may not be able to get to Beulah this year. Let us pray earnestly that the Lord will undertake for our sister and heal her.

We are glad to hear of the good work that Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Bradley are doing at Millendge, Maine. He has opened up three new needy places during the past year; has also started Sunday Schools, with a very good attendance, which the people seem to appreciate very much. See Mr. H. E. Tucker's letter in this issue.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane, of Seal Cove, G. M., N. B., writes that he has had several calls to pastoral work for the coming year, but he feels that the Lord is leading him and Mrs. Cochrane to do evangelistic work, so he is not accepting a pastorate. We look for our brother and sister to be a great blessing in the evangelistic field, and they will no doubt be kept busy. Our pastors will do well to engage them for special meetings. They are both good singers, which will be a special attraction and inspiration to their services.

The committee on music for our camp-meetings write that they are buying a new song book: "Hymns of the Comforter," which will sell at a very reasonable rate, perhaps about 15c each. So everybody plan to have a new book this year.

Rev. P. W. Briggs, who has been pastor at Head of Millstream for several years, has moved to Skowhegan, Maine.

Lic. Budd Price, of Killams, N. B., has accepted a call to Woods Harbour and Shag Harbor, N. S., as pastor for the coming year.

Rev. S. G. Hilyard, B. A., of Royalton, N. B., has accepted a call to the pastorate of our church at Perth for the coming year.

The editor of the King's Highway visited our church at Head of Millstream and had two services on Sunday, May 12th. We had a good attendance especially at the afternoon service, when the preaching was followed by a good, live testimony meeting which was a season of refreshing. Brothers W. K. Carson and Noah Hicks and two other brothers came up from Norton and vicinity and were a real inspiration to the service. The brothers and sisters at Head of Millstream surely enjoyed the meetings.

Dear Brother Dow: Seal Cove, N. B.

Our special meetings at Wood Island, March 27th-April 21st, were richly blessed of God. The church was refreshed and a number were saved and sanctified. Brother DeLong was with us for most of the services and gave his best, his messages being owned of the Spirit to the glory of God. His ministry was appreciated by the church and community.

The Sterritt Sisters are with us for this week-end, May 9-12, for special missionary services in our Seal Cove and Wood Island churches. Their messages are greatly enjoyed and the fine views of Africa they have are bringing our missionary work nearer to us than it has ever been before.

MARRIED

Allen-McIntosh

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Reformed Baptist Church parsonage, Marysville, on Saturday afternoon, April 20th, when Miss Pearl T. McIntosh and Theodore L. Allen, both of Penniac, were united in marriage by Rev. F. A. Dunlop. The happy young couple will reside at Penniac.

Moore-Hagerman

A wedding of interest took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, May 11th, when Rev. F. A. Dunlop united in marriage Della A. Hagerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hagerman, of Bear Island, to Norman A. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore, Marysville.

After the ceremony, which was witnessed by many firends and relatives, the happy young couple left on a motor trip through Maine. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside at Marysville, where Mr. Moore is employed with Canadian Cottons.
